NORTH CAROLINA METHODIST BICENTENNIAL

CURRITUCK COURTHOUSE–SEPTEMBER 28, 1972

Joseph Pilmore was born in Tadmouth, Yorkshire, England, on October 31, 1739. He was converted under John Wesley, who assisted with his education at Kingswood School. He was one of Wesley's itinerants in England about four years.

Joseph Pilmore and Richard Boardman were selected as the first pair of English clergymen to be appointed by John Wesley to go to America. Both arrived in 1769 and remained for five years. Pilmore became pastor of historic Old Saint George's Church in Philadelphia. He soon drew large congregations there. In 1772 Pilmore made a southern journey through the colonies preaching and establishing societies as he went. Lovely Lane Church in Baltimore and Monumental Church in Portsmouth, Virginia, are only two of the continuing groups he organized.

In September Pilmore entered North Carolina reporting that the day was hot and the journey was through the woods. After stopping for the night at an unnamed place, he began again in the morning, "and a little before noon arrived at Currituck Courthouse."

"The people gathered sooner than I expected, I began without delay, and declared to Churchmen, Baptists, and Presbyterians, 'He shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost and with fire,' and God made his word like a hammer that breaketh the rock to pieces."

While in North Carolina for about three days, he was entertained by Colonel Hallowell Williams, member of the Congress held at Halifax in 1776 and an active and devoted Methodist. After preaching at a chapel five miles from Williams' the next day, he held another service at Narrow's Chapel which was about twenty-five miles south of Currituck. Then he returned to Tidewater Virginia before continuing south to Charleston and Savannah.

In recognition of this first Methodist sermon preached by an Anglican clergyman under assignment by John Wesley, a statewide celebration was held on September 28, 1972 at Currituck Courthouse marking the two hundredth anniversary. Dr. Frederick Maser, editor of Pilmore's *Journal,*and Bishop Herbert Bell Shaw of the A.M.E. Zion Church were principal speakers in addition to several local histories which were given to comprise the program for the occasion.

Joseph Pilmore's picture is on the cover of the 1972 North Carolina Conference Journal with the date of this historic event. The Reverend C. Franklin Grill, chairman of the Conference Commission on Archives and History presided after serving nearly a year as program chairman of a group of representatives of all Methodist bodies in the state to plan for the event.

This historical statement was supplied by the Reverend C. Franklin Grill, chairman of the Conference Commission on Archives and History.

William Carleton Wilson
Secretary, North Carolina Annual Conference
1953–1972

A RESOLUTION

John Wesley looked upon the world as his parish.

W. Carleton Wilson has served this entire North Carolina Conference as th larger part of his parish. It was as if God had called him to this special ministr from which he will retire at this 147th annual session in Durham.

Carleton Wilson was born in Hillsborough, June 7, 1900. Fifty years ago, i 1922, he was Licensed to Preach. He was admitted into the Conference in 192 during the session at Trinity Church in Durham.

That same year he joined the Statistical Staff of the Conference; within the Conference his thoroughness was soon recognized, and in 1937 he was chosen as Conference Statistician.

In 1953 at the Annual Conference session at Duke Memorial Church, Brother Wilson was elected Conference Secretary, a post he has held continuously for 19 and 1/2 years.

In 1956 he was elected as the first Clerical Delegate to the General Conference and began serving on the General and Jurisdictional Conference Secretarial Staffs. In 1968 he was chosen as Secretary of the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference. He has served the Church through seven General Conferences (56, 60, 64, 68, 72, and special sessions in 66 and 70).

As the parents of four children, Brother Carleton and Sister Essie have brought a significant witness to every parish they have served. After the loss of an infant daughter, they bravely bore the wounds of grief when their son, Bill, a bombadier, was shot down during the II World War over Yugoslavia. Two children . . .Mary Earle Berger, of Roxboro, and L. T. (Ted) Wilson, a member of the N. C. Conference . . .are faithful servants of the church.

As Conference Secretary and Journal Editor, Carleton Wilson has brought to the office a concern to see everyone treated fairly. His thorough, exacting manner has enabled him to work with details emphasizing the need for accuracy. While collecting and preserving records, he has remained an earnest seeker, a sincere man of God. His patience has been put to the test again and again.

As the "Scribe" of our Conference, he has been, as the early scribe must have been, able to "cipher" . . .and from this came the meaning of "secretary." The early Scribes were also the wise men, "the men of understanding," the just men. In post–exilic times they were men of sacred letters . . .in addition they were copyists, editors and guardians of the textual purity of Scripture.

The classic description of the Scribe (or Secretary) is from one of the books of the Apocrypha and befits in many ways this man we honor today:

"He will be filled with the spirit of understanding,
He will pour forth words of wisdom and give thanks unto the Lord in prayer
He will direct his counsel and knowledge aright and meditate on his secrets.
Many will praise his understanding and it will never be blotted out.
His memory will not disappear, and his name will live thru all generations.
If he lives long, he will leave a name greater than a thousand and if he goes to rest, it is enough for him."

On this historic occasion before the election of a new conference secretary to follow W. Carleton Wilson, a line from one of the prayers of Augustine befits the man: "The best gift we can give to men and to Thee is the gift of a good life." So praise to the Father, Son and Holy Spirit for this good life!

—William K. Quick

ORGANIZATION: CONFERENCE AGENCIES

Apologia

At the beginning of a new quadrennium, it is very difficult to obtain all of the officers a ex-officio members of the various agencies. The editor made the decision to issue this Jour with some of the information incomplete so that you might receive it in a reasonable period time. It would be greatly appreciated if chairmen and/or secretaries would assume responsibil for sending the Conference Secretary their completed organization when it occurs. It will further assumed that they will be responsible for the updating of their agencies' personnel fr year to year so that the Journal might be kept current.

ONE PARTICULAR NOTE: Since many of the Jurisdictional and General Conference Agenc have not completed their organization and will not for several months, we have omitted, this year only, the section containing Clerical and Lay Members of the North Caroli Conference serving General and Jurisdictional Conference Agencies of the United Method Church. This section will be in next year's Journal. You will appreciate that obtaining all of t information at the beginning of a new quadrennium, with many changes in terminology a ucture is almost impossible. The 1973 Journal will have this information corrected and up to te. Thank you for your understanding of the factors involved in our decision to print the rnal so that the remainder of the information might be of maximum service to you. litor).

Alphabetical Roll—Conference Directory—1972-73

(Corrected to October 8, 1972)

NOTE: Information for the Conference Directory derives principally from two sources: from the ministers themselves on the cards provided them and filed with the Conference Secretary, and from District Directories furnished the Conference Secretary by the Superintendents. However, each minister is personally responsible for the correct reporting of his own address.

THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE
Resolution Honoring Bishop William Ragsdale Cannon

The dimension of a leader must be tested, not alone by the measure of his past, but by h grasp of the future. When William Ragsdale Cannon came to be the Bishop of Raleigh Are Methodist people were delighted with his sensitivity to the full sweep of Church history, h penetrating Biblical insight, and the common touch of his preaching. Already, he had bee known as an outstanding Methodist scholar and educator, and as dean of one of the Church great theological schools. He had established himself as a participant in the highest councils c the world Church, and as a champion of ecumenical concern. Now, in North Carolina, he was t become known as well for his commitment to the vitality of every local church, and the we being of the laymen and clergy who served in them.

In these four years, Bishop Cannon has served this Conference and the United Methodi Church well from the speaker's platform. Not to be forgotten are the stirring words he spok linking the concerns of the Church and Duke University upon the occasion of the inauguratio of President Terry Sanford. On other occasions, he has expressed the great heart of the Churc in his fatherly prayer with members of a local church come to meet with him to discuss the concern about their pastor. The Bishop enlivened the Annual Conference Sessions with h quick wit. Last year, he deeply moved us as he reflected upon the call of the Conference t name a black district superintendent, and in these reflections his words called us to new leve of Christian progress. Many other signs of the quality of his leadership have been given; som well known, others disclosed the privacy of confidential deliberation.

The North Carolina Conference expresses its deep graditude for all the contributions c Bishop Cannon during this quadrennium just ending. But now, we would honor him for th high quality of hope that he has brought to our task, and for his vision of what we can ye become. We are grateful for the quadrennium that we have been privileged to have him as ou Episcopal Leader.

Unanimously adopted by the North Carolina Annual Conference with gratitude, respect, an a standing ovation. We honor him for honoring us with his wise and stalwart leadership.

SECTION III
MINUTES OF THE SPECIAL SESSION OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE EDENTON STREET UNITED METHODIST CHURCH Raleigh, North Carolina

ening: The North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church, Southeastern Jurisdiction, convened in Special Session at Edenton Street United Methodist Church in Raleigh, North Carolina, October 23, 1971, at 10:00 AM. Bishop William R. Cannon, resident bishop, presided.

otional: Hymn No. 27, "Immortal, Invisible, God Only Wise", was sung by the Conference. The Invocation and devotional were given by the Reverend Jack W. Page.

tions: W. C. Wilson, Conference Secretary, made motions concerning the Bar of the Conference, which were adopted. He moved that the Rules of Order as printed in the 1970 Conference Journal be in effect for the Special Session. The conference so ordered.

The Secretary moved that the agenda to be considered would consist of the document mailed to all delegates in October in lieu of the recommendation adopted at Annual Conference.

nt of Order: James H. Coile raised the question that the agenda should conform to the stated call as adopted in June, since the later study was different.

Bishop Cannon ruled that the recommendation presented in June did not actually present the resolution of the Conference Board of Pensions concerning the proposed Pension Plan. The agenda was adopted by the vote of the conference.

istration: Delegates were asked to sign cards which would constitute the official attendance record.

ers: Those tellers who served during the regular session of Annual Conference were asked to serve in the Special Session, if needed. John Meares and Chester Andrews were named as Chief Tellers.

entation of Proposed Plan: Bishop Cannon recognized Clifton W. Everett, Chairman of the Conference Board of Pensions, to make the presentation. Mr. Everett stated that in 1964 there was no reserve fund to guarantee future retirement benefits to ministers. Pension costs have doubled since then. The Study Committee, which included representatives of all conference boards, recommended adoption of a funded plan. Further study had been made since June. He called on Norwood L. Jones, Secretary of the Board of Pensions, to present the proposed Plan.

olution Read: Norwood Jones read the resolution adopted at the Annual Conference in Fayetteville in June:

> "We recommend that the North Carolina Conference adopt a funded pension program within the North Carolina Conference itself."

He then read the report of the Board of Pensions and gave background information concerning the study. After restating the resolution, he moved its adoption. The motion was seconded.

lanation of Plan: C. W. Everett asked that privilege be given to George Forehand, Merritt Jones, Wade Pierce, and H. Gray Hutchinson to speak to the resolution. Permission was granted to them by vote of the conference.

George Forehand: Laymen have an obligation to all ministers for past, present, and future service. Corporations provide pension and retirement plans for their employees.

t of Order: Reginald Ponder raised the question that someone should now be allowed to speak in opposition.

Bishop Cannon ruled that this was part of the Board's presentation, and time for discussion and debate would come later.

Merritt Jones: Explained the pension program would provide broader benefits for wives and children of ministers. By the year 2003 all obligation for past services would be met. Money then would be available for other causes. He thought laymen would be willing to spend an extra $1.50 to provide benefits for ministers and their families.

Wade Pierce: This is the right movement we should make. We have a moral responsibili to our ministers. "Where does the money come from?" Good stewardship is the answer.

H. Gray Hutchinson, member of the firm which made the actuarial study for the Board Pensions: Declined to make a formal statement, but volunteered to answer any questic for clarification.

Questions for Clarification: Bishop Cannon stated that before final action was to be taken, ti would be given for questions for clarification, and then time for debate would be allow

N. L. Jones: The Cabinet and Commission on World Service & Finance would allocate each church its amount. Some churches might get a little more or less than 10% increa

Fred P. Brooks:"Past service obligation has been $9,000,000.00, but the June figure sho $11,000,000.00. Why?"

Mr. Hutchinson explained the General Board Plan requires even more. This plan gives Conference greater advantage.

Alfonso Henry: Asked question concerning the amount per service year. Is 10% increase addition to amounts other agencies might ask for?

Mr. Hutchinson: The figure is based on present-day figures.

Charles Hubbard: The Pension Funding Plan has nothing to do with askings of o conference groups. This 10% represents cost of the Funding Plan presented by Confere Board of Pensions--this is as of now. At the present time the total of Single Figure Aski received from churches must have added to it earnings from Central Funds in order meet present requirements.

William K. Quick:"If churches fail to raise this 10% increase in Single Figure Askings, w alterenative plan is there to fund the Reserve Pension Fund?"

C. S. Hubbard: "Salaries and debts have prior claims. What the Conference decides to determines whether the funding of the Reserve Pension Fund will also be a prior claim the Single Figure Askings.Failure to raise all our askings would cause other programs of church to suffer."

Mr. Hutchinson: "We must increase the Single Figure Askings tremendously to m pension needs, or reduce our commitment to our retired men."

Question: "What about transfers in and out of the Conference?"

Bishop Cannon: "The North Carolina Conference is responsible only for those year minister served in the North Carolina Conference."

Horace Garris: "The Current Income Distribution plan now used is apportioned to lo churches. Will this be carried as a part of Single Figure Askings, and will the Single Fig Askings be reduced in 2003 A. D.?"

C. W. Everett: "Yes."

Ray Phillips: "Is the minister's contribution to Ministers' Retirement Fund voluntary compulsory?"

C. W. Everett: "It will continue as it now is – voluntary."

David Moe: "Will The $78 per service year rate remain constant?"

C. W. Everett: "The Annual Conference sets the rate. If rate is increased, the total cos pension fund also increases."

E. C. Crawford: "Par. 1379 of Discipline provides that the rate per service year be set by Annual Conference. If General Conference changes this paragraph to conflict with Plan, what happens?"

C. W. Everett: "The Conference Board of Pensions has been advised by the General Bo that there is no conflict now."

N. L. Jones: "If the General Conference makes changes, we will have to go along v them."

Grady Dawson: "A) Can we take longer than thirty years to pay the Plan? B) Can discontinue it at any time? C) Can we decide to go to the General Board's Plan? D) Is Plan flexible to allow for financial difficulties?"

H. G. Hutchinson: "Building up our reserves will make it easier to join the General Bo plan later. We can dip into reserves to pay a current year's obligations, but we must t make up the deficit or reduce benefits in the future. The immediate liabilities for 1971 amount to $600,000.00 We must put in a little more than predicted."

A. Clement: "Can we transfer reserve funds of other agencies to apply against this initial payment into the Ministers' Reserve Pension Fund?"

N. L. Jones: "If other groups have funds they are willing to release, we would be willing to accept them. We cannot draw on them."

odell Walker: "14% of the present Single Figure Askings goes for Conference Claimants. Would this 10% increase be over and above that?"

C. S. Hubbard: "This would be 24%, as it is now apportioned by World Service."

C. W. Everett: "The 10% increase for MRPF would remain constant. The 14% for Conference Claimants depends on the rate set by the Annual Conference."

ence Warren offered a motion. Bishop Cannon ruled that a motion would be out of order during the question-and-answer period.

rles Smith: "How does our service year rate compare with other Conferences and other denominations? What is their system of fundine?"

N. L. Jones: "The General Board sets 1% of average annual salary, which would be $69.00 per service year. N. C. Conference pays $75.00 plus Blue Cross-Blue Shield insurance. The Western N. C. Conference pays $68.00 on an average annual salary of $8600.00. No figures are available on other denominations."

. Brown: "So far, 66 Annual Conferences have joined the General Board plan. Are we smarter than they, or do we not know enough?"

N.L. Jones: "There are several unknowns in financing by the General Board plan. The Conference Board felt we could do better for our own particular situation with our own plan."

C. Shoaf: "Can you translate the 10% increase into dollar figures?"

H. G. Hutchinson: $270,000.00 is the difference between the Current Income and the Reserve Pension cost. It will be the same for the next 30 years.

W. Ponder: "The outline of the plan gives the figure $791,856 'for Pension Cost Only' . Will this increase if the per service year rate is increased?"

C. W. Everett: "In setting up the plan, the committee had to use an assumption based on a constant figure. Past Service payment is constant. Future payment may be variable."

tion: H. S. Garris moved to close the question period and go to debate. Motion carried.

tion: Clarence Warren offered a motion concerning a method of assessing the increase in Single Figure Askings to local churches. Bishop Cannon ruled the motion out of order since the debate was on acceptance of the Plan itself and not on the method of funding.

tion: Delos O'Daniel moved suspension of rules to give everyone an opportunity to speak.

Bishop Cannon: "There are no rules to keep everybody from speaking."

A. Clarke spoke against the Plan. "A major concern is what is not spelled out in the resolution. The $78 per service year rate is too small. To pass this resolution would have adverse effect on those already retired."

vious Question: H. M. Wilkinson moved the previous question on all that was before the body.

The Motion was defeated.

stitute Motion: William K. Quick offered the following substitute motion for the one presented by the Conference Board of Pensions:

"That the Annual Conference authorize the District Superintendents to share these urgent pension needs of the North Carolina Conference with each Charge Conference within the North Carolina Conference, in a regular or called session, during the 1971-72 conference year, and that delegates to the 1972 session in Durham be prepared to vote on a reserve pension plan."

Quick stated: "This is the most urgent Special Session since the one in which two new colleges were established. We cannot get this 10% increase raised now. If lay people are made aware of the urgency of this program, they will support this program."

endment to Substitute: A. D. Byrd offered an amendment to the Quick substitute: "That we ask the Board of Pensions to provide the 80-page study for each delegate within the next thirty days."

The Byrd amendment was defeated.

ification: J. W. Page stated that these charge conferences would have to be held before the Commission on World Service and Finance held its budget hearings December 6. Otherwise, any action on the Reserve Pension Plan would be delayed one year.

K. Quick: "The purpose of my motion was to delay action one year in order to provide time for study. More information is necessary if we are to raise the funds. Hurried approv of the plan means we will come up short of the dollars needed to finance the plan."

C. W. Everett: "This Resolution offered by the Conference Board of Pensions is right. O obligation is to our claimants. If you agree with the Resolution, when is the time to begi Every delay makes the additional cost greater. I offer no criticism of the General Boa plan, but the N. C. plan will mean a $2 million over-all decrease in cost. Learning sessio have already been held in each district. Please defeat any effort to delay action."

Point of Order: A. D. Byrd stated that district meetings discussed the General Board's pensi plan, not the N. C. plan.

C. W. Everett: "Technically, Byrd is correct. However, the N. C. Plan is almost a replica the General Board plan. The initial cost and the over-all cost for the next thirty years w be less for the N. C. Plan."

W. K. Quick: "We need to determine if charges will underwrite the program."

J. H. Coile made a statement clarifying the Quick motion.

Fred P. Brooks: Spoke for the Quick motion. Offered an amendment that at Charge Conferenc "refinements " of the Plan be presented by the Conference Board of Pensions.

The Chair ruled the Brooks amendment out of order.

Previous Question: Frank I. Lloyd moved the previous question on the Quick substitu motion.

The previous question was called.

R. H. Stark asked for a re-reading of the Quick motion.

Point of Inquiry: J.H. Coile asked, "What will a 'Yes' or 'No' vote on the Quick motion do the Plan itself?"

Bishop Cannon: "Nothing to the Plan. It will ascertain for the Annual Conference Durham whether the plan has been underwritten by the charges."

W. K. Quick: "We will act in the Charge Conference on all that is before us today."

Bishop Cannon: If Quick's motion is adopted, the Ministers' Reserve Pension Fund Pl will be tabled until Annual Conference.

Clarification: H. B. Lewis asked, "Will the action of the Charge Conferences be binding on t Annual Conference?"

Bishop Cannon: "No. It only delays action of this Conference until Annual Conference June, 1972."

H. M. Wilkinson called for the vote.

Bishop Cannon stated that after deciding on the Quick substitute, the Conference would st have to vote on the Plan itself.

The Chair called for a count vote on the Quick substitute. A standing vote was taken, a the Quick substitute defeated.

Previous Question: Jack Crum moved the previous question on all before the house. It w approved.

Vote by Orders: Wilbur Jackson moved that voting be done by orders.

J. H. Coile pointed out there was no Disciplinary provision for voting by orders on t Annual Conference level.

The Ministers' Reserve Pension Plan presented by the N. C. Conference Board of Pensions w overwhelmingly approved. (Editor's note - The Plan as adopted is contained under the Board Pension's Report-Section on the Constitution in Section V of this Journal.)

Motion: Clarence Warren asked if the motion he offered earlier would be in order at this poi Bishop Cannon asked him to submit his proposal to the Commission on World Service a Finance, since the purpose of the Special Session was to consider the plan itself and r methods of funding it.

Point of Order: E. L. Earnhardt stated that an approved Plan had never been submitted to t conference; therefore, the conference could not approve a plan. The Resolution present today was vague and indefinite. We were voting on the Resolution, not a plan.

C. W. Everett: The proposal is based on $78 per service year, which makes it a Plan. T chair concurred.

Motion to adjourn: B.L. Davidson moved for adjourment. It was done.

Personal Privilege: J.W. Page reminded Raleigh District ministers of their meeting.

The Call to Worship Liturgist: The Reverend G. Robert McKenzie

Leader: In various ways God spoke of old to our fathers by the prophets.

People: We acknowledge that One who is beyond all times and places and who gives us our life.

Leader: But in these days he has spoken to us by a Son.

People: We received the Word in Jesus Christ as the one redemptive possibility.

Leader: Let us love one another, for love is of God, and he who loves is born of God and knows God.

We affirm the call to our lives as an offering for all mankind.

The Invocation

The Prayer of Confession:

Gracious Father, Thou who art always willing to use us in spite of our faithfulness, we confess that while we have been chosen to be men's servants, we have tried to be their masters. Our Lord has given us the pattern for service, but we crave the successes, honors, and statistics which star us in bright lights. We pretend that we are exceptions to humanity and hide behind excuses. We have closed our hearts to the prophetic signs of our times. We lack the conscience that should accompany our Christian profession. Forgive us, O Lord, and deliver us from our living death. Give us the courage to accept the pain of new birth that we may be renewed and healed from all our brokenness. In Christ's name we plead. Amen.

Leader: It is clear that none of us has been fully faithful to God and his neighbor. In light of this, and in accord with our Lord's instruction, let us begin our time together by making Common Confession, praying also for his gracious forgiveness.

People: O God, we confess that we are linked by a common humanity to all sin and death which scars the earth. We confess that we, too, have done much that we should not have done, and left undone much that needs doing. be gracious, O God, and forgive our sins. By your Holy Spirit, show us those things which are right, and grant us the faith and courage to do them.

Leader: We know through Jesus Christ that when we are open to receive forgiveness, the Holy God has long since wanted to bestow it. Take this forgiveness seriously, live as free men and women, and let renewed obedience be the mark of your thanksgiving. The peace of God be with you. Amen.

The Prayer Our Lord Taught Us

The Act of Praise

Leader: We praise you, O God, for the wholeness we see in Christ. Your being and your doing are of one piece.

People: We praise you for the compassion which we see in Christ and receive in his name.

Leader: We praise you for the dignity with which you invest people who are without status among men.

People: We praise you for the hope which you engender in men surrounded by death.

Leader: We give thanks for all who have kept your name alive among us, and have honored you with lives of freedom and joy.

People: We give thanks for all those who by quiet work have made their neighbors' lives more tolerable, and pray that that we may do the same.

Leader: We give thanks for each day of life; for warmth of sun; for moon, stars, and changing seasons; for the gifts of sight, touch, sound, and the smell and taste of things.

People: We give thanks for our lives in your world, O God, and for your presence in our midst; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

SECOND DAY, MORNING SESSION
Tuesday, June 6, 1972

Conference Convened: At 8:30 A.M. following the prelude, "Prelude in C Major" by Johann Sebastian Bach, the Conference was called to order by Bishop William R. Cannon. They hymn, "O For A Thousand Tongues to Sing" was sung by the Conference. The prayer was led by C. M. Mitchell.

Program Council: Bishop William R. Cannon, presiding officer, called on N.W. Grant to present the Program Council report. Grant spoke clearly and directly to the issues, calling on the Conference to understand that the program now before them has been derived from the "grass roots" and it is now the Conference at large that decides what we will do as to the program of our Conference. "This is not the decision or action of the clergy or a small group of staff personnel, but of the entire Conference." Grant then presented the first two sections of the report, asked for deletion of Item 1 on page 17 of the Book of Recommendations and called the attention of the Conference to the Restructuring Report which had been distributed the preceding day. He explained the restructuring in terms of General Conference action and the forth-coming Discipline of the United Methodist Church in detail and pointed out that only the Conference could change the charter of the Program Council and that the changes were largely a matter of terminology so as to make our structure conform with all other levels of our Church structure. He explained the Restructuring Report item by item, giving particular attention to the number of members to constitute the various divisions, boards, commissions, and committees. Bishop Cannon placed the Restructuring Report before the Conference for question and discussion. Paul Carruth spoke of his concern about the placement of the Conference Committee on Continuing Education referring to paragraph 5 of the Report of the Executive Committee of the N.C. Conference Program Council concerning Annual Conference Structure, particularly this paragraph:

> "We recommend that in keeping with the action of the 1972 General Conference the Conference Committee on Continuing Education become a sub-committee of the Division of Ministry."

Paul Carruth asked for the deletion of the above. The motion was made by A.F. Fisher. Carruth called attention to the report of the N.C. United Methodist Commission on Continuing Education for Ministers on page 19 of the Book of Recommendations which would call for the composition of the Conference Committee to continue as an agency made up of representatives from Annual Conference groups with traditional involvement in continuing education as had been the case in the 1968-1972 quadrennium. He pointed out that officials of continuing education of the General Church had been consulted with respect to the action of the General Conference. Assurance was given that General Conference action on continuing education leaves the Annual Conference free to continue an interboard Committee along the lines called for in the Commission on Continuing Education report. The recommendation of that report as found under section B on page 19 of the Book of Recommendations is:

> "B. That the Committee be composed of the following: Five representatives of the Conference Board of Ministry; one representative each from the following Conference agencies: Board of Education, Board of Evangelism, Board of Missions, Commission on Town and Country Ministries, Board of Managers of the North Carolina Pastors' School; the Duke Divinity School; each Methodist College within the bounds of the Annual Conference; the Director of Continuing Education of the Duke Divinity School; a representative of the Program Council staff; and three members at large appointed by the Bishop."

I.L. Watson questioned the advisability of taking continuing education from the Division of Higher Education and Ministry.

Paul Carruth pointed out that both under the plan of the present Quadrennium, and the plan of the 1972-1976 quadrennium, if the recommendation on page 19 is followed, the Committee on Continuing Education would include 5 members from the Division of the Ministry. This would give clear recognition to the interest and responsibility of that body for continuing education. In addition, other agencies which also have a legitimate concern for the continuing education of the minister would be represented.

Reginald Ponder presented a substitute to the Fisher motion that the Program Council report be amended in item (2) on page five to change "sub-committee" to "committee" so that the Conference Committee on Continuing Education would become a committee of the Division of Ministry, "and then the Committee could be constituted on the basis of the report on page 19 and then the problem seems to be solved, and I move you, sir, that we change the recommendation to be committee instead of sub-committee." The Bishop commented that Ponder had just moved to take out the "sub" before committee in place of deletion of the item. The motion was seconded.

Jack Crum called for clarification as to whether the action called for an interboard group or a group composed only of members of one board. He asked Ponder, "are you saying that it can be interboard as constituted in the Book [of Recommendations]?" Ponder indicated in the affirmative. Crum replied, "All right, if that is understood. I am not sure that would be understood unless it is clearly spelled out that way." Bishop Cannon said, "Brother Grant, do you want to say anything on that, or does it help in any way?" N.W. Grant, "I'll accept the committee's suggestion. I think there is some confusion in the whole matter that I would like to clarify." Bishop Cannon, "He'll accept that. Do you accept that, Carruth?" Carruth responded that while he could accept the motion, he hesitated in view of the fact that the structure in continuing education had been developed in cooperation with the Western North Carolina Conference, the Duke Divinity School and the Duke Endowment. He stated he felt any changes should be made in consultation with them. W.J. Neese spoke asking for trust in the Division of the Ministry. A.F. Fisher withdrew his motion in favor of Grant's acceptance of the wording of the Ponder substitute with the Crum interpretation.

Motion: Dr. Fred. P. Brooks, Jr. moved that under Section I, the Division of Health and Welfare of The Board of Global Ministries be enlarged to include one person elected by and from the residents of the Methodist Retirement Home and that in Section II, The Board of Trustees of the Methodist Retirement Home be enlarged so as to include in each class one person elected by and from the residents of the Methodist Retirement Home. Grant accepted this motion as a part of the report.

Question: E.F. Smith asked a question concerning the interpretation of ethnic groups in the Restructuring Report as pertaining to our Conference. Grant responded, "We are following the action of the General Conference and the Discipline as closely as possible." Revels; one brother, Rev. D. F. Lowry; forty-four grandchildren; one hundred and sixty-six great-grandchildren, and fifty great-great-grandchildren.

Funeral services for Reverend Lowry were conducted July 11, 1971, at First United Methodist Church in Pembroke, North Carolina, by Reverend Henry A. Bizzell, Jr., Reverend Julian Ransom, Reverend Graham S. Eubank, Reverend Robert L. Mangum, and Reverend Joseph F. Coble. He was buried in the Hopewell Methodist Church Cemetery near Pembroke.

The son of a proud and resourceful family, Reverend Lowry was educated in the public schools of Robeson County. In addition, he attended the Normal School located at Pate (near Pembroke, N. C.) This Normal School has developed into Pembroke State University.

During his long life, Reverend Lowry pursued three careers. Following the tradition of his family, he was a farmer. In addition, he taught in the public schools for thirty years. In this profession, Mr. Lowry rendered a valuable service to the Indian people of Robeson County. Nonetheless, he is remembered primarily as a minister. In the later years he often stated that he had proclaimed the Gospel of Jesus Christ for seventy-five years. He served the church in the following connections:

Atlantic Mission Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Blue Ridge Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Lumbee Mission Conference of the Holiness Methodist Church, North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church, and the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church.

In reviewing the basic facts of the life of Reverend French Lowry one is reminded of the words of one of his favorite scripture selections, the Twenty-third Psalm of David:

> The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
>
> He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.
> He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
>
> Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.
> Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
> Surely, goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Amen and Amen.

CHARLES DENVER HICKS, JR.

Charles Denver Hicks, Jr. was born to Charles and Margaret Hicks on December 23, 1949, in Wayne County. He was graduated from Charles B. Aycock High School, Pikeville, North Carolina, in June of 1968. Upon graduating from high school he enrolled in Mount Olive Junior College, where he became a Dean's List student, receiving an A.S. degree in 1970. At the time of his death, Charles was a rising senior at Atlantic Christian College. He was married to the former Donna Lancaster and from this marriage they had one daughter, Judith Ann.

The life span of Charles Denver Hicks, Jr. was not long, but his contribution to life while he was a part of it was significant. During his early years he was not nurtured in the church. It was through his wife, Donna, during their courtship, that he first started attending Sunday School and Church at Mount Carmel United Methodist Church. Through this experience he became more and more interested in the Christian life. His new interest in the church led him to join Mount Carmel United Methodist Church, and he involved himself in many ways in the life of the church.

Even though he joined the church and entered into many of its activities, he felt himself being called in a more significant manner. This searching culminated in a heartwarming experience one Sunday in which he gave himself totally to Jesus Christ. In his application for License to Preach, Charles wrote about this call in this manner: "Then one Sunday, I gave my life to Christ. I was saved by his grace. Things were never the same after that. Now I had a life of meaning and fulfillment. I realized the things that God had done for me and I also realized how little I had done for Him."

Charles' "heartwarming" experience was followed shortly by his call to the ministry. In June of 1969, he was given a student appointment at Elm Street United Methodist Church, in Goldsboro. His ministry in this church was rich and meaningful. His people loved him and his family. After two years at Elm Street, he was assigned to the South Smithfield Charge, but was there only two months before his untimely death.

Charles' death came about noon on July 23, 1971, in a small farm pond near Smithfield. Again involved with his young people, he had gone fishing with two of the boys from one of the churches on the Charge. The small boat they were using capsized. The two boys were able to make their way to shore, but Charles could not swim, and in his panic he drowned. The tragic accident ended the promising life of a young clergyman.

It was my happy privilege to grant Charles a License to Preach, to participate in his marriage to Donna, and to be his District Superintendent. It was my sad responsibility, along with his pastor, J. Hillary Bryant, to conduct his funeral at the Mount Carmel United Methodist Church, and to accompany his body to its place of burial in the Pikeville Cemetery.

Throughout these brief years, Charles Hicks never seemed discouraged or disheartened. He always had a big smile and a warm heart. He was vibrant, filled with a deep sense of mission, always willing to stand and affirm it. Here was a man who had less than three years in the ministry, but whose contribution cannot be measured in time. For, you see, he was a minister for Jesus Christ and for the brief period of his ministry, he wore the mantle with distinction, preserving the tradition of which he was a part.

John Franklin Casey was one of those rare spirits who reminds us of the words of Jesus om the Sermon on the Mount: "Blessed are the pure in heart; for they shall see God."

John exemplified in a remarkable way the qualities of humility and love, "the fruit of the Spirit," as Paul called them. It could be said of him what was said of an Old Testament saint long ago: "And Enoch walked with God; and he was not, for God took him."

When John was sick in bed, unable to preach, a minister friend of his and mine said to me: "John is a greater blessing to his people lying sick in the parsonage than most of us are preaching every Sunday in the pulpit." During the Conference year of 1970-71, much of the time he was sick, and yet I understand that he led his district in the number of people won to Christ.

His good wife, Miriam who cared for him so lovingly "in sickness and in health," wrote to me of him: "In the thirteen years he was permitted to serve his Lord as a pastor in the church, he suffered much physical pain but never once did he complain. Brother Wade," Miriam continued, "he was a humble man, filled with love for his fellow man, and he loved the Lord."

Born in Stonewall, N. C., Aug. 8, 1914, John graduated om Stonewall High School in 1934. In his early youth he was a member of the Free Will aptist Church, the church of his parents, but later became a Methodist. He gave his life Christ at twelve years of age while doing janitorial work in the Stonewall Methodist hurch. In October of 1954, at the age of forty, he declared for the first time, "I want to reach." In 1958, he resigned his Civil Service work at Cherry Point, and accepted a pasral appointment to the Midway-Bethlehem Charge. In order to strengthen his ministry, ven at the age of forty-four, he dared to enter Louisburg College, from which he gradued in the spring of 1961. In addition he attended the Pastors' School at Duke Divinity chool for four summers. He received his Local Preacher's License in 1957, his Deacon's rders in 1963, and his Elder's Orders in 1967.

While serving the Midway-Bethlehem Charge a new parsonage was built and furnished nd paid for. His second appointment was the Vanceboro Charge, where he preached to ch of the three churches on that Charge every Sunday. The Epworth Church built a Felwship Hall and named it the Casey Fellowship Hall. In 1970, he was appointed to the nyrna Charge which he served until sickness forced him to retire.

John died with cancer at Pitt Memorial Hospital, October 27, 1971. A fitting memorial rvice was held at Trinity United Methodist Church and his body was laid to rest in the reenleaf Memorial Park in New Bern, N. C.

John is survived by his wife, Miriam Matthews Casey; three children, eight grandchilen, and two sisters.

There is no finer way to close this memoir than to quote these words of his dear wife iriam: "John put Christ at the head of his life and he lived to bring honor and glory to s Master. He lived for Christ and now he lives in Christ."

ROBERT LEROY JEROME

Robert Leroy Jerome, son of Conder Parson and Flora Gray Jerome, was born in Gates ville, North Carolina, September 26, 1901. He died in Southern Pines, North Carolina December 3, 1971, following the collision of his car and a truck during a snow storm.

Funeral services were conducted in Page Memori United Methodist Church, Aberdeen, of which he ha been pastor since June, 1969, by Dr. Joyce V. Earl superintendent of the Sanford District, the Reverend Ve gil E. Queen of Southern Pines United Methodist Church and Don Roberts, a student pastor, of Duke Universit Divinity School. From Aberdeen his body was taken Smithfield, North Carolina, for burial. Graveside servic were conducted by the Reverend Vergil E. Queen an and the Reverend F. Owen Fitzgerald, Jr., pastor of Ce tenary United Methodist Church, Smithfield, where Rob ert and his wife served four years prior to their going Aberdeen, and where they had purchased a house for the retirement.

Robert Jerome was well equipped in every way for th work to which God had called him, as a good minister the Lord Jesus Christ. His education was extensive an thorough. In 1926, he received an A.B. degree from Duk University, after being graduated Magna Cum Laude, an also elected to Phi Beta Kappa, a national scholastic fraternity. In 1929 he received th B.D. degree from Duke University Divinity School, and in 1932 the S.T.M. degree fro Union Theological Seminary, New York City.

In his outstanding ministry, he had a most capable, charming, cooperative and lovin helpmate, the former Miss Jean Porter of Franklin, North Carolina, to whom he was ma ried in 1935. To this union two lovely and talented children were born: a son, Robe Lyle, and a daughter, Jean Gray.

Robert is survived by his wife, Mrs. Jean Porter Jerome; a son, Lyle Jerome of Holl wood, Fla.; daughter, Mrs. Frank H. Avent, and two grandchildren of Florence, S. C.; fou sisters, Mrs. E. S. Bowers of Jackson; Mrs. Gladys J. Herring and Mrs. Robert C. Rap both of Thomasville; and Mrs. W. P. Holt, Jr., of Erwin, and one brother, J. T. Jerome, Raleigh. Robert had the high privilege of being born and reared in a Methodist parsonag His father, the Reverend C. P. Jerome, served effectively in the Methodist ministry for 4 years. Robert not only grew up in the intellectual and spiritual atmosphere of a Methodi minister's home, with the love and guidance of deeply spiritual and dedicated parents, h also had the unique experience of being appointed to his first charge in 1925, the sam year his father retired, and to the same charge from which his father retired—Elm Stree Pikeville. Thus, he and his father together gave 91 consecutive years of service to Chri and the Methodist Church as good ministers. Other charges he served in the North Car lina Conference are: Webb Avenue, Burlington; Enfield-Whitakers; Trinity, Wilmington Hayes Barton, Raleigh; Centenary, New Bern; First Church, Elizabeth City; First Church Roanoke Rapids; superintendent of the Elizabeth City District; Centenary, Smithfield, a Page Memorial, Aberdeen.

During these years as pastor and district superintendent, he also served the church ar his Lord in many other capacities through the various agencies of the church—as a mer ber of many of the major boards and committees of the Conference, as a trustee of Nor Carolina Wesleyan College, and as a delegate to the Jurisdictional Conference in 1964. every post of duty, he served faithfully and effectively, with complete dedication and wi the love and respect of both the laity and the clergy.

It has been my privilege, pleasure and good fortune to know and be closely associate with my good friend, Robert Jerome, for more than 45 years. During all these years always proved to be a man of high integrity, genuine sincerity, loyal devotion, strong fait and deep spiritual insight. He was a good preacher, a compassionate pastor, an efficie administrator, a devoted husband, a loving father, a helpful citizen and a true friend. knew, loved and served the Lord with joy and gladness, and above all was faithful to th id. He fought a good fight; he kept the faith, and he has finished his course in this world. ur Master said, "Be thou faithful unto death, and I will give thee a crown of life." Robert as faithful even until death. I am sure the Great Master has awarded him the crown of e which he so richly deserves.

"Servant of God, well done! Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won, and thou art crowned at last."
(Charles Wesley)

We shall all miss Robert very much, but let us not mourn too deeply. Rather, let us ve thanks to God for our brother minister and his good work, for our joy and fellowship th him through the years, and especially for God's wonderful provision for all of his faith- l children. For a faithful Christian like Robert, death is not defeat; it is victory. It is not e end of life; it is the beginning of a fuller and more wonderful life. He is not dead, only nsferred to the Father's House of many mansions. As the song-writer says so well:

"We cannot think of them as dead who walk with us no more Along this path of life we tread; they have but gone before.
The Father's house is mansioned fair; beyond our vision dim
All souls are His and here or there, are living unto Him.
And still their silent ministries within our heart have place,
As on earth they walked with us and met us face to face.
Ours are they by an ownership not time nor death can free;
For God has given to love to keep its own eternally."
(Frank L. Hosmer)

JOHN FRANKLIN McEACHIN
1892 - 1972

John F. McEachin exemplified qualities that marked him as a good and spiritual neigh bor to all and as a person who stood above the crowd. One of his neighbors said she ha never known a man in Hoke County who influenced as many people's lives for good a Reverend McEachin and she doubts that there will ev be another to take his place in her lifetime.

John was born in Blue Spring Township, North Car lina, on September 16, 1892, of Needham and Magg McEachin. After spending his childhood and youth on farm with ten other brothers and sisters, he met and ma ried the late Mary Helen Davis. From this union can eleven lovely children. John McEachin's life was his great ministry. He pr pared for the ministry by attending seminary school Greensboro and by having great faith in the Lord Jesu He is remembered by those who knew and loved him n because he preached great sermons or because he was great leader of men, but because he lived a beautifu good and inspiring life, and because he influenced so mar people in so many ways.

WHEN LIFE IS DONE

I'd like to think when life is done
That I had filled a needed post,
That here and there I'd paid my fare
With more than idle talk and boast;
That I had taken gifts divine,
The breath of life and manhood fine,
And tried to use them now and then
In service for my fellowman.

S. L. TOWNSEND

1900 - 1972

The Reverend Walter Dawson, Jr. was born February 14, 1900, at Statesville, North rolina. He attended high school at Rutherfordton, North Carolina, Asbury College at lmore, Kentucky, and Trinity College. His father, Rev. W. L. Dawson, Sr., was a Methodist minister. He exerted a great influence upon his young son by his strong convictions and godly life. Brother Dawson entered the ministry while a very young man; in fact, he was the youngest pastor in the Western North Carolina Conference during his first appointment. When this appointment was made Walter went to the home of his girl friend, Miss Ruth Clegg, who was the daughter of a Methodist minister. They were married and moved into the parsonage to begin his work, fulfilling the call of God upon his life to preach the gospel.

Brother Dawson moved to the North Carolina Conference and served pastorates at New Bern, Spring Hope, Grifton, Swan Quarter, Columbia, Roberdel, Robbins, and the Caledonia Charge.

Brother Dawson was a devout man with deep convictions, an able minister of the gospel, a very forceful preacher who received well the attention of his hearers. Having served over a wide area ranging from the mountains to the sea coast, Brother Dawson acquired a great host of ends all of whom he loved dearly and of whom he often spoke.

It was my privilege to have Brother Dawson attend the Johns Church after his retire- nt. He was an inspiration to me, and I relied heavily upon him for advice.

I made many visits to the home of Walter and Ruth, serving as Ruth's pastor, and was vays received in a most gracious manner.

Rev. Dawson passed away at Bennettsville, South Carolina on February 3, 1972. His neral was conducted at McDougald Funeral Home in Laurinburg by George Davis and rmit Wheeler. He was laid to rest in Green Hill Cemetery in Greensboro, by Ruth's side, o preceded him in death six years ago.

They are survived by four wonderful children: Walter L. Dawson III of Summerville, C.; Mrs. Ed Brooks, of Burlington, N. C.; Mrs. A. D. Sylvester of Beaumont, Texas., l Mrs. Arthur Davis of Laurinburg, N. C.

One of Brother Dawson's favorite hymns was "Amazing Grace." The music to this mn was played on the organ at his funeral.

Amazing grace, how sweet the sound,
That saved a wretch like me;
I once was lost, but now I'm found,
Was blind but now I see.

To th union were born three children: Jayne, born in 1893 i Gadsden who later became Mrs. John S. Holland of Ne Bern, N. C. (deceased); Ruth H., born in 1894 in Pe aluma, California, now Mrs. L. Dow Pender of Raleigh N. C., and Euclid H., Jr., born in 1900 in Elmira, Califo nia, and who now makes his home in Paradise, Californi

Following the death of her husband Mrs. McWhorte (lovingly called "Granny Mack") made her home wit her daughter, Mrs. Pender, until her death at the age o 99 years, two months and eight days, on July 19, 1971.

She was laid to rest in Oakwood Cemetery in Raleigh beside her late husband, on July 20, 1971. The funer service was conducted from the chapel of Brown-Wynn Funeral Home, by the Rev. John Ormond, assistant past of Edenton Street United Methodist Church, and the Rev Lester A. Tilley, minister of visitation.

In the latter part of 1893, the McWhorters were called to serve in California. Havin accepted the call, they made the move with their four-month-old daughter and they live in California ten pleasant and rewarding years, serving four pastorates, the city of Alamed being their last.

Because of the serious illness of Mrs. McWhorter's father in 1902, they decided t move back to the South. There was no appointment open in Alabama so Mr. McWhorte accepted a call from the Methodist Church in Southport in North Carolina. He served th church for eighteen months and was then moved to Maxton where he served three year as pastor and three years as president of Maxton College.

After Maxton, the McWhorters served pastorates in Tarboro, Morehead City, Ne Bern, Chapel Hill, Aberdeen, Wilson, Lumberton, Enfield, and Weldon. Upon leavin Weldon they returned to Tarboro where they lived one year at the end of which they re turned to their home in Raleigh where they lived for six years until the death of Mr. Mc Whorter in 1944.

Mrs. McWhorter was a wonderful helpmate and a devoted wife. She loved and mad a pleasant home for her family and entertained in a gracious manner. Her friends wer always welcome. She made many friends all through the years as a preacher's wife, but he greatest pleasure was to give of her help and strength freely to those who were sick an needy and were in distress.

During the latter years of her life Mrs. McWhorter was remarkably active, mentall alert and keenly interested in community and world affairs. To the end of her life she live abundantly, cheerfully, and bravely.

MRS. RUTH M. PENDER

MRS. JULIA WARD WHEDBEE

1886 - 1971

Julia Ward Whedbee, born June 29, 1886, in Onslow County, North Carolina, died eptember 24, 1971, at North Carolina Sanatorium in McCain, North Carolina. The service as held in the chapel of Andrews Mortuary, Wilmington, North Carolina, under the direction of the Rev. Rufus Stark, pastor of Grace United Methodist Church in Wilmington, and burial took place in Oakdale Cemetery in the family plot.

Julia Wheedbee, along with her beloved husband, James Carson Whedbee, who had been a Methodist minister for two years at the time of their marriage, served southeastern North Carolina for forty-two years. At the death of Mr. Whedbee, Julia Whedbee lived with her son, James Carson, Jr., and his family for twenty years until his tragic death, after which she moved to South Carolina to spend most of her remaining life with her daughter, Mrs. John W. Gaddy. During this time the Methodist church was very close to her heart, for she taught the Women's Bible Class at Grace Church for several years and was given a life membership pin in the Women's Society by the women members of Grace Church in Wilmington. Mrs. Whedbee was an avid Bible reader up until the time her eyesight began to fail, and even then when she felt the need she would ask to have specific passages read to her by members of the family. She was faithful to the cause of the Methodist hurch as long as she was physically able to attend the services.

She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. John W. Gaddy, of Sumter, South Carolina; five anddaughters: Mrs. Ferdinand Allsbrook of Atlanta, Georgia; Mrs. Gordon H. Ellis, Jr., Wilmington, N. C.; Mrs. Hal Floyd of Camden, N. J., Mrs. Randolph Tisdale of Columbia, S. C.; and Mrs. William R. Lane, Jr. of Wilmington, N. C., and nine great-grandildren.

MRS. ELVA STRICKLAND LOWE

1890 - 1972

Elva Ann Strickland was born July 2, 1890, in Telfair County, near Fitzgerald, Geora. She attended elementary and secondary school in her native state of Georgia. Her llege training and more formal education was under the guidnce of the Church of the Brethren, or Quakers, at Guilford College.

While a student at Guilford College, it seems that the hand of Almighty God began to take a more active part in her life. While there she met a young Methodist minister by the name of William G. Lowe.

Several years later, on December 28, 1920, they were united in the sacred bonds of holy matrimony and lived together and served God until they were separated by her death on January 9, 1972.

Elva Lowe truly traveled with Billy Lowe during his years of service. She added her charm and graced the parsonages at Henderson, Battleboro, and Whitakers, Plymouth, Aurora, Swan Quarter, Winfall, Trenton, Shallotte, Council, Pink Hill, Scott Hill and Oriental.

To this parsonage family our loving Father added the blessings of three children — two by birth and one by adoption. The children's names are Jane Blair Hollowell and Elizabeth Ann Faulkner. The adopted son is Thomas Edward Lowe.

Because of a physical condition, it became necessary for her husband to retire befor their years of active service as minister and wife were accomplished. However, for a spa of thirty-nine years, our Conference had the devoted service of these two Christians.

Many are the individuals and families who have been blessed by the presence of thi soldier of the Cross. Many are the adults today who are enjoying the fruits of the Christia life because Elva Lowe came into their lives, teaching them to know Jesus as their Saviou when they were small children.

She was an individual of rare spirit who learned, as did Paul, "to be content in what ever state she found herself." Her pleasure in life was to serve God with the resources a hand. She was always busy planting the seeds of faith, hope, beauty and love in the live of all with whom she came in contact. It was her pleasure to teach Sunday School classe in most of the churches she and her husband served. She had her part in WSCS activitie and used her voice in every choir.

I suppose the following quotation sums up all that could be said about Mrs. Lowe an the life she lived. The paragraph is taken from a letter from Mrs. Jane Hollowell to th writer:

> "There are so many fine traits about my mother, I hardly know how to express them. What I loved most about my mother was her devotion to God, family and friends. Her gentle and cheerful spirit, the purity of life, and all the finer things of life. She loved music and would start singing any time she felt like it. One night while she was sleeping in my room with me, I was awakened by her humming one of her favorite hymns."

In 1950 Brother Lowe, Elva and Tommy returned to Aurora where they had serve many years before. Here they rented a small home in which to live. However, one of th former members who had always loved the Methodist Church and had a deep, abidin appreciation for Methodist preachers and their families, left a small house to the Auro Methodist Church. This house was to be used by retired preachers who had served th appointment.

The Lowes were able to spend many happy years together there among friends an neighbors who had shared former years with them. Because of Brother Lowe's physic condition, they were received into the care of the Methodist Retirement Home in Durhan North Carolina, where they continued to express God's faithful love and grace to all the associates, friends, neighbors, and those they chanced to meet.

Failing health and the weight of years confined Sister Lowe to the infirmary and God Angel of Death came for her January 9, 1972.

The funeral service was held in Aurora, North Carolina on January 11th. The ministe were Dr. Joseph F. Coble, Superintendent of the Methodist Retirement Home, and Reve end John W. Yount, pastor in charge of the Aurora appointment.

Thus, Almighty God claimed for Himself and for all eternity one who had lived "beautiful life" for Him.

It is most fitting and proper that this memorial be closed with the words of a hym Mrs. Lowe cherished so much:

> It singeth low in every heart,
> We hear it each and all;
> A song of those who answer not,
> However we may call.
> They throng the silence of the breast;
> We see them as of yore,
> The kind, the true, the brave, the sweet,
> Who walk with us no more.
> 'Tis hard to take the burden up,
> When these have laid it down;
> They brightened all the joy of life,
> They softened every frown.
> But, oh, 'tis good to think of them
> When we are troubled sore;
> Thanks be to God that such have been,
> Though they are here no more!

More home-like seems the vast unknown
Since they have entered there;
To follow them were not so hard.
Wherever they may fare.
They cannot be where God is not,
On any sea or shore;
Whate'er betides, Thy love abides,
Our God, for evermore.

MRS. MARTHA EMMA GRIGSBY FLETCHER

1887 - 1972

Mrs. Maynard O. Fletcher (Martha Emma Grigsby) was born in Scott County, Va., tober 31, 1887. She was married to Dr. Maynard O. Fletcher on April 18, 1906. She sed away January 17, 1972, in the Beaufort County Hospital. She was buried in Oakdale Cemetery on Wednesday, January 19, 1972. Dr. Fletcher preceded her in death June 11, 1966. They had one daughter, Mrs. Nola Mae Ervin, of Washington, N. C.

Dr. and Mrs. Fletcher came to Washington in September, 1914, when he became president of the Washington Collegiate Institute. Under their leadership this school provided an educational opportunity to hundreds of boys and girls who otherwise would have been denied this opportunity. They left their impact upon the educational, cultural, and spiritual life of all whom they met.

Mrs. Fletcher truly provided the balance and the sustaining force in this magnificent endeavor. She was a real mother to the hundreds of students who knew her. The Washington Daily News honored her as Mother of the Year in 1968.

To the members of the North Carolina Conference, she was always a sincere and charming hostess. She had that unseen capacity to lift their spirits and to send them away just a little closer to God than they had been before. In h she was a radiant Christian.

Mrs. Fletcher lived for others. She was an active member of the First United Methodist urch. She was a past president of the WSCS. She was a member of the O. Henry Book b and the Washington Park Garden Club. The doors to her heart and to her home were n to everyone. Perhaps the greatest tribute that could be paid to Mrs. Fletcher would to say "she was a gracious lady."

MRS. MARIE HOOKER GRANT

Marie Hooker Grant, widow of the late Dr. Thomas McMillan Grant, died on Januar 21, 1972, in Rocky Mount, North Carolina.

Mrs. Grant was born in Greene County, North Carolina, July 20, 1893, and was ma ried to Dr. Grant, her pastor, in Hookerton, North Car lina, in 1919. Dr. and Mrs. Grant served pastorates i Hertford, Lumberton, New Bern (District Superintendent Greenville, Elizabeth City (District Superintendent), an Rocky Mount, North Carolina (District Superintende and pastor). Dr. Grant died while serving as pastor of th First Methodist Church in Rocky Mount in Decembe 1952. Mrs. Grant continued to live in Rocky Mount unt the time of her death.

It was during their pastorate in Rocky Mount that m wife and I had the rare privilege and good fortune starting our ministry with Dr. and Mrs. Grant and the family, I as Dr. Grant's assistant, and my wife as a ne bride. This wonderful couple took us in and provided with the emotional support and guidance which is so im portant in the lives of young people. We practically live in their home because we felt accepted and loved b them. By this time their own children (three wonderf girls) had grown up and gone on to make fine contribu tions to the people of their communities and to the state of North Carolina. This was n surprising in view of the warmth and love which these girls had experienced from the parents. Dr. and Mrs. Grant did not treat us as subordinates, as children, nor as young peop who need to do a lot of learning and growing up. Instead, they treated us as persons, peers, as fellow workers in God's kingdom. This attitude on their part gave us great e couragement. As we now look back on our years in the ministry we are extremely gratef that we had such a wonderful couple to model our lives after and we are sure that o own home and ministry have been shaped and greatly influenced by our association an deep friendship with Marie and Tom Grant.

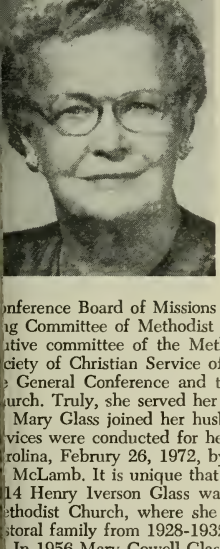

Marie Grant was our ideal of a wife and mother. She greatly complemented her hu band, yet she was a strong person in her own right. She was quiet, charming, very fem nine, and richly endowed with a spirit of gentleness, love and kindness that reached o to everyone she met.

In a simple and profound ceremony which befitted the quiet strength in which sh lived, Marie Grant was laid to rest from the First United Methodist Church in Rock Mount. She was buried beside her husband, Dr. Thomas Grant, in Pine View Cemete of that city.

MRS. MARY COWELL GLASS
1889 - 1972

Mrs. Mary Cowell Glass was born March 17, 1889, in the town of Bayboro, North arolina, the daughter of John F. Cowell and Sally Baxter Cowell. She attended the local hool and upon completion of her studies entered Woman's College, Richmond, Virginia, and graduated with honors. She later taught in the Washington, North Carolina public schools.

On December 28, 1922, Mary Cowell married Henry Iverson Glass and, thereby, began a more active life of service in the Lord's vineyard. Together Dr. and Mrs. Glass shared the challenges, opportunities, and joys of the itinerant ministry of the Methodist Church. Dr. Glass departed this life December 23, 1968.

As the wife of a Methodist minister, Mrs. Glass served both church and community well. Her community acitvities included service with the Red Cross, the Girl Scout Executive Council, the Executive Committee of the Young Women's Christian Association and regent of Caswell-Nash Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Raleigh, North Carolina.

In her church activities Mrs. Glass served as superintendent of the Children's Division of the Board of Education in the North Carolina Conference, as teacher of adult classes, as member of the executive committee of the nference Board of Missions and Church Extension, as member of the Long-Range Plan- ıg Committee of Methodist Homes, as trustee of Pfeiffer College, as member of the ex- ıtive committee of the Methodist College Foundation, as president of the Women's ciety of Christian Service of the North Carolina Conference, and as a delegate ot both e General Conference and the Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference of the Methodist urch. Truly, she served her Lord through her church.

Mary Glass joined her husband in the land of eternal day February 22, 1972. Funeral rvices were conducted for her in the First United Methodist Church, Washington, North rolina, Februry 26, 1972, by the Reverend Horace S. Garris and the Reverend Howard McLamb. It is unique that her memorial service was held in the same church where in 14 Henry Iverson Glass was ordained a deacon and admitted into the ministry of the ethodist Church, where she married Dr. Glass in 1922, and where they served as the storal family from 1928-1932. Her life touched many of us, and we are the better for it.

In 1956 Mary Cowell Glass, as president of the Conference Women's Society of Chris- n Service, addressed a meeting of that Conference body. The theme of her message was ooking Backward — Thinking Forward." She gave a resumé of the work for the quad- nium just ended, and then she showed something of her vision as it concerned the fu- e. Her "forward thinking" in 1956 must be our "forward thinking" in this day. She ote:

"As we enter a new quadrennium we face unbelievable opportunities and problems . . . linquency, both parental and youthful, is already a problem and must claim the atten- n of Christian women. In the days ahead we shall need a new measure of adventurous th, some such passion of sacrifice as has made men and women brave and faithful . . . e shall need to stand by our visions, to turn and meet the quick winds that are ushering a new era. In the Pitti Palace, Florence, Italy, there is a design of an airplane by the at painter, Leonardo Da Vinci. On the margin, written in his own handwriting, is the scription: 'There shall be wings.' There is a heartening thought for us in these days in s. There shall be wings, not only physical wings, but wings of loyalty, faith, courage; ıgs of peace, wings to fight prejudice, fear and hatred; wings to fight intolerance and aplacency and injustice; wings of religion, prayer and song; wings of love, sympathy and ncern . . . 'They who wait on the Lord shall mount up with wings as eagles, they shall and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint.'"

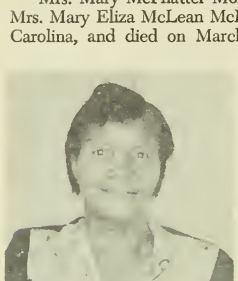

"For all the saints, who from their labors rest,
Who Thee by faith before the world confessed,
Thy name, O Jesus, be forever blest.
Alleluia! Alleluia"

MRS. MARY McPHATTER MONROE

Mrs. Mary McPhatter Monroe, daughter of the late Henry Clay McPhatter and the la
Mrs. Mary Eliza McLean McPhatter, was born on January 31, 1892, in Hoke County, Nort
Carolina, and died on March 8, 1972, at Southeastern General Hospital in Lumberto
North Carolina. Funeral services were held on Saturda
March 11, 1972, at Rhyne Memorial United Methodi Church, Red Springs, with the Reverend Preston C. Jone
Sr., officiating, assisted by the Reverend W. F. Elliot
Interment was in Community Rest Cemetery, Red Spring
North Carolina.

Her husband, the late Reverend John Edward Monro Sr., a local preacher in the Red Springs area, preceded h in death. To that union ten children were born.

She joined Lillie's Chapel Presbyterian Church at a early age and was a faithful member until she moved h membership to Mt. Zion Methodist Church, Red Spring
North Carolina. After becoming a resident of the Re Springs township, she became an active member of Rhyn Memorial United Methodist Church where she served a a faithful Sunday school teacher. She joined the Easte Star Lodge at Mt. Zion some years ago and later becam a member of the Red Springs Gleaners No. 382, and n mained a member in good standing until her death.

When I came to Red Springs to serve the Rhyne Memorial charge I fell in love with beautiful lady, Mrs. Mary Bell. She was a great person to know and she was always wil ing to share her knowledge and wisdom. Her "yes" to God and her "Amen" will be misse very much in Rhyne as well as in the community of Red Springs.

A leader and servant in the church and community for many years, she was called waitress in the Household of Faith. It seems that she had caught a vision of the Cross . . and she knew that as a result of that vision, it would lead to a physical death, but I fe that she held fast to the promise of God,"I will be with you always . . ."

My last visit with Mrs. Monroe was in the hospital. She was very weak—she couldn even speak, but she reached out and caught my hand. We had a short prayer, and wh we finished the meditation, she continually praised God . . . as if to say, "all the days my appointed time, I'll wait . . ." This reminded me of the song, "If I Couldn't Say Word, I'd Just Wave My Hand." As with Paul, she had quoted so many times in Sunda school: "This thorn in the flesh keeps bothering me, but I know God's grace is sufficient Finally, the end had come for a dear and wonderful lady. ". . . For I am now read to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand; I have fought a good fight, I hav kept the faith. Henceforth, there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which th Lord, the righteous Judge, shall give me at that day."

Rest now from your labor, Mrs. Monroe. It wasn't always easy for you here; you ha some hard times, but God's goodness and mercy followed you. You kept the faith. W give God the praise for having given her to us for a while. We give her back to Him, h Maker. Amen.

BLANCHE JOHNSON UNDERWOOD

1883 - 1972

On April 17, 1972, Lola Blanche Johnson Underwood died in Chatham Memorial Hos-al, Siler City, N. C., at the ripe age of 88 years. She was born October 31, 1883, in rion, South Carolina, a daughter of Thomas Hinson Johnson and Mary Davis Johnson.

Her funeral was conducted at Hope United Methodist Church in Bonlee, North Carolina, by her pastor, Rev. W. O. Connor, and Rev. W. L. Maness. She was buried in Hope Church Cemetery by the side of her beloved husband, Rev. William James Underwood, who died January 2, 1968.

"Brother" and "Sister" Underwood, as they were affectionately known, were married at Marion, South Caroline, January 10, 1906. To this happy union one son and two daughters were born: Alton C. Underwood, La Jolla, California; Mrs. Mary Clark, Bonlee, N. C., with whom Mrs. Underwood made her home after the death of Mr. Underwood; and Mrs. Julia Perry, Roseboro, N. C.

Rev. Wade Goldston, in writing the obituary of Brother Underwood, had this to say of Mrs. Underwood: "She was a partner with her husband in his life and ministry in a depth of understanding and love seldom matched on this earth. She still lives in Bonlee."

When the parsonage of the Bonlee Methodist Charge dedicated, Sunday, March 3, 1964, the study was dedicated in honor of "Rev. and Mrs. J. Underwood" with these appropriate remarks: "The Bonlee Methodist Charge is atly privileged to have a minister of the gospel and his wife to retire in Bonlee. We especially grateful to have such a dedicated couple who have spent their lives in ser-e to others."

Their first appointment was to Shallotte, March 24, 1919. This and many other charges served long and well until their retirement from the Robbins Circuit, my home charge, 953. Those eight years of loving service to my people and others there are greatly ap-ciated.

Mrs. Underwood was truly a Christian woman. She fought the good fight of faith and ed her course with joy. She is now happy in her eternal rest, having received the com-ndation, "Well done, good and faithful servant; enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

GROUP A: AGENCY ANNUAL REPORTS FOR 1971-1972

THE COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

One of the more memorable statements from the Celebration of the Bicentennial c Francis Asbury's Arrival in America, September 3-5, 1971, was the caution: "If we forget thos who came before us, we deserve to be forgotten by those who come after us."

A. The Commission on Archives and History during the conference year just ending, ha continued to obtain local church histories within the North Carolina Annual Conference. Thes histories can best tell the story of "those who came before us" and provide the Commissio with valuable information about the "history of North Carolina Methodism." Especially do w need the history of local Indian and Black United Methodist churches. As the local history updated, all ministers and local church historians are requested to send a copy to the historia of the Conference.

B. The 1971-72 year saw some significant historical observances in which the Conferenc commission members shared. The aforementioned Asbury Bicentennial, chaired by ou commission chairman, drew eighty of the more than five hundred delegates to the nationa observance. A total of 1,800 persons shared in the Labor Day weekend activities at which ou own Bishop William R. Cannon was a major speaker. Bishop Cannon spoke on the topic "Francis Asbury: Prophetic Itinerant and Designer of American Methodism." A number o Commission delegates attended from throughout the conference.

The Commission chairman was asked to represent the Southeastern Jurisdiction to speak a the October observance of Asbury's Arrival at Old St. George's in Philadelphia and John Stree Church in New York City.

C. In the late fall of 1971, planning began on the observance of the "Bicentennial o Methodism in North Carolina." Invitations were issued the Western North Carolina Conferenc Commission to share in joint sponsorship.

Other Methodist denominations were also asked to share in the state-wide observance Plans were drawn for a day-long celebration at Currituck Courthouse on September 28 1972 – the 200th anniversary of Joseph Pilmore's first sermon in North Carolina. Dr. Frederic Maser, executive secretary of the World Methodist Historical Society, of Philadelphia and edito of Joseph Pilmore's Journal will give the Keynote Address. The major afternoon speaker will b Bishop Herbert Bell Shaw of Wilmington, a member of the executive committee of the Worl Methodist Council. The Rev. C. Franklin Grill of Scotland Neck was elected as Program Chairman of this planning committe.

D. The Commission continues to sponsor the worship services monthly at Whitaker's Chapel one of our sixteen national shrines. We have also supported the efforts of the Washingtor County Historical Society in the renovation of historic Rehoboth Church which was officially opened during the year.

E. The Commission endorsed the project of the Conference Pictorial Directory. The 1971-7 Directory – the first for the conference since the pictures of the ministers of the 188 Conference – should be periodically updated. It should be a valuable pictorial reference no only for these days but for historical purposes.

F. The Chairman should like publicly to thank the Conference and the Commission member for their interest and cooperation during the quadrennium. We believe that the Conferenc Commission has made many contributions during the past four years. Our past has beer remembered but we have also made history in our own time!

The Raleigh Area is a vital part of the "cradle of American Methodist history."

THE COMMITTEE ON CHURCH ARCHITECTURE

The Committee on Church Architecture, in cooperation with the several agencies of the nual Conference, has assisted in giving special emphasis to thorough study and programming a prerequisite to architectural designing. "Translating Program into Space" was the theme of meeting December 14, 1971, in which Mr. Dennis B. Nicholson, architect, made the sentation.

The Annual Joint Meeting on March 6, 1972, gave added emphasis to the significance of orough planning prior to construction. The Reverend James L. Doom, minister and architect, ared in a presentation of church architecture's challenge to serve the church effectively.

In addition to resource materials, professional counseling services can be made available ough the Committee on Church Architecture in cooperation with the District perintendent.

The Committee calls to your attention the services of the Conference Review Committee, ich serves to evaluate preliminary architectural plans and prepare reports for local churches, strict Boards of Church Location and Building, the Board of Missions, etc.

As a servant, architecture will continue to play a significant role in the total ministry of the ristian Church as it provides space for worship, nurture, fellowship and service.

An additional emphasis is that of utilization of existing buildings. It is important that vestment be made in only the space needed to minister to the needs of the people.

Carver's Creek Church, located in Bladen County, was one of the two churches selected for cognition under the Randolph E. DuMont Design Program. Mr. Frank Ballard, the architect, l the church in a project of refurbishing the 100-year-old sanctuary designed by Sir ristopher Wren, and in the erection of a new educational building.

Meetings scheduled are Tuesday, December 5, 1972, and Monday, March 5, 1973.

THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL CONCERNS

The Board of Christian Social Concerns furnished scholarships for approximately a dozer persons at the Southeastern Jurisdictional conference on Christian Social Concerns at Lak Junaluska in July, 1971. The president of the board served as a leader at this enterprise.

The board has worked in close cooperation with the Commission on Christian Soci Action Ministries of the North Carolina Council of Churches in planning the Church an Community seminar held in cooperation with North Carolina State University in March and i helping plan a series of "engagement–reflection" seminars on welfare and poverty in North Carolina.

Members of the board participated in a task force to study day–care needs in North Carolina and the role of United Methodist Churches in day care. A report was made to annual conference with several recommendations and a statement of United Methodist standards for day care has been prepared.

In September, the vice president of the World Peace Division led an ecumenical, interracial, and inter–generational United Nations – Washington Study tour. This widened horizons and brought people in our conference into direct contact with agencies of the church in their work on national and international levels.

The board promoted the observance of World Order Sunday in October and "Trick or Treat" for UNICEF. The board also was a sponsor of the peace education booth at the North Carolina State Fair.

The board was and continues to be active in the State Council for Social Legislation. The president of the board served as chairman of the council's finance committee during the current year, and a member of our board serves the council as chairman of its legislative study committee.

The board has worked closely with the Council on Youth Ministry and has assisted in the establishment of a youth legislative affairs project. The youth leader in this project has served on the executive committee of our board, represented our board at the State Council for Social Legislation, and attended the General Conference in Atlanta.

The board, last year, called for the establishment of a conference Commission on Religion and Race, and at the time of the establishment of the commission, the board sponsored a "Consultation on Racism" for conference leaders and the members of the commission in cooperation with the General Commission on Religion and Race.

The board has worked closely with the Conference Commission on Religion and Race and sponsored a workshop on racism for the commission.

The board cooperated in the promotion of Race Relations Day, and even though some progress has been realized the past two years, we are distressed at the lack of our commitment to the goals of the Race Relations offering.

The board expressed appreciation to those who have served faithfully the past eight years and who will thus rotate off the board. We express our gratitude to the Rev. Charles M. Smith, our vice president of the Division of Peace and World Order for organizing and leading our U. N. – Washington Study Tour, and to the Conference staff, especially John M. Meares, for effective service in promoting the conference program.

THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON CONTINUING EDUCATION

The Committee on Continuing Education for Ministers functions within the Annual onference to assist the ministers of the Conference in the continuance of their preparation for ffective ministry. Together with the Western North Carolina Conference, the Duke Divinity chool, and the Duke Endowment, the committee cooperates with the statewide Commission n Continuing Education in the development of continuing education opportunities on the atewide level. The area of primary activity for the Conference Committee has been in the ffering of continuing education courses in the districts, and in assistance to individual pastors o become involved in their own program of continuing education..

During the past year, a course in preaching with Dr. John Carlton as leader has been held in lizabeth City, and a course was conducted in Sanford in problems in pastoral care under the adership of Dr. Paul Mickey.

A number of pastors have been invited and have attended in Residence Reading Programs Duke University in areas of Contemporary Understanding of Man, Old Testament Studies, nd Medical Ethics under the leadership of Duke faculty. The naming of Dr. McMurry Richey s Director of Continuing Education for the Divinity School gives promise of further expansion f opportunities for our pastors. The Conference Committee on Continuing Education is armly appreciative of this appointment.

The Committee on Continuing Education has approved grants for aiding pastors to attend ourses at Scarritt and at Yale University.

During the coming Conference Year, the Committee has projected district courses to be eld in four areas. As in the past, some studies will be designed to meet the needs of pastors ho have not completed requirements for Conference membership. Other courses will be eveloped on the post Master of Divinity level. In the former category will be courses in lizabeth City and Jacksonville. For post Master of Divinity study, courses will be held in ayetteville and Durham. Times have to projected on a weekly basis between September 18 to ecember 11, 1972, and between January 8, and February 26, 1973. The particular subjects ill be determined by a poll of pastors in the several areas.

In keeping with provisions of a resolution approved by the 1970 Annual Conference, the ommittee is charged with the nominating of persons to serve on the North Carolina Pastors' chool Board of Managers. Two persons are to be nominated each year for terms of four years. he committee nominates the following persons for terms to expire in 1976: James H. Miller, ., and W. W. Sherman, Jr.

A REPORT FROM THE DIRECTOR OF THE COURSE OF STUDY SCHOOL DUKE UNIVERSITY

Our theme for this year is, "Mostly New In 1972." First of all we have a new Divinity School dean – Thomas A. Langford. Second, we have a new Course of Study School director – Paul A. Mickey. Third, we have a new building. A new dean, a new director, and new facilities – along with a new slate of student officers – underscores "newness" for the Course of Study School in 1972, in this our 25th year.

We are restyling some of our teaching methods. For example, in the License to Preach course three faculty members will be involved in team teaching. Each faculty member will conduct individual sessions but will also participate in morning workshop sessions.

Formal and required class work will be confined to the mornings. This will allow students and faculty free afternoons. Workshops in preaching, public speaking, private tutoring, and conversations with the faculty will be available. Some of these activities will be sponsored by faculty; others by students.

There is great interest among the students and faculty to develop a workshop methodology. The heart of the workshop is the case study method. Here students bring in actual problems they encounter. Faculty and students work together on these specific problems. There is another trend: the decrease in the number and the amount of advanced assignments. We believe we can accomplish more, realistically, by concentrating on team–teaching and the workshop approach during the School itself. This would move away from extended and protracted assignments throughout the entire year.

A word about enrollment. We are most encouraged. As of June 7, our enrollment was 143.

Billy Cuthrell, a member of the North Carolina Conference, is also one of the student officers for 1972. If any members of the Conference, including members of the Board of Ministry, have questions about the Course of Study please see Billy Cuthrell or the undersigned.

Paul Mickey, Director

THE COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS

The committee has examined the district records turned in to us and declares them to be in order. We recommend that the most current records be placed at the front of the binder for easy access and that records more than four years old be carefully preserved in a separate place so as to keep the current book from becoming too cumbersome.

REPORTS OF THE DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

A COMPOSITE REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENCY

C. H. Mercer, Secretary to the Cabinet

At our last Annual Conference the eleven Districts presented for the first time a composite report rather than following the usual pattern of each of the eleven District Superintendents speaking for the District to which he was assigned. The enthusiastic response to that report indicated the delegates agreed 100% with this decision of the District Superintendents. (In other words, there was the usual response to decisions made by District Superintendents.)

Encouraged by your response we have decided again to present one report. Dr. Graham Eubank, our highly esteemed and articulate colleague, who is president of the Cabinet, was scheduled to be our spokesman. We deeply regret that because of illness he is confined to a hospital in Fayetteville and he is disappointed that he cannot give this report and that he must, after many years in the ministry, miss for the first time a session of the Annual Conference.

This report cannot provide accurate and detailed statistical information. This is true for /o reasons. The first one may be difficult to comprehend, but as I studied the reports from e District Superintendents provided me last night, one report had a notation at the bottom of e page which read, "This report is not complete due to the fact that we did not receive a port from one of the pastors." Let me assure you this was not the New Bern District report. I ceived a report from each pastor, but I will admit four long-distance telephone calls were cessary. The second reason our information is incomplete is the fact that some pastors arrived day with pockets bulging with checks and final reports. This information we will get later in e week from our Conference Statistician. But let me share enough information to indicate me important trends and accomplishments.

We have baptized almost 2500 infants during the Church Year. More than 9000 new embers have been received with 3600 of them coming into our churches on profession of ith. After reporting for two consecutive years a net loss in membership within our nference, we can now report a net gain of about 500 members for this year.

We have also made progress in the area of Christian stewardship. Again we are thrilled to port an increase in giving to the "Single Figure." Not only did the amount of our mmitment increase but the recent report from our Conference Treasurer indicated the rcentage paid on the "Single Figure" had increased 4.1% over that paid one year ago. The crease in commitments to the "Single Figure" alone for next year is about $250,000.

It now appears, Bishop Cannon, that the Churches of our Conference will contribute most $100,000 to the Ministerial Education Fund. All indications are this amount will be en greater next year.

Much has been done to improve our physical facilities. We have either erected or are in the ocess of erecting:

9 new Sanctuaries
13 new Educational Buildings
7 new parsonages
25 new units now being planned.

ne Churches of the Durham District alone have spent $1,000,000 on new buildings, renova-ns and indebtedness.

All special days have been widely observed, and based upon the fine response of our ople, we must conclude they were wisley observed. Many interesting and exciting activities ve been occurring in each of our Districts.

In the Elizabeth City District the Circus Tent Ministry at Kitty Hawk continues to flourish d expand. Plans are now underway for the Showboat Ministry designed especially for older ults. Camp sites in Currituck County have regular worship services during the summer onths. In the Wilmington District the Cape Fear Area Resort Ministries include Youpon, rolina, and Wrightsville Beaches. The Bogue Banks Resort Ministries, within the New Bern strict, continue to serve the thousands of summer visitors, but are also providing a helpful inistry to the seamen at the Morehead City Port.

Many training programs have been planned by the Districts. In the Goldsboro District a ewardship program was provided with special emphasis on training churchmen to hold ery-Member-Vistitation Programs and to come to a better understanding of the ingle-Figure Asking." In the Raleigh District four Every-Member- Visitation Workshops re held and ten Sub-District meetings were held to present the new budget askings for 72-73. As the editor of this report, I can observe that these meetings must have been very lpful as the greatest percentage of increase in the "Single Figure" for the new year comes m the Raleigh District. A one-day Workshop on Family Counseling was held for the Pastors the New Bern District. In Rocky Mount a District Workshop was held for Pastors on linistry Through Small Groups," the purpose of which was to help small groups function re effectively. The Sanford, Wilmington, and Burlington Districts had District Retreats for nisters and a training opportunity for lay workers. Within the Fayetteville District, the beson County Church and Community Center continues a special ministry. Major support is ing given this work from agencies of the Conference and the National Board of Missions. A w Rural Church and Community Program has been started in Harnett County. Several Work mps will be held in the Pamlico Parish in the New Bern District during the summer months.
oups of young people and their adult counselors from several states, and from within our nference, will be spending 10 days each working to improve the homes of some of the elderly citizens and disadvantaged families. The home owner will provide the materials f repair and the work groups will provide free labor.

Many are familiar with the story related by Mr. Broderick in his book, Historical Church in the United States. Some years ago in Swanquarter, high water lifted The Methodist Chur from its foundation, moved it without damage to a nearby lot which the Church members h tried without success to purchase as a new site for the Church. However, the owner would n sell. Immediately after the high water moved the Church building, he rushed to the courthou and transferred the ownership of the land to the Church saying, "I had plans for that lot, b the Lord had plans for it too." As Methodists of the North Carolina Conference, we mu acknowledge we have had our own plans, but God had plans for us, too. We are grateful th through us His work has been done.

Your District Superintendents express appreciation to the capable and dedicated pastc and laymen by whom God's plan has been followed. We also express deep affection and since gratitude for the brotherly understanding of our Father in the Faith, our Bishop, for h devoted and expert leadership. He has provided for us clear direction toward meaningful goa and has shared the inspiration and encouragement we needed to achieve.

ELIZABETH CITY DISTRICT

G. R. McKenzie, Superintendent

This year has seen the very fine cooperation of both pastors and lay persons in all the area of the work of our Lord's Church. Our report is but a summary; yet it could not be writte without giving credit to all those who make it possible.

Our churches report 279 persons received on profession of faith and 203 received b certificate of church membership. There were 184 baptisms during the year. It is with optimisr that we report a net gain in membership of 136.

The district response to an increase in the Single Figure was not as good as we had hoped but our churches did accept a 4.46% increase, or $6,510. We still have much to accomplis since we have accepted only 86.89% of our Asking. It is our prayer that more of our people ca catch the vision of increased giving for others. The churches have accepted $8,500 o Ministerial Education and this is an increase over the current year.

Our people continue to provide increased pastoral support, having raised salaries in exces of $19,000 for the coming year. There is no more meaningful way for the churches t commend the fine work of their dedicated pastors than through increased salary support.

There is continuing emphasis on improving the physical condition of church buildings an parsonages. Sharon Church, Currituck Charge, completed an educational unit this year. Th Perquimans Charge has built a new parsonage during the year. In addition, educational units ar in the planning stages at Wanchese and at Mt. Hermon on the Creswell Charge. City Road ha voted to undertake major repair of both church and parsonage. $53,000 has been reported a paid on parsonages and $60,100 on renovation and repair of church buildings.

The District Program Council has continued to function in a fine manner; among th activities it has successfully promoted has been a fine pastor's retreat with Dr. Thomas A Langford as leader, a pilot project for the Consultation Service for Churches of Sma Membership at Pilmoor Memorial church in Currituck, and a Vacation Church School Institute

The people of the area continue to boast of the fine work being accomplished through th Circus Tent Ministry at Kitty Hawk where each year between 40,000 and 50,000 person attend its varied activities. A new thrust is being planned for older adults to be known as Th Showboat Ministry which, hopefully, can begin in the not-too-distant future. As this "nev evangelism" continues to expand, we pray God's richest blessing upon all that is accomplished

We have had a good year in the Elizabeth City District; there have been some defeats bu we can report many more victories, and with this in mind, a grateful thank you is in order as w look forward to an even greater year in the service of our Lord and His Church.

FAYETTEVILLE DISTRICT

Graham S. Eubank, Superintendent

This is the final report for the Fayetteville District as constituted for the past eight years, a which time the total membership reported was 18,757. The total membership reported in 197 was 21,011. The membership at the close of 1971-72 shows an approximate loss of 20 members. Of the losses for the year 1972, 585 were by Charge Conference action. Received o ofession of Faith were approximately 500 and otherwise approximately 600. The total losses ere approximately 1,200. This is not intended to be a criticism of any minister or church hich has taken seriously a disciplinary requirement to submit a membership audit report nually at the Charge Conference. There may have been some errors, but certainly not tentional ones. I believe that it is good for the charge to have accurate membership reports, d it is a false assumption to believe statistical figures when membership rolls have been relessly kept and neglected for so long. We should, at present, have an accurate report on cal church memberships as of the end of 1971-72.

appreciate very much the wonderful relationship which I have been fortunate in having with e ministers and churches of this district during the year. They have been wonderful to e – most considerate, most cooperative and helpful, with the exception of three or four. In aking my final report for the churches in Robeson County, I am very happy to report that ery church included in the 26 charges in the county paid its Single Figure in full, and the ajority of other items. Actually the only county in this district of four counties in which a arge did not pay in full was Cumberland County, where I live.

could write a long report expressing my wonderful experiences with the work in Robeson unty. I could write quite a bit about my relationship with Black ministers and churches hich I cherish as one of the highlights of my life. My relationships with the Indian ministers d churches have also been most enriching and deeply appreciated, and let me say that I do not clude any White minister or church in that county because they, too, have shown real urchmanship. We have had our problems and our controversies, but we have not forsaken our ord nor His Church in these new relations and new problems which have been created only cause, finally, we began to face the Gospel Truth and tried to do something about the achings of Christ and the New Testament as people of God. I was not given a choice regarding e keeping or losing of Robeson County as my responsibility. The decision was made by hers. I was not consulted about the loss or keeping of that county. If I had been given a oice, despite the fact that there are 26 charges and almost half the work of the district in that unty, I would have chosen to have kept it. I shall miss my friends. I pray God's continuing essing upon them, and they have my continuing loyalty, love, and support.

lo not mean to neglect Hoke, Cumberland, and Harnett in this report, but since this is written ter the decision has been made, I must express these experiences which I will not have an portunity to state in any future reports.

here has not been much new building in the district during the year. There has been finishing of some projects and planning of new projects. The major actual building progress has been Rhyne Memorial in Red Springs. They are completely remodeling and repairing their church, t this is not yet completed. Additions and repairs have also been made at Mt. Olive-Smith large (both churches), New Zion, Beauty Spot, Piney Grove, St. George, Miller's, St. Peter's, lem, Walls Chapel, Mt. Zion, Collins Chapel, and Philadelphus. The Task Force of the Board Missions has recommended a new church building for Salem and Philadelphus. Woodside hurch on the Mamers Charge is getting ready to renovate its classrooms and fellowship hall. he Task Force has also recommended parsonages for Indian churches which do not have rsonages: Prospect, Pleasant Grove, Branch Street-Philadelphus, and a new parsonage for mbroke: First with the old parsonage, which is inadequate, being developed for use in the urch program and campus ministry. The church in Rowland has begun construction on a new llowship hall. The church raised during the year the majority of the total cost.

h Single-Figure acceptances of the Fair-Share Apportionment, the following have accepted ir Share; some far beyond the Fair-Share percentage:

nn: Divine Street ran Lake aymount ay Street llington
nden: Parkers Grove estnut Street
axton: St. Paul ew Zion-Pleasant Grove livet mbroke: Calvary-Buie
Pleasant Grove-Ashpole
Red Springs: Rhyne Memorial
Red Springs: Trinity
Red Springs Circuit
Collins Chapel
Cedar Grove-Salem
St. Pauls
Spring Hill
St. James-Beauty Spot
Tabor

We commend these churches on their financial records and stewardship responsibilitie accepted. With the exception of a very small number of churches, all others accepted increase and have agreed to accept the full amount of Fair-Share Apportionment asked for 1972-7 within the three-year period included in the Annual Conference Resolution of 1971. Th district was second in amount paid to the Ministerial Educational Fund and led in a number o other specials including the Fund for Reconciliation, United Methodist Youth Fund, Methodis Student Day, Worldwide Communion Sunday, and One Great Hour of Sharing. The district wa third in Conference Advance Specials. These speak well for the stewardship commitment of th churches of the district.

The total salaries received by pastors for last year were $475,000, only $6,000 less than th total salaries of the Raleigh District, which was number one. This information was provided b the Bishop and his committee on planning the Twelfth District. The Fayetteville District's ne boundaries include the churches of Sampson County, replacing the churches of Robeso County. Sampson County includes 11 pastoral charges and 21 churches. We now have a total c 48 pastoral charges in the district of Cumberland, Harnett, Hoke and Sampson Counties. Th old part of the Fayetteville District, including the District Superintendent, pastors, and laymer extend a welcome without any reservations and with a deep sense of appreciation and tot commitment in our Christian unity, cooperation, and support.

Before closing my report, I must commend the special programs in Robeson County includin the Robeson County Church and Community Center, community developer in the Prospec Parrish, Black and Indian Caucus funded by the General Commission Religion and Race, and special program that was begun by Hay Street Church in Fayetteville, which is now a ecumenical program. The newest program in the district is the Harnett County Rura Community Program with a church and community worker assigned last October.

This is not a statistical report, but an expression of who we are, our commitments, and a sincer desire to be the Church of God in our time.

GOLDSBORO DISTRICT

Albert F. Fisher, Superintendent

The year 1971-72 has been an exciting and productive year for the Goldsboro Distric Many meaningful experiences have been observed throughout the District. We have witnesse the maturing of the District Program Council concept as the programming agency for th District. This Council has been responsible for the major planning for the District for the yea The work of the Program Council has certainly generated a better spirit of cooperation an unity throughout the District.

Of all that has happened during the year, nothing compares to the licensing of five peop to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ. At District Conference, three young men were licensed t preach: David Atwood, James McCullen, and Kelly Wilson, III. Two of them are now servir student appointments, and after Annual Conference, the third will begin serving a studer appointment. Since District Conference, two others have been licensed by the District Con mittee on Ministerial Qualifications: Mrs. Gladys Williford and R. G. Gurley. Both of these wi assume pastoral appointments at Annual Conference. Mrs. Williford will become a Probationar Member of the Annual Conference this year, and will become the first woman to reach th status in the Annual Conference.

The Goldsboro District has had another excellent year financially. We have paid 100 p cent of the Single-Figure Asking for the Conference year 1971-72. Again, the pastors an laymen of the District are to be commended for their stewardship and commitment to th connectional system. The District also accepted 96.8 per cent of the requested askings – a increase over the previous year.

The churches were not without concern for their pastors' salaries. The total increase f the District was just over 5 per cent, which nearly reached the suggested goal of 5.5 per cer over the salaries paid the previous year.

The District is to be commended for its evangelistic outreach for the year. There was a n gain reported by the pastors of 110 members, with 115 infants having been baptized.

There were two major building programs completed during the year. Mt. Moriah Unite Methodist Church, on the Hopewell-Mt. Moriah Charge, built a new Educational Building an renovated the Sanctuary at a total cost of $33,500. This is a very lovely and complete facilit e other major construction program was a new Educational Building and renovation of the isting Educational Building by Centenary United Methodist Church, Smithfield. The total st of the project was $280,256. This plant is one of the best planned and most functional ucational Buildings that we have in the Conference.

One parsonage has been completed during the year. The Clinton Circuit sold the old rsonage and built a new one just outside Clinton. The parsonage will be occupied for the first ne by the pastor assigned to the Charge at the 1972 Annual Conference.

While these were the major programs, the other churches in the District were not idle. The urches spent $153,193 in renovation and repairs. This work continues to upgrade the ilities of the District in both church buildings and parsonages.

During the year, the District Parsonage has received some much-needed landscaping. The rk has not been completed, but the major protion has been finished. We continue to have a ely home that is a credit to the Goldsboro District, whose interest and concern for the strict Parsonage family is reflected in the parsonage.

A summary report by the District superintendent would be incomplete without a word of preciation for the work of the men who have served the churches in the District. Never have y been called upon but that the response was immediate and energetic. After having served three years now as superintendent, I greatly appreciate the kind of unselfish service that ifies the pastors of the United Methodist Church. As their superintendent, I, along with the urches of the District, have been blessed by their ministry.

A summary report would likewise be incomplete without deep appreciation expressed to the ited Methodist people of the Goldsboro District. They, too, have responded in a most nerous manner to me and to my requests of them. For their commitment, I am grateful.

This report must not indicate that the work here is finished – really, we have just begun. I ly hope that we have caught a glimpse of the mission to which we have been called. If we ve caught a vision, then the year ahead will again be as the last – a year of victories in Christ's ne.

NEW BERN DISTRICT

Charles H. Mercer, Superintendent

The loyal and competent services of the pastors and laymen of the New Bern District ha been rewarded with many results. Some can be recorded through statistical information, b the most significant part of these efforts is recorded in the lives of people whose faith has be kindled, cultivated, and expressed as a result of Our Lord's Ministry through The Church.

During the year, 107 infants have been baptized. We have received 265 persons on professio of faith and 497 by transfer.

The Beech Grove Church has completed a new educational building at a cost of $50,000. Th Richlands Church has begun an educational building which will cost $170,000.

The Clarks Church and the Harkers Island Church are planning new buildings with architec already at work.

Several meaningful training opportunities have been provided. The Board of the Lai sponsored a training program for certified lay speakers which was well attended. The Distri Program Council sponsored a one-day Workshop on Family Counseling for Pastors under t leadership of Dr. David Knox, Professor at E.C.U., a Pastors' Confirmation Lab in the New Be Sub-District, and Lay Officers' Training Workshops in each Sub-District.

Through the work in the Pamlico Parish we are discovering new approaches to a mo meaningful ministry through cooperative efforts and new understandings. Also, the Bog Banks Resort Ministry continues as a joint effort of many denominations to serve the summ tourists and the seamen using the Morehead City Port.

The response to the needs served through the Single-Figure Asking has been the best it h been in several years. This is true of payments for the year closing and committments alrea made for the new Church Year.

God has truly used the commitment and talents of the pastors and laymen of the New Be District. Praise be to God!

RALEIGH DISTRICT

J. W. Page, Superintendent

The Conference year 1971 – 1972 has been a good year for the Raleigh District; t sixty-five active and dedicated ministers and the 28,918 devoted laymen have made t following report possible. I am deeply grateful to our ministers and our laymen for th cooperation in every phase of the work of the Church: in a very real sense, this is their repo

1. Membership and Evangelism: 567 members were received on profession of faith; 1368 we received by transfer for a total net gain of 480. There is increasing devotion in the area Evangelism on the part of both clergy and laity, and this continuing evangelistic emphasis is omen of better things to come.

Finances: The Single-Figure Acceptance for the Raleigh District for this year was 74,517.00 and the amount paid to date is $371,233.00, making a percentage paid of 99.1%. e Churches of the Raleigh District have accepted for the Single Figure for 1972-1973 the ount of $440,000.00; this represents a $66,000.00 increased acceptance over the previous ar. In addition, the salaries of the ministers have been raised by more than five per cent. Only ee Charges failed to pay in full their Single-Figure Acceptance.

During October and November four sub-district Every-Member-Visitation Workshops were d in strategic areas of the district; these were led by O. L. Hathaway, K. L. Braswell and J. Page. In January ten sub-district meetings were held in the District to present and to explain increased asking for the Single Figure; this increase was made imperative by the action of Special Session of the Annual Conference which adopted a Funded Pension Plan for the nisters of the Conference. Those persons who were involved in the leadership of these -district meetings were: O. L. Hathaway, N. W. Grant, K. L. Braswell, J. Ed Legates, Merritt ies, Charles McAdams and J. W. Page. The total increase in the Single-Figure Acceptance in Raleigh District is due largely to the information and the inspiration of these sub-district etings. For the excellent response of both ministers and laymen I am most thankful.

Raleigh District Program Council: The entire program in the Raleigh District was planned l projected by the District Program Council. This group met regularly during the year; on y 12, 1972 the group met at Westover United Methodist Church for a day of planning for 1972-1973 Conference year. Each member of the Program Council had done his homework. l it was a very meaningful day of planning for the work of the Church for the coming year. deep appreciation is expressed to each member of the District Program Council for his part planning the work for the Raleigh District for the new year. Because we took the necessary ie to work and plan, the coordination of the Raleigh District Program with the Conference gram will be greatly facilitated for the coming year.

Board of the Laity: Under the capable leadership of Dr. J. Ed Legates, Raleigh District Lay ader, a significant program of Lay Activities was carried out. One of the great experiences in s area was the District Lay Rally in February held at Memorial Aduitorium. A youth group m Burlington, THE NEW DIRECTIONS, gave an excellent program; "it was wild and ovy" in a Christian and youthful sort of way, and this did a great deal to bridge both the ial and generation gap. To Dr. Legates and to each Lay Leader in the Raleigh District I say, hanks, for a job well-done."

Miscellaneous: There are many other areas of concern that could be singled out for special phasis: United Methodist Women, United Methodist Youth Fellowship, United Methodist n, Christian Education, Social Concerns, Religion and Race, Health and Welfare, debt yment, building improvement, Advance Sepcials, N. C. Christian Advocate, and other special rs and causes. To sum it all up, continuing progress is being made in all areas in the Raleigh trict, and I am thankful to God for the privilege of working with the ministers and laymen in s exciting program of our United Methodist Church.

ROCKY MOUNT DISTRICT

Paul Carruth, Superintendent

Brick and mortar, lumber and paint are perhaps the most easily identifiable signs of interest l commitment. Our people give evidence of their interest in the church and their nmitment to the work of the church in the buildings they construct or acquire.

The support of the people of the Rocky Mount District for the pastor has been demonstrated the continued upgrading of the parsonages. Central air conditioning is becoming a required ture of the homes of all our people, and the parsonage is no exception. Two congregations ve secured new homes for their pastors. these are Weldon, and Winstead of Wilson. Valuable ditions have been made to the parsonage at Woodland.

Construction of the new sanctuary at Scotland Neck is proceeding, and a new church ucture is being built by our Shiloh church of Gaston. Additional classrooms are planned for vern church of Milwaukee Charge. The architect of Tabor Church of Hawkins-Tabor has wn plans, and a financial campaign has been carried out for the reconstruction of the ctuary, with the letting of a contract expected within the near future. Remodeling or urbishing plans are being developed by New Hope Church of Roanoke, Elm City, and First urch, Wilson.

The development of Christian zeal and a shared life of Christian faith among our people not so easily identified, but there are encouraging signs. The entire Rocky Mount District h given serious attention to the identification of every person, and the accounting of eve member appearing on the membership rolls of our churches. The emphasis has or incidentally been to "clean rolls." Basically, the concern has been to mobilize every reside Methodist to participate in Christ's redeeming ministry to the world. The churches of t district added 599 members. A second Confirmation Laboratory for pastors was held in t district to upgrade the quality of this work. A large number of the congregations participated the study of the COCU Plan of Union, giving evidence of continued ecumenical concer Because our churches do much of their work in small groups, a district workshop for pastc was held to help pastors to help the boards, classes, committees, etc. in their churches to their work more effectively.

The Fund for Reconciliation has assisted a program of community help in Rocky Mount by contribution to Contact.

The Rocky Mount District is preparing to participate enthusiastically in the progress of o Conference in the 1972-1973 Conference Year.

SANFORD DISTRICT

Joyce V. Early, Superintendent

The Sanford District has had another good year for which we are profoundly grateful! T morale of the preachers and laymen is at a high peak. The spirit of comradeship and teamwo is excellent. Harmony has prevailed at the charge conferences, and a wholesome outlook towa the work of Christ's Kingdom has been evident.

CHRISTIAN NURTURE AND EVANGELISM:

A total of 929 new members have been received, on a goal of 1,000, with almost half these (447) coming by profession of their faith in Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour. We a especially pleased to report a net gain of 340 new members in the district, while the net ga for the conference was 448. Our pastors baptised 207 infants. A pilot Confirmation Lab w held in February with 14 pastors participating. Membership confirmation classes have been he and Christian nurture stressed.

During the year seven pastors and laymen served as consultants in the ministry to sm churches. We are very proud of this work for it has brought hopeful help to eight of our weak churches. Appreciation is given to the faithful consultants for work well done. An overnig spiritual retreat was held for our pastors on November 8, 9, with Dr. Mack B. Stokes inspiritual leader. Forty-two of our pastors participated.

BUILDING PROJECTS:

Steele Street Church, Sanford, started construction on their long-dreamed-of church hor on August 15, 1971, with completion expected in February 1973. This church, re-located West Sanford, will cost $1,293,000 when completed, and will be one of the most beautiful a modern churches in the conference. The congregation has voted to change the name to St. Lu United Methodist Church when occupied.

Union Grove Church, Sanford Circuit, is now under construction also. The cost, wh completed on July 31, 1972, is expected to be $40,000. This much-needed church is receivi aid from the Duke Endowment, the $10 Club, and the Sanford District Fund for nee churches. We are very grateful for this aid.

Buildings Planned:

Polar Springs: sanctuary remodeling and new class-room building.

Candor: Fellowship Hall remodeling and improvement of educational building.

Macedonia: Improvement of sanctuary, and addition of Fellowship Hall, kitchen, and r rooms.

Star: New sanctuary being planned.

Smyrna: New Fellowship Hall and Kitchen being added.

Bascom's Chapel: New church building being planned to cost $40,000. (Work will beg probably this summer.)

Center: New class room building.

Ophir (Troy Ct.) Remodeling of sanctuary.

Caledonia: New Educational building plans being completed. (Construction is to start this mmer.)
District Parsonage: A total of $10,128.00 has been paid on principal and interest this year. esent debt is $14.993.99.
NANCES: The Sanford District has led the conference each month since January in the rcentage paid on the Single-Figure Acceptances. The district reported to the conference that 0% of the acceptances had been paid on the 1971-72 askings, and $300,858, an increase of 0,131, or 8.50% has been accepted for 1972-73. The Sanford District exceeded its Fair-Share ota by over $5,000! This was made possible because 30 of the 50 charges reached or ceeded their Fair Share for 1972-73! Only four charges failed to accept an increase.
The district accepted $18,596 of the Ministerial Education Fund on an asking of $20,731, or %. Only one charge failed to accept any apportionment. It accepted $838.50 on an portionment of $1140 for the Interdenominational Cooperation Fund, or 75%.
PASTORS' SALARIES:
Pastors' salaries have been increased by $26,139 for 1972-73. Only six charges did not crease their pastor's income. All but four now pay the pastor's Blue Cross-Blue Shield and fe Insurance premiums.
The Lay Rally attendance was the largest ever with 595 present. A lay speakers' training ssion was held with Charles K. McAdams, leader. Also, an officers' training session was held.
Bishop William R. Cannon dedicated the Pinebluff parsonage on November 7, 1971. Other rsonages in the district have been improved. The new East Rockingham parsonage, one of the est in the conference, was completed and occupied by the Rev. and Mrs. O. W. Watson in the l of 1971. At the same time a new Fellowship Hall was completed and occupied.
The Sanford District has had a tremendous year. It has been a very high privilege for me to ve been the district superintendent of such dedicated laymen and pastors for the past two ars.

WILMINGTON DISTRICT
W. J. Neese, Superintendent

I am pleased to present the following brief account of some of the accomplishments of the ited Methodist Church in the Wilmington District. With humble acknowledgement of my lebtedness to the fine pastors and lay persons of the District, I offer my profound gratitude all those who have served Christ and his Church with great devotion and have given their operation in the promotion of the program and mission of the church both locally and bally. As Francis Asbury wrote of the Wilmington Methodists in 1810, so I can say today: "I d the work of God is going on here."
Our people are concerned about evangelism. During the past year, 236 have been received by ofession of faith. The total received into the churches of the District by all means is 716. sses by all means number 651. Our net gain of members this year is 65.
In a year when we advised that government controls would permit only a limited salary crease for each pastor for the coming year the charges of the District have agreed to increase e salaries of the pastors by an amount of approximately $28,000 over this year.
In the face of a Single-Figure Asking of $273,530, the churches of the District have accepted otal of $205,035 of this amount for next year. This means that we have accepted 91.72% of r Single-Figure Asking. Our increase over the 1971-72 acceptance is 8.43%.
The prospect is that a large majority of our churches will pay their Single-Figure acceptance full this year, although a few are not likely to do so.
Buildings dedicated this year include: the parsonage at Chadbourn on October 10, 1971, and iloh Church on the Riegelwood-Bolton Charge on May 21, 1972. The Coffeehouse and Beach nistry Facilities at Long-Yaupon Beach, sponsored by Ocean View Church, were dedicated July 31, 1971.
Magnolia Church completed the renovation and redecoration of its sanctuary and held a vice of rededication on May 28, 1972. The interior of the Chadbourn Church also has been novated this year. Extensive repairs and improvements have been made on the basement of ntenary Church in Harrells.

A new parsonage is being erected by the Singletary Church of the Dublin Charge. It shou be completed by early fall.

Plans are being made for the erection of the following building projects in the near future: sanctuary building at Shiloh Church on the Town Creek Charge; and a sanctuary building a class rooms at Ocean View, Yaupon Beach. Also plans are underway to remodel the sanctua at Wallace at an estimated cost of $45,000: pledges totaling $43,095 have been received to da

In the area of special ministries, a new concern is being shown for our responsibilities on o beaches. The Cape Fear Area Resort Ministries –CFARM– has been formed in the District promote and coordinate the special ministries at Wrightsville, Carolina, and Long-Yaup Beaches.

A Methodist Society is being organized in the Greater Wilmington Area to provide a vehi for inter-church cooperation and to coordinate the United Methodist program and mission the lower Cape Fear Area. We expect this organization to help us achieve a greater degree unity and solidarity as United Methodists.

We believe our greatest days are ahead, and we pray for God's guidance and power that may more wholeheartedly follow the Lord Jesus Christ.

THE CONFERENCE COMMISSION ON ECUMENICAL AFFAIRS

During the year, the Commission has emphasized a study in the local churches of "A Plan Union" in connection with the Consultation on Church Union.

Two of the officers–Drs. T. A. Collins and C. W. Robbins–led in discussions on "A Plan of ion" at the R & R held at Methodist College, Fayetteville, last summer. A number of the embers of the Commission have participated in local church ecumenical discussions during the ar.

The Commission, in cooperation with Bishop Cannon and Reverend E. R. Porter of the ogram Council, conducted a survey of study plans for "A Plan of Union."

Of 296 forms returned, 263 indicated that the study would be held, with 142 stating they uld conduct their studies with other COCU communions. Responses indicate that a good ss-section of churches held ecumenical studies in one form or other and that ecumenical operation is growing within the bounds of our Conference.

The Commission commends the Conference for its growing support of the North Carolina uncil of Churches as well as other ecumenical bodies. At a time when the ecumenical vement is under attack from various quarters, the United Methodist Church holds firm in its mmitment to interchurch and interfaith cooperation. All ecumenical bodies need financial pport if they are to be a vital force in healing the brokenness of our churches and become a ong intluence in healing a broken, warring world.

The Commission wishes to commend ministers and laymen in local churches who are ploring new ecumenical models and finding more ways of working with other communions at e grassroots level.

The Commission met in March and voted to ask the Conference to reduce its membership 27, the number of representatives to which the Conference is entitled in the North Carolina uncil of Churches.

Five from our Conference are related to ecumenical bodies, including Bishop Cannon, who is Methodist representative to COCU; Dr. Robert E. Cushman, who is a member of the General Commission on Ecumenical Affairs of the United Methodist Church; Nelson Gibson, Bill Price and C. W. Robbins, members of the General Assemblies and General Board of the National Council of Churches. Dr. Collins is the past president of the North Carolina Council of Churches.

1. Report for 1971-1972

A. One of the areas in which we sense a great need is that of developing more better-informed churchmen. This process has its beginning in the confirmation classes. We have had five confirmation labs for pastors this year to help them better use the fine curriculum we now have. Labs were held in Raleigh, Greenville, Roanoke Rapids, New Bern, and Rockingham. Fifty-five pastors participated in these five day-labs.

B. At the Southeastern Jurisdiction Leadership and Laboratory School at Lake Junaluska, August 1-13, 1971, we had two persons who completed work for certification as Elementary Laboratory Leaders: The Reverend F. Belton Joyner, Jr. (Elementary V-VI) and Mrs. Roberta Scipio (Elementary V-VI).

C. In the program for "Developing Ministries in Black Churches," there was a very helpful Black Youth Church Encounter Workshop held October 1-3, 1971, at Camp Rockfish, which reached fifty youth and adults, laymen, and pastors. Also, five Cluster Group Council on Ministries Workshops were conducted by Reverend Willard Williams, Staff Member, Division of the Local Church, United Methodist Board of Education, Nashville, Tennessee. A committee is now at work gathering information on contributions of Blacks to United Methodism in North Carolina to be made available to local church groups.

D. The most important area of work that we developed this year was the "Service to Churches of Small Membership." Miss Jennie Youngblood from the General Board of Education held three pilot consultation training sessions in our conference. These sessions were held at Camp Rockfish November 12-14, 1971; Pilmoor Church, Currituck, November 16-18, 1971; and Camp Chestnut Ridge November 19-21. A one-day "make-up" session was held in Goldsboro on February 9. As a result of this training, forty-nine consultants are now available to help churches of small membership to more effectively plan their ministries. At least thirty consultants are already assigned to churches. Some of these have completed their four consultation sessions with the local congregation.

E. There were nine Christian Workers' Schools held in our conference this year with more than seventy churches taking part. This method of leadership development still has a vital contribution to make to the training enterprise.

F. Eleven workshops involved more than 175 local church leaders in training sessions of from two to five hours. A wide range of subjects of Christian interest were explored.

G. Two laboratory enterprises were conducted: one in the Durham District and one in the Raleigh District.

H. We commend the Program Council for the appointment of an Interboard Leadership Development Task Force which has already made plans for orientation, training and organization of the new boards and agencies at Methodist College on June 24, 1972.

SECTION B

Committee on Children's Ministry

E. Clifford Shoaf, Chairman

Report for 1971-1972

a. Pilot Project to strengthen the Role of the District Coordinator of Children's Ministry Coordinators were encouraged to establish in-depth relationship with two local churches to explore the possibilities of ways district coordinators could best support local church ministry with children. It was possible to establish such projects in four of the districts.

b. Cadre of New Workers District coordinators were asked to work through the ministers of the district to discover capable persons for leadership roles in children's ministry. One example of the effectiveness of this effort is the fact that some districts had entirely new staffs for Vacation Church School Workshops.

c. Vacation Church School Workshops Over one thousand persons took part in the Vacation Church School Workshops held in all of the eleven districts. More than fifty persons did special preparation to serve as leaders in these Workshops.

d. Support of Camping Ministry In the summer 1971 camping program, 733 elementary boys and girls took part in activities at the conference camps. This is an increase of twenty per cent. Those who had completed the third grade were eligible for the first time and the Council on Children's Ministry evaluated the participation of those children as a good procedure. During the camps, special attention was given to ecological concerns.

e. Reaching Children Outside the Church The Council on Children's Ministry prepared a resource sheet on reaching children outside the church. This material was sent to every local church pastor and to each local church coordinator of children's ministry.

f. Children's Music Workshop Rather than a conference-wide Workshop, there were resources available so districts could have their own Children's Choir Festival. These were held in the Burlington, Durham, Raleigh, and Wilmington Districts. Over 300 persons were involved.

g. Curriculum Workshops Several districts offered workshops for those who teach in the Children's Division. Attention was given to interpreting the philosophy behind United Methodist curriculum resources and helps for using the resources. An estimated 200 persons took part in the various workshops.

h. Support of EXIS Each local church received a mailing about EXIS, the computerized Experimental Information Service. Through the District Coordinators of Children's Ministry, three of the districts bought memberships in EXIS for use by churches in the district. Nationally, the EXIS program is being evaluated now to determine whether or not to continue it. Several good experiences with EXIS in our conference led our Council on Children's Ministry to encourage continuing EXIS.

SECTION C

Committee on Youth Minstry

Samuel D. McMillan, Jr., Chairman

Report for 1971-1972

a. Trail Hike Twelve persons took part in last summer's experience; twenty persons have applied for this year's hike.

f. Explore Week-end Twelve persons were involved in this vocations week-end opportunity.

g. Meeting on the Pastoral Ministry In April, the Commission on Enlistment for Church Occupations and the Council on Youth Ministry sponsored a One-Day Meeting on the Pastoral Ministry. Seventy-five persons attended this session.

h. Group Dynamics for Youth Committee Members of the Conference Committee on Youth Ministry held a retreat on the Neuse River. The main focus of the retreat was on "how do groups work?" "how can we get our job done?" and "how do I work best in a group?"

i. Arts Festival This suggested program was not offered because the Council on Youth Ministry decided there was not sufficient support for the event.

j. Leisure Ministry A sheet identifying "What Others Are Doing" was prepared and distributed to those who expressed interest in the area of leisure ministry.

k. Conference Youth Rally The theme "God is For Real . . . Are You?" was developed at the 1971 Youth Rally. Two thousand youth meth on October 30 at Duke University.

l. R & R The 1971 R & R offered courses in youth ministry. Youth were invited to be part of the early planning for the 1972 R & R. Conference Youth President Flynn Surratt did attend such a meeting, giving some youth voice to the planning.

m. Local Church Study Tours The Conference staff gave help to four groups who were planning their own study tour experiences in Washington and/or New York.

n. Scholarship Funds Camperships are available for camping ministry programs. A small fund was established by some of the staff at Senior High Workshop for use by Black or Indian youth. The Council on Youth Ministry designated $400 for scholarships for Black or Indian youth for use in the conference summer opportunities.

o. Church-wide Studies Leadership development opportunities were provided at R & R.

p. District Coordinators As recommended by the 1971 Annual Conference, the Conference Coordinator of Youth Ministry made recommendations to the District Superintendents about District Coordinators of Youth Ministry for 1971-1972.

q. Counselor-in-Training The Council on Youth Ministry has recruited the counselors-in-training for the Camps for the Mentally Retarded. There were almost twice as many applicants than could be used.

r. United Methodist Curriculum Contact was made with every local church to determine how the Conference might be helpful in interpreting the United Methodist resources. At various places in the Conference, there were local church consultations, Christian Workers' Schools, laboratory enterprises, resources mailings, and other contacts to try to meet the needs.

s. Continuous Membership Training An emphasis was given to the importance of ongoing membership training. This took place in the various Confirmation Labs (Rockingham, Greenville, New Bern, Raleigh, Roanoke Rapids).

t. Junior High Workshop There were 164 participants in the 1971 Workshop at North Carolina Wesleyan College.

u. Senior High Workshop With the theme "Bridge Over Troubled Waters," there were 209 attending the Workshop at North Carolina Wesleyan College.

v. Youth Music Workshop Seventy-five attended the first Youth Music Workshop at Methodist College.

w. Local Church Leadership Development There were replies from fifty-seven charges when a mailing went to all local churches about their plans for leadership development in youth ministry. Follow-through is continuing for those who requested assistance.

x. Nominations and Personnel There was nothing done in response to the recommendation that all local church committees on Nominations and Personnel be given a list of suggested criteria for nominating adult workers with youth.

y. Youth with Responsibilities Information has been distributed about the new "Youth Involvement Series" prepared by the General Church. Also, effort has been made to work with the youth and young adult delegates to the 1972 Annual Conference, to interpret their role and to assist them in understanding the procedures of the Annual Conference.

z. Re-appointment The Bishop made the staff appointment as recommended.

SECTION D

Committee on Young Adult Ministry

John M. Meares, Chairman

Report For 1971-1972

1. Two Young Adult Consultations were held with United Methodist Churches and Military Personnel in the Fayetteville area. Reverend Lander Beal. Director of Young Adult Ministry for The United Methodist Church, was the resource person for these consultations. A great deal of interest and concern was shown for ministry to service personnel in the area. Approximately fifteen persons attended each of these sessions, with representation from seven local churches and the Military.
2. Proposals for a Young Adult Week-end Laboratory Enterprise in the Fayetteville area were projected. Due to scheduling the Lab has not been held, but is projected for the 1972-73 conference year.
3. Consultation service with several local churches on the churches ministry to Young Adults has been held.
4. There continues a great concern in the area of ministry to young adults and local churches are encouraged to initiate new groupings of young adults for participation in innovative ministries.

SECTION E

Committee on Adult and Family Life Ministry

R. T. Commander, Chairman

Report for 1971-1972

1. The announcement of a new adult study, "Our Living Bible Series," has been received with enthusiasm. This series which will be available to local churches in September 1973, is in response to the plea from adults wanting a new, solid, and dependable study of the Bible. Workshops are planned for the introduction of this series to local churches in the spring of 1973.
2. The adult curriculum series, "Chirstian Faith in Life," have been received well in this conference, with many groups reporting exciting learning experiences. This series is still available as well as the "Foundation Studies Series." The "Adult Bible Studies" (International Lesson) continues to be the most popular adult curriculum material.
3. The development of adult leaders to work in teaching/learning groups has shown some signs of increased activity. Many local churches and clusters of churches have held training opportunities, using many different designs and hours for the events. One very successful training event was held in cooperation with a Technical Training Institute.
4. Increased interest is being shown in ministries to senior citizens, with several churches developing on-going programs and the development of leadership to work with the aging.
5. A Conference Consultation on Ministries to Senior Citizens was held in Raleigh, with Miss Virginia Stafford, Director of Ministries to Older Adults, Nashville, Tennessee, as the resource leader. District Coordinators of Adult Ministry, and District Chairmen of Social Concerns participated in this event.

6. Family Camp was held at Camp Don-Lee, July, 10-16, with 214 children, youth and adults in attendance for the two sessions. Registrations for the 1972 session of Family camp have filled to capacity the camp facilities.
7. In addition to the promotion of adult ministries, many consultations have been held dealing with the structure of the church, the Administrative Board and the Council on Ministries.

SECTION F

Committee on Christian Educators and Music Ministry

H. Langill Watson, Chairman

1. Christian Educators Section, Wyatt Brown, Chairman

A. Report for 1971-1972

A total of forty-two workers are now serving in our conference. Three of these are certified Ministers of Education; eleven are Directors of Christian Education; one is an Associate in Christian Education; and twenty-seven are Educational Assistants. Two new workers transferred into our conference from the Holston Conference during the past year: Miss Jean Beaty, Associate in Christian Education, is now serving at First Church in Rockingham; and Miss Carol Tignor, Director of Christian Education, is serving at Highland Church, Raleigh.

These workers are vitally concerned about the total life and ministry of the churches they serve. They also assist other churches in the conference by serving as resource leaders on conference, district, and cluster-group levels.

We encourage more churches to employ full-time workers in Christian education as an effective way of improving their educational ministry. All churches employing education workers should support them in their ministry in every way possible.

B. Report of Christian Educators Fellowship, North Carolina Conference

The North Carolina Chapter of the Christian Educators Fellowship has sought in the past and will continue to seek in the future, ways to help congregations understand the role of Christian educators. The chapter is seeking ways to help the educator implement the objectives of Christian Education wherever he works.

The Christian Educators Fellowship has tried to develop ways that the Christian educator can be used in implementing the conference priorities for 1972-1973. We feel that through the use of the expertise of the Christian educator in the educational process, many of the priorities can be met. During the past year, many of the Christian educators have been leaders in the consultation service for churches with small membership with tremendous results and activities beginning to take place in these churches that are so vital to our conference.

The Christian educator wants to be included as a vital part of the leadership of the church. They are volunteering for leadership positions on local, district, and conference councils so that their commitment to Christ and the Church can be used effectively in reaching persons and filling their needs. The Christian educator wants to be concerned about persons and their real needs. The Christian educator wants to be an enabler, a good listener, a supporter of lay workers, and someone that can provide leadership training.

The Christian educator will continue to maintain high standards for its profession with diligent effort being made toward practical training and application that will help persons carry out their commitment to Christ in everyday living.

F. We recommended that local churches be encouraged and helped to make better year round use of our four campsites for Day Camping, Retreats, Planning Sessions, Fellowship, Enrichment, Study Setting, etc.

Report: New and improved brochures for each camp were prepared and distributed, showing available facilities at the camps and possible uses. Year-round use has increased noticeably this year.

G. We recommended that work camps and service projects be encouraged and planned for at each of the camps.

Report: This is more feasible now with supervisory staff at each camp. A number of work projects have been held this year.

H. We recommended that $50,000 be granted from World Servide for Camp maintenance for use in 1972-73.

Report: In 1971-72, an indication of a shift in emphasis from property to personnel and supervision was the securing of a resident manager at Camp Don-Lee and Kerr Lake, and the employment of an assistant to the Superintendent of Camps.

I. We recommended that the Committee on Camping Ministry be authorized to proceed with the construction and development of priorities at each camp, based on priorities set by the Camp Committee, as funds become available, without incurring indebtedness.

Report: Major developments this year include:

Chestnut Ridge: New canvass for the wagons and hogans and the addition of some teepees.

Don-Lee: Improvements in the manager's residence, renovation of the kitchen, and replacement of the pier.

Kerr Lake: Opening of the new Family Camping Area this spring; new canvass and cooking equipment for the hogan units.

Rockfish: A new pavilion given by the Chestnut Street Church in Lumberton as part of the Day-Use Area.

J. Budget Summary:

Program: We came through the summer of 1971 with an optimistic program report. Fees for retreat groups and summer camp remain the same this year as last. Although salaries and food costs have gone up, we expect, through increasing year-round use of the camps and diversified summer program, to continue with a balanced budget.

Balance May 31, 1971	$ 9,856.88	(included in Receipts)
Receipts	82,843.72	Receipts)
Disbursements	70,349.83
Balance January 31, 1972	12,493.89

Maintenance: Costs continue to rise as our four camps are improved and as their use increases. The Maintenance Fund will continue to need undergirding by work groups and special projects:

Budged 1971-1972	$41,912.13
Spent	29,517.34
Balance January 31,1972	12,394.79

Crusade: This is the final year of the Camp Crusade, undertaken to help meet some of the emergency needs of the camps. Of the $300,000 goal, approximately two-thirds has been paid in. It is hoped that churches, individuals, and groups who have not done so will make every effort to complete their share of this important part of their church's ministry.

Major projects compled to date through the Camp Crusade include:

Chestnut Ridge: The Staff House and the Mebane Cabin

Don-Lee: The new beach, renovation of kitchen, roofs, beds, improvements in manager's residence.

Kerr Lake: Day Use Area and Family Camp Area

Rockfish: Lodge and six cabins

Some of the critical needs still pending include:

Don-Lee: Dining Hall Renovation, Staff House-Retreat Center.
Kerr Lake: Caretaker's House, a winterized facility.
Rockfish: Swimming pool, staff house.

Summary of Oral Reports of College Representatives to Commission Members

Representatives of conference related institutions of higher education presented oral reports at the Commission meeting on February 22, 1972. The following highlights are summarized from these reports.

Financial difficulties among the colleges are directly related to insufficient enrollment.

Tuition fees are higher than public schools.

Scholarship and loan programs offset a large number of hardship cases, but funds are insufficient to meet the need.

The program of assistance to private colleges by the North Carolina General Assembly will be of tremendous value in the long run.

Cooperative movements among students and alumni can operate to reduce costs of operation, recruitment, and esprit de corps on our campuses.

Methodist people must send their Methodist young people to our Methodist colleges in larger numbers than at present.

The continued operation of colleges that enroll mostly black students can be justified on the basis of the needs of these people in the sociological and ethnic challenges that are unique to them.

The problems of deferred maintenance and capital expenditures are a part of long-range needs. The reduction of capital indebtedness is encouraging but still remains critical in some cases.

The development of community colleges and technical institutes has encouraged the church-related schools to take a close look at their policies of enrollment and transfer.

Each church-related college must be able to state its unique contribution to the religious and educational processes which justify the existance of that institution as a seperate entity. "We need to be more unashamedly Christian."

A concerted effort to reduce the attrition of students already enrolled in church colleges could help to maintain enrollment as well as a higher goal to educate students who would lose their opportunity for higher education.

From the Divinity School comes the report that there is a renewed interest in the parish ministry and a concern to bolster the work of the practical fields. Ministerial education funds came at a time when many divinity schools were in financial difficulty. This fund has been a real blessing to ministerial education both in divinity schools and other training enterprises.

Campus ministries on non–Methodist campuses are working under the limitations of a strict budget. Some new ministries are needed and it becomes more apparent that all new ministries must be ecumenical enterprises.

Communications with the presidents and officials on college campuses point out the obvious needs and the spirit of cooperation. We must strengthen the ties that make the work of the college and the church a true partnership in mission. Our human resources are now needed to solve problems that are described as financial and spiritual—we must have people!

A Study:

THE FUTURE OF NORTH CAROLINA METHODIST COLLEGES*

Bishop Cannon, Rev. Winberry, members of the Annual Conference, fellow Methodis appreciate very much the opportunity to address the Annual Conference on the subject " Future of North Carolina Methodist Colleges." Please know that what I am about to say co with the general endorsement of your Commission on Christian Higher Education and Campus Ministry and the Conference Board of Education, the specific endorsement majority of the membership of these two groups, and further, to use John Gardner's phr from "a critical lover."

By definition when this conference considers the future of North Carolina Metho colleges, it includes not only those related in the most direct way—Louisburg, North Caro Wesleyan and Methodist—but also some aspects concerning those related historica Greensboro and High Point. Add to these involvements, an emerging though financially s relationship with Bennett and the historic interest in Duke, now expressed primarily thro limited sustaining support of the Divinity School.

The 1970 Annual Conference asked that a study be made of the relationship of Conference to the colleges supported in part by this Conference. An interim report was sented to the 1971 Annual Conference which indicated that there were too many quest which could not be answered immediately and recommended that the study period be tended.

At that time (in June 1971) there were far-reaching proposals concerning the financin higher education both at the state and federal level which, if funded to any degree, w influence the current and future status of our Methodist related colleges.

In addition the three Conference colleges—Louisburg, North Carolina Wesleyan, Methodist—were all in fund-raising campaigns as well as in the middle of accelerated recrui campaigns for new students.

Then, too, the Conference would in the months immediately following the 1971 An Conference session discuss and act on key issues which have an enormous long-range im upon the total financial structure of the Conference.

Further it was the opinion of a number of the members of the Commission that to b the Conference to any decision regarding the future relationship of the Conference an colleges, no matter how necessary the ultimate resolve, would be premature until the follo questions could be answered:

(1) What continuing financial support is needed by the colleges?
(2) What is the role of the Conference college in support of the program of the local church and of the Conference?
(3) What action will Federal and State governments take in support of private higher education?
(4) What position will the Council on the Church-Related Colleges, a task force created by the Division of Higher Education of the General Board of Education of the United Methodist Church, take regarding "whether" and "why" viz a viz the total involvement of the United Methodist Church in higher education?

*Cameron West, Chairman, Commission on Christian Higher Education and Cam Ministry of the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church, June 7, 1972.

Since last June the national task force of the church has published a number of papers, e contradictory to others. National and jurisdictional meetings have been held to discuss ings and alternate positions. In general the answer has been that the church cannot rd to get out of higher education even though many are not convinced that the church afford to stay in. The papers published so far suggest that the church college in current s is having an increasingly difficult job of defining a way in which it can be appreicated ciently enough to attract students and serve the church in traditional ways. In the final on of the national study groups, under the general leadership of Dr. Myron Wicke of the ville office, a strong call has come for maintenance and increased support of Methodist ges as being vital to the church. Such a call to be effective must be given strong witness e conference level and in the majority of our local churches.

With regard to federal and state support, the congressional session is still in process, but becoming apparent that large scale assistance from Washington is not to be forthcoming year. While we might expect some increased type of federal intervention over that of past year, such support, unless fully funded, is not likely to change significantly present ditions and thus current problems, either for private institutions or for students at- ing private colleges and universities.

The North Carolina General Assembly did increase its loan program for students and pass landmark legislation regarding the State and its relationship with private colleges. slation authorizing contracts to provide financial aid to needy North Carolina students ading the 41 private colleges was funded for over $1 million. The money will be paid to ate colleges and universities on the basis of additional North Carolinians beyond a base ollment in 1970 (up to $450 per student) and a smaller amount (approximately $25 per ent) for each North Carolina student enrolled up to the base figure. Though this amount not "save" any college, it is a clear expression of appreciation of the contribution of the ate college to the State and further recognition that this contribution be continued and nded if possible.

The legislation establishing the Board of Governors and a redefined University of North lina charges the Board with assessing the needs and problems of private higher ation so that recommendations can be made to the end that the contribution of private ges may be continued.

Given, however, the large number of requests from all state agencies to be made to the General Assembly, only the most optimistic see much increase in this program for the -75 biennium.

Representatives of your Commission have met with Bishop Cannon, with Dr. C. P. is, and with the presidents of the Methodist colleges on several occasions this past year. chairman visited each campus located in the Conference in November to discuss at hand with the president and members of his administration and faculty the questions e us and to evaluate the status of the physical facilities.

Following a meeting in late October, Presidents Robbins, Collins, and Weaver outlined a osed church-college relationship statement which sought to answer the two questions: What do our colleges expect and need from the Conference? and (2) what do our ches expect and need from our colleges? The statement as drafted added a third section ning how this partnership should be achieved.

In all of our meetings and conversations the college presidents were divided upon the for an indepth study or updating of the so-called "Decker Report." They were agreed instead a report of assets was needed. They said that most of the problems came from basic one–lack of students in general and Methodist students specifically. A concensus ually emerged from these discussions that what was needed was not a study but instead itive plan and procedure.

From the discussions with presidents of the three colleges and from many others, sters and laymen alike, it also became clear to your Commission that the overall onship between campus and local pastor is not a close one and is not designed nor at present to channel students at an appropriate and necessary rate into our Methodist ges. We note with little exception since 1968 the continuing decrease in student lment in Methodist colleges. If we were to examine the number of Methodists and er the number from this Conference we would see that the aspirations of the late 50's have been less than realized. This is true even though since 1955 the total enrollment in North Carolina public and private institutions has tripled from less than 50,000 of which (48% private) to nearly 150,000 (33% private). While the enrollment in private colleges has doubled during this time, the public sector has quadrupled. Furthermore, last year when the private colleges increased their enrollment 4%, all but one of the United Methodist colleges in North Carolina reported lower student totals.

Representatives of conference related institutions of higher education presented oral reports at the Commission meeting this past February 22, 1972.

The following highlights are summarized from these reports:

1. Financial difficulties among the colleges are directly related to insufficient enrollment.
2. One factor causing the enrollment problem is that tuition fees are higher than those of public instituitions.
3. Scholarship and loan programs offset a large number of hardship cases, but available scholarship and loan funds are insufficient to meet the need.
4. The program of assistance to private colleges by the N. C. General Assembly will be of value in the long run, but to be effective, it must be increased significantly.
5. Methodists must send their young people to our Methodist colleges in larger numbers than at present.
6. The problems of deferred maintenance and capital expenditures are a part of long-range needs. The reduction of capital indebtedness is encouraging but still remains critical.
7. Each church-related college must be able to state its unique contribution to the religious and educational processes which justify the existence of that institution as a separate entity.
8. A concerted effort to reduce the attrition of students already enrolled in church colleges could help to maintain enrollment as well as serving a higher goal of educating students who otherwise would lose their opportunity for higher education.
9. Communications with the presidents and officials on college campuses point out the obvious financial needs and the spirit of cooperation. We must strengthen the ties that make the work of the college and the church a true partnership in mission. Our human resources are now needed to solve problems that are discribed as financial and spiritual – we must have people!

These candid statements reflect an increasing willingness of the college administrators to face the problems and solutions as more than just "money."

In the meetings of the Commission over the past four years, in discussion with those responsible for the nurture of our institutions of higher education, in talking with laymen and ministers who are concerned about the role of higher education in the future of our church, even though at the same time there are those asking "how can we get out of a vast commitment to higher education?", there seems to be a stronger voice saying that we must save our colleges and utilize them for the future of our church far more effectively than has been true in the immediate past several years. There is a constant reiteration that the Conference needs much more service from the institutions than is now being recieved.

It is true that there are many deficiencies some of which I have listed. In addition to the more widely known fiscal problems, there are serious problems of deferred maintenance on our physical facilities and unless more adequate support is forthcoming there will be serious academic deficits. I mention the latter to call attention that we cannot afford to sponsor colleges where the support for programs and personnel are not competitive with comparable institutions in the public sector.

Quite simply our colleges must:

(1) be academically competive so that the graduates may find success in further study and vocational pursuit,
(2) give and emphasize attention to the individual, and
(3) provide an environment that is unashamedly Christian, however we might define such an atmosphere.

These three principles are expensive but providing less for agencies of the United thodist church will cost more in both short range and most especially in the long run.

My allotted time this morning is limited and though I could easily and would gladly ıd here all day and into the night to discuss the issue with you, let me hasten on.

Before moving to specific recommendations to the Conference for the next drenium, there are three additional comments.

First, from Duke Divinity School comes the report that there is a renewed interest in parish ministry and a concern to bolster the work of the practical fields. Ministerial cation funds came at a time when many divinity schools were in financial difficulty. This d has been a real blessing to ministerial education both in divinity schools and other ning enterprises. It is essential that the fund or its equivalent be continued and enlarged.

Secondly, campus ministries on non-Methodist campuses are working under the itations of a strict budget. It becomes more apparent that new ministries must be eloped if we are to meet the challenge on the public campuses.

Thirdly, there is sincere division over the future of the historic black college, such as nett. Many feel that these institutions which have provided practically the only ortunity in the past for developing black leadership for the church should be continued supported at a greater level. This is the basic position of the church itself as well as the ıncil of Presidents of twelve Negro colleges related to the United Methodist church. ers feel that this question of the role of black colleges should be kept open for cussion. The question cannot be ignored nor can we discount the need to develop a more ıpatible society in what will be an increasingly integrated community. Full discussion of best way to utilize Bennett College and other colleges connected with our church must continued throughout the next four years.

This is my third opportunity to report to an Annual Conference this quadrenium. ing these four years, your Commission on Christian Higher Education and the Campus istry has tried to face the college issue as your representatives.

In the delightful and instructive story, Alice in Wonderland, Alice asks the Cheshire Cat, ıch way shall I go?" And the cat replies, "where are you trying to get to?"

Alice then says, "It really doesn't matter." To which the Cheshire Cat replies, "Well, in case, it really doesn't matter which way you go."

Dear Friends, your Commission and your Board of Education and many, many others, uding your chairman, think that it is important which way we go. We would point out her as the Cheshire Cat did, that if the answer is only to get to some undefined goal, you sure to do that if you keep going long enough.

We have come to the distinct conclusion that these colleges represent a marvelous ortunity for the extension of our church and the Christian heritage. Frankly, so long as view our Methodist colleges as "problems" frustration will continue.

It seems to us that the Conference for good reason decided in the mid 1950's to take an eased role in educating talented young people in a Christian setting and under the ısorship of Christian principles. If the decision were not proper in any way, perhaps it only to the extreme degree of ambition at that time and a vagueness of priority since. have three institutions, each different from the other and in large measure serving rate constituencies. The potential is there to give great service necessary for the viability he church. We simply are not using these colleges nor are the colleges offering full ortunities to the Conference. There is here a "circle of deficiency" which must be en by the two-fold process of getting more Methodist young people into the colleges developing a more direct relationship between the college campus and the local church. e do this, the North Carolina Conference will be a leader--not in higher education but er for the greater glory of God and our Savior. And that, friends, is why we are here.

Specifically we must develop such a close relationship between these colleges and each church that service to humanity is brought to its greatest peak of implementation. e is nothing more idealistic nor more practical than this goal. It is a realistic aspiration. tively modest expenditures are necessary but the rewards are everlasting. This erence is in desperate need of leadership training opportunities in ways in which we are only paying lip service. The colleges need nurture and love from the local church which for the most part is missing.

What are some practical ways by which we can break the circle of non-serv non-appreciation, and non-attendance?

(1) Immediate steps must be taken by Conference officials and representatives of e college located in the N. C. Conference boundaries to develop ways, means, and program increase, many fold, its service to the Conference and to the local church. The relation must be so demanding, so enthusiastic, and so influential that the tangible bonds bec those of the committed spirit rather than tokenism. Support in the form of students resource will inevitably follow.

(2) Each campus should employ for a three-year period, beginning this fall, a vib alumnus to visit in the conference area each church, each pastor, and as many of Methodist homes as possible to explain the opportunities available at Louisburg, at N Wesleyan, and at Methodist in Fayetteville.

(3) We must raise our sustaining support to higher levels. My personal recommenda is that this figure go to at least $250,000 annually each for Wesleyan and Methodist $175,000 for Louisburg and designate these additional funds to support scholarship loan opportunities and to reduce tuition for Methodist students from this Confere Consideration should be given to lower tuition charges for Conference members additional scholarship and loan funds should be established in each church for its yo people attending Conference colleges.

(4) Each college should be encouraged to engage in individual fund-raising camp for both current operational support and also to reduce indebtness.

(5) No new buildings should be undertaken without adequate financing cle discernible. (There are building needs but these should not be undertaken without f largely in sight.) Additional self-liquidating projects will add to financial problems, prevent them.

(6) An evaluation must be made of the historic relationship of the Conference Greensboro and High Point. The Commission has recommended this evaluation to you i Annual Report.

There are other practical ideas which would evolve from those listed above.

We are at a cross roads or a fork or a U turn; either way, a decision point. De we re from higher education or does this Conference continue to consider a view of hi education which believes that it is important to our faith and its institutional life.

> ... The campus, acknowledged battleground for ideas and the place for gaining allegiance of leaders, is more than a place of casual interest for the church. It is here that the climate and mood of the future must be ascertained and the leaders discovered and confirmed if the faith would continue to speak and serve relevantly. It is here that the faith must meet, cope with and master the alien forces or ideas that threaten. The campus, in one sense, becomes the central point of engagement in the ever-existent battle for the world. . . .*

Are our Methodist colleges to be considered "problems" or are they instead to be ut as "opportunities?"

We have about three or four years at the most to discover the answer, some say less. recommendations above and others which may follow are not successful, there are those who feel that realistic alternatives by 1975 or 1976 may be to "free" individual institutic seek other support and sponsorship or to close.

Our church cannot afford to sponsor less than first quality programs within a mission. Unless we intensify and expand the relationship between Conference, local church college, we should face squarely the realities of the current situation.

We recommend this accelerated activity. If the effort is not forthcoming, if the spir will are both too weak, three to four years should unmask it. If, on the other hand, the Carolina Conference is to fulfill its mission of service, outreach, and revival, no activity a spiritual commitment in support of conference colleges will be in vain.

Regional Commission on Christian Higher Education and Campus Ministry Report for 1971-1972

n a time of unpredictable change it is gratifying to report that the campuses of our state esponding with unusual warmth to the ministries being led by our Methodist Campus ters. In the often-reported opinons of these excellent men and women, we are experienc- time of great opportunity with a generation of open and inquiring students.

During the year, our two cooperating Conferences supported work at A and T University, sboro; Appalachian State University, Boone; Duke University, Durham; The Wesley Foun- n at Greenville; North Carolina Central University, Durham (ecumenically supported); The y Foundation at Raleigh (two campus ministers); The University of North Carolina at el Hill (one minister, one associate); The University of North Carolina at Charlotte menically supported); The University of North Carolina at Greensboro; Pembroke State risty (part-time); Western Carolina University; The Wesley Foundation at Winston-Salem. Personnel changes this year saw Miss Cathy Carlson installed as campus minister at Duke; Sheryl Scrimsher as associate at Wesley Foundation, Raleigh; and Hugh Stohler as associate C-Chapel Hill.

The Commission is in the process of examining the other state-supported colleges and rsities to explore the opportunity for new programs. The University of North Carolina at ngton is expected to request support of an ecumenical work on that campus.

The work of the Commission has been carried on primarily through the intensive work of ommittees on Personnel, Program, Finance, Facilities, and Church-Related Colleges/In- ons. The Commission chairman continues to act as State Director. Guidelines for the ved operation of each of the committees have been drawn up and adopted.

Continuing the process of seeking a better expression of The United Methodist Church's itment to an ecumencial approach to campus ministry (par. 1037, 1968 Discipline), the nal Commission has helped to form a Commission on Campus Ministry consisting of dist, Episcopal, and Presbyterian (U.S.) representatives. The initial plans of the group are: confer on a regular basis; (2) to confer when an opening comes in the ministries rted by any one of the three denominations; (3) to work toward securing a Field Director overall supervision to the work of these denominations on campus ministry.

The Bishop's Conference on Higher Education (set for June 29-30, 1972) promises to be of benefit to our entire field of higher education and campus ministry. This long-projected ng will bring together a broad representation of the education agencies of the two rences; the Regional Commission; college and university administration, students, and s; and other persons who can contribute to the strength of the United Methodist ry through higher education. The theme of the conference is "The College-Related n."

rateful always for the long and faithful support of the two Conferences, the Commission ould remind our constituencies that inflation makes new demands upon our tight budget urther, that new fields of service cannot be entered into (nor a statewide ecumenical or be employed) until additional monies are made available to the Regional Commission. he ministry under our care is highly strategic and merits the prayers, the interest, and the rt of all Methodists.

he campus ministers currently serving under the programs supported by the two United dist Conferences in North Carolina are: Sheryl Scrimsher and Neal McGlamery – The Foundation at Raleigh; Robert L. Johnson and Hugh Dale Stohler (Program ate) – UNC-Chapel Hill; Mark S. Rose – The Wesley Foundation at Winston-Salem; C. Weekley – Western Carolina University;Henry A. Bizzell, Jr. – Pembroke State sity; Manuel Wortman – Applachian State University; Dave Frye – UNC-Charlotte; Doug – UNC-Greensboro; Dan Earnhardt – The Wesley Foundation at Greenville; Cathy n – Duke University; William T. Brown – A and T State University.

THE COMMISSION ON ENLISTMENT FOR CHURCH OCCUPATIONS

The Commission on Enlistment for Church Occupations is charged with the responsibi for promoting among youth and adults a philosophy for Christian vocations that recognizes potential sacredness of all useful work and all opportunities for Christian service. It is furt called on by the church to present to youth and adults the opportunities for the past ministry, to inform them of the necessary steps of preparation and to keep accurate, and us records of each person having indicated an interest in a church occupation. With the abov mind, the Commission on Enlistment for Church Occupations has done the following:

1. Guidance and Testing Clinic was held at Wesleyan College, Rocky Mount, N. C. Th clinic was conducted for high school sophomores, juniors, and seniors on Octol 22-23, 1971, February 11-12, 1972, and March 24-25, 1972.
2. A central filing system is being kept on persons interested in the pastoral ministry a other church employment. This file is kept in the Program Council Director's off and is updated each year.
3. In an effort to promote Ministry Sunday a joint letter from the Commission Enlistment for Church Occupations and the Board of the Ministry was mailed to eve pastor in the North Carolina Conference.
4. A special luncheon was held at Duke Universtiy in Old Trinity Room on Monday, Ju 5, by this Commission and the Board of the Ministry for candidates coming into f connection at the 1972 Annual Conference.
5. Lay Scholarship offerings were received at all Lay Rallies and a number of scholarsh were presented to deserving students.
6. A one-day meeting on the pastoral ministry was held at Edenton Street Uni Methodist Church on Saturday, April 8. Both the Commission and Conferer Committee on Youth Work shared in the planning of this meeting.
7. Voluntary Intern Programs were encouraged by the Commission to be held a number of churches. This program seeks to develop talent to work in local chu situations as youth workers, church musicians, children's workers and other chu involved programs.
8. This Commission Chairman, as a member of the Interboard Committee on Chu Occupations for the national church, attended the Annual Board Meeting in Dayt Ohio, on October 14 and 15. At this meeting he was appointed to share in the draft of important legislation to be sent to the General Conference pertaining to the r organizational structure which would affect the Interboard Committee on Enlistm for Church Occupations.

THE BOARD OF EVANGELISM, INCORPORATED

The late Bishop Ralph Cushman wrote "More of us need a certainty about Christ. Cert is that Evangelism – essential Evangelism – must be sure that this Christ whom Paul pictu 'Lord' must be exalted as the supreme object of the soul's allegiance . . .to the Apostle Christianity meant Christ the Lord. The Sermon on the Mount did indeed offer the nc ethical standards that earth had ever known. But the heart of that sermon was the Chris preached it. Paul was sure of his gospel only because he was sure of his Lord."

As we end this quadrennium of service to our Lord through this Board – a service th been constant and exemplary by all members of the Board – we recognize that this has b time of tremendous change within the structure of the Church and our Conference. change is yet to come. Yet, we rejoice in the privilege we have had to serve.

We now join the recently adjourned General Conference in a common concern that needs to be more genuine and knowledgable confrontation on a person-to-person extending the love of Jesus Christ, His grace, and the opportunity to serve through His Ch To fail to put Evangelism first is to put the cart before the horse. It is an awesome tra ıse it lulls us into thinking that we can assume the task of Evangelism is done and we can scatter from the church after Divine Worship to share what we do not have. To those who out Evangelism as being the code word for generalized, sugary piousness of another ration, we are brought up short by the startling fact that our membership is generally ning. While we have been "busy here and there about many things" the essential spirit of Christ may well be leaving the church we love. Dean Kelley, an official of the National cil of Churches, reveals the hard truth backed by honest statistics. In his recent book, Why ervative Churches Are Growing, Kelley does not find that people are attempting to escape sterday, avoid social concerns, seek self-determinism and isolation, or evade connectional nsibility. He discovers that people want to be sure about Jesus and they want a whole el and a whole church and whole life-not just a structure and a busy organizational chart. r Board commends The Reverend Ernest R. Porter for his help in co-ordinating our annual am during the past year.

Many churches have followed the suggestions of the annual program and have taught the e in "An Adventure in the Meaning of United Methodist Membership" and followed it efforts to reactivate inactive members through their rededication to Christ's Church. We e God for the faithfulness of hard working pastors and faithful laymen.

of the District Secretaries of Evangelism have worked hard with the pastors in their cts, with a least six districts having special retreats to emphasize our current goals.

tendance at Executive Committee Meetings and the Full Board and its programs has been ally good with an excellent spirit and open discussion of mission, purpose, and priority.

particularly commend our Conference Secretary of Evangelism, The Reverend R. L. , and The Reverend H. M. McLamb for their dedicated work in a pilot Key '73 – type ct in arranging and conducting Southern Baptists-Methodists "Regional Evangelism erences for Men" which were held in Fayetteville, Durham, and Rocky Mount on October 9, and 21, 1971.

ur members of the Board attended the Candler Camp Meeting and Workshops on gelism at Lake Junaluska last summer, June 15-21, 1971.

e summer beach ministries continued to grow and become even more successful. Both the tent at Kitty Hawk and the Bogue Banks ministry have reached more than 150,000 in varied projects and programs.

e Board was represented at the General Board of Evangelism Meeting in San Francisco in ry of 1972 by The Reverend E. R. Porter. The entire Board feels honored that our new liaison with the Conference Program Council was elected as the Southeastern Jurisdiction entative to the Fellowship of Program Council Staff Workers in Evangelism. He was also d as the representative from the Southeastern Jurisdiction to serve on the nominating ittee of The National Council on Evangelism.

March we had an historic Consultation on Evangelism at The Divinity School of Duke rsity on the 14th and 15th. Praticipating were leaders in Evangelism from the Western Carolina Conference, The North Carolina Conference, The General Board of Evangelism he Divinity School Faculty. The program was conceived by Dr. Thor Hall of the Divinity l and Dr. Chester Custer of The General Board. Position papers were presented and ent dialogue was found to be an asset in our planning for the future.

pastors, one-day Evangelism workshops on Rethinking Evangelism and Models of elism in the local Church were held at St. James Church in Greenville and Haymount h in Fayetteville May 3 and 4, 1972. Resource leaders included Dr. Custer and The end Mr. Porter.

Board President offered his services as consultant and preacher as his time permitted and ver he was invited. He was involved in activities in four districts and at all Program il functions.

ing the year the Conference Secretary of Evangelism along with District Secretaries and xecutive Committee of the Board have been working toward programing for "Key '73," iority item for implementation assigned by the Program Council. The fruits of their labors hibited in the recommendations approved by the Program Council for 1972-73.

Board continued to confirm its affiliation with and support of the Commission on ip by co-sponsoring the Bishop's Meetings with Young Methodists.

During our Meeting of the Full Board on March 9, 1972, we commended the Church to t stewardship of total commitment through local church participation in Key '73 and submitt a proposed program for 1972-73 to the Program Council. In other action, The Revere Tommy Tyson was recommended to be continued as an "Approved Evangelist" and T Reverend J. H. Kinkle was recommended to the Bishop and the Cabinet for that relationsh beginning in June, 1972.

While statistical results alone do not show all that is happening within the Church, we a encouraged about the future, there is a small increase in membership. We do believe that or when we can relate to our fellow man – Christian and non-Christian – and tell him how Chr has changed our lives and given to them eternal meaning, in such a way that is meaningful our neighbor, can we say that we have done our task. John Wesley said, "I gave them Chris What greater gift can any Christian give than this gift – an inseparable and imperisha relationship between the disciple and the Lord Jesus Christ! So Paul cries, "Who shall separ us from the love of Christ? . . .For I am persuaded that neither death nor life . . .nor thi present nor things to come . . .Shall be able to spearate us from the love of God which is Christ Jesus, Our Lord." Amen.

TRUSTEES OF THE METHODIST HOME FOR CHILDREN, INC.

PART I – REVIEW OF THE YEAR

The conference year 1971-1972 has been a time for continued planning for the future an time of action. There have been no radical changes; rather, the progress has been steady.

In September 1971, the Board developed a campus development plan. This plan include map of the campus and the decisions made by the Board in previous sessions for adding additional cottage to our campus and replacing one of the existing cottages. This plan will gu in the future development of recreation activity areas and the beautification of the vari segments of our campus.

The architectural and engineering firm of Adams and Pegram was selected to draw the pl for the proposed cottages and for the remodeling of the Vann Administration Building. firm is in the process of preparing plans now, but final decisions have not been made.

Revised Personnel Policies were adopted to take effect October 1, 1971. Included revision in the salary schedules and a revised Pension Plan for our retired employees. We exp these policies to help in the effort to recruit better qualified staff and to hold them.

The development of the center of our campus for the use of the children as their recreat and activity area has continued. Drainpipes were laid to take care of the surface water concrete playing court was laid, surrounded by a fence, to be used for basketball, ten volleyball and other court games that could be played out of doors. It is intended concentrate all of the outdoor recreation activities in this area in the future.

The Groveland House in the Cameron Park area, which had been purchased last year, was into use in August 1971. The purpose of this facility is to provide a better opportunity older youth, approaching the time when they will be leaving the Methodist Home, tc prepared for the acceptance of full responsibility for themselves. By separating these stud from the campus, we are able to carry on a different program than would be possible on campus. In the Groveland House, the students are much more involved in the decis concerning their own personal lives and conduct; and in making all the decisions involve operating the house. They have much more responsibility for budgeting their own expe During the year, much time and thought goes into planning for what comes after gradua The Seniors graduated June 2, 1972. As we evaluate this first year's experience, we are sure this has been a helpful experience for these students. We believe that it will be even r helpful for the next group of students because we have learned many lessons through experience.

his year, our children in public school have had their usual share of the problems, and, in tion, they have had the problems that have arisen from having been assigned to different ols than the neighborhood schools they formerly attended. As a result of the new school nments, most of our children have been transported to and from school in city school s. It has been necessary to use our own bus part of the time. Most students have taken the ged situation in their stride, but some of them have had difficulty in making the necessary justments.

group of people from a rapidly developing area in North Raleigh became interested in nizing the North Raleigh United Methodist Church. Since there was no meeting place lable in their geographic area, arrangements were made for them to use the Monk Memorial pel on our campus temporarily for their beginning new church. We are glad that we could r our facilities for this purpose. The new church is anticipating that their building will be y to occupy in the fall, and they will be able to move to their own quarters.

fire occured in the gymnasium on July 21, 1971, as a result of defective wiring. Damage in the neighborhood of $22,000 and was covered by insurance. In the course of repairing damage we elected also to make some necessary improvements to the building. The result is the gym is much more adequate for our use now than before the fire. It is a constant er of activity on our campus.

very year, at Easter, the Alumni of the Methodist Home for Children have their reunion. At meeting at Easter 1972, the Alumni made a gift of $1,000 to the Home to be added to previous gifts which are being held in reserve for the Alumni project. Plans are to build a picnic shelter in the new recreation area to take the place of the picnic shelter, presently in nd in great need of repair, which had been orginally the gift of the Alumni.

uring the year we have had an unusual turnover in our staff. Two members of our staff have removed by retirement. Several others have resigned and taken other jobs. The result has an unusually large number of necessary replacements. Because of the age of our present , there will be very few retirements in the next ten years.

PART II – PLANS FOR THE FUTURE

he Five-Year Plan of Action 1971-1975, which was adopted by the Board of Trustees in l 1971 and which was reported to the Annual Conference in our report last year, will be guide for the next four years. The necessary enabling decision has already been made by the d of Trustees for the construction of one cottage to replace Borden cottage, which is very equate for use, as a residence for children. As soon as plans for the cottage can be pleted, a contract will be let. Plans are also in the making for providing adequate office e for our staff, but final commitments have not been made. A decision has been reached to riment with a change in concept of providing health care to the students on campus. For period of one year, students who are not well enough to go to school, but not sick enough quire hospitalization, will be cared for in their cottages rather than in the Infirmary. The ose is to find a way to put into practice the recommendation of Dr. Keith-Lucas that y sick children be cared for by their own house-parents during this time when a child has uch emotional need. This will eliminate the overnight use of the Infirmary in the cases of illness. The Infirmary will be used as an outpatient clinic. Our Health Staff will continue ok after all the health needs of the children, including their appointments with the doctors. he basis of this experiment, future decisions will be made about the Health Care program. such time as a suitable house can be secured, a second off-campus home will be purchased at additional high school students may have the same opportunity presently provided by roveland House.

REPORT NO. 2
THE METHODIST RETIREMENT HOMES, INC.

On September 1, 1955, The Methodist Retirement Home in Durham opened its doors to thirteen charter members with a capacity of forty. Today a 50 bed Health Center, forty-apartments and added domiciliary facilities give The Home a capacity of 200. The Home has served over 400 retired persons.

Beginning with thirty acres of land donated by the Methodists of Durham and a $100,000 memorial donation in 1954, The Home has grown to a capital investment in excess of $2,000,000 without a capital funds drive by the Annual Conference. Also the total appropriations of the Annual Conference over the years is less than the cost of the benevolent work done in the name of The Church by The Home.

In a study to determine the best way to meet the needs of an ever-increasing number of the retired members of our Conference, the Board of Trustees of The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc., sought the answer to four questions:

IS THERE A NEED FOR ADDITIONAL FACILITIES?

The Home in Durham is now filled to its capacity of 200 with the number of applications increasing rapidly. The number of people sixty five years of age in our population and in our church membership will double within the next fifteen years. This means that to serve the same proportionate number of people the facilities will have to be doubled. Seventy-five percent (75%) of the serious inquiries and applications for admission to The Home are from within a radius of fifty miles of Durham. Two-thirds of the Members are from the Burlington, Durham and Raleigh Districts. This does not mean that the retired members of the other nine Districts do not need or want the services offered by The Home but points out that older people want to remain close to "home" and "family." The facilities will have to be doubled to meet the present needs of the members in the other nine Districts.

Older people try to maintain themselves in their own community as long as possible, but as they live longer, a larger percent are eventually dependent on others for help. It is becoming impossible to hire or to pay for someone to go into a private home to help an older person. Therefore more people are expecting the church to provide a Home in which they may spend their remaining years. A Church Home provides a plus which cannot be obtained in other places.

WHAT KIND OF SERVICES ARE NEEDED?

If our church is truly to meet the needs of its retired people it must make provision to care for more retired "well" persons at homes strategically located within the Conference. These must include facilities for domiciliary care, apartments and cottages along with nursing facilities to care for these when individuals become sick.

Seventy-five percent of the applications for admission to The Home in Durham are from those who are no longer potential "retirement home members" but are already nursing cases because of chronic or critical illnesses. If the large group of chronically ill (long-term care patients) and nursing cases are to be cared for, facilities must be provided to serve these.

Many other Conferences of The United Methodist Church are now building facilities to care for the chronically and critically ill, in addition to their retirement homes now in operation. This is because they are finding a rapid increase in the demand for this service to those who are too sick to be admitted to a retirement home. Can our Conference turn its back on the needs of its retired members?

WHERE IS THE GREATEST NEED?

A North Carolina Medical Care Commission Survey shows that the greatest needs for additional nursing care facilities are in the eastern part of the Conference.

The Home in Durham is not meeting the needs of the Church's members in nine of the twelve Districts.

HOW CAN THE NEED BE MET?

The Board of Trustees feels that with the land and availability of Medical Services in Durham, a Health Care Center or Nursing Facility should be constructed in Durham when funds are available. They also feel that cottages and more apartments should be provided as needed, for these are self supporting.

A Nursing Care Facility should not be built for less than 100 to 150 beds, for economical operation and because there must be at least three levels of care in a nursing home, that is, skilled nursing care, for short-term patients and the critically ill, care for the long-term chronically ill, and care for those who need close supervision.

Studies show that costs of construction of a new nursing home facility of the qualtiy of buildings we have in Durham will run approximately $30. per square foot, or $12,000 to $15,000 per bed.

Nursing home costs of operation in the Charlotte to Raleigh piedmont section of North Carolina are running from $18 to $25 per day while costs in the eastern part of the State are running somewhat less per day.

The Board of Trustees of The Home, however, is convinced in the light of information available, THAT THE NEXT CONSTRUCTION SHOULD BE ANOTHER HOME STRATEGICALLY LOCATED WITHIN THE CONFERENCE.

The Annual Conference meeting in June approved the request of The Methodist Retirement Homes, Inc. for permission to begin construction of another Home strategically located further east in the Conference as soon as land can be secured and financial arrangements made. The first unit will include facilities for Skilled Nursing Care to serve The Home's Members when they need its services as well as to accept nursing cases. Additional domiciliary facilities, apartments and cottages will be added as the need arises and these can be financed. The estimated cost for the first unit of 100 to 125 beds with sufficient land for future expansion is $1,500,000.

The new home should be near a strongly concerned Methodist constituency. The Home derives a large portion of its religious and social programs from the concerned Methodists in the community, for they represent The United Methodist Church to the members of The Home.

There must be available adequate utilities including transportation, skilled and unskilled labor. These are the practical resources from which The Home constructs its program of services to its members.

Adequate medical services must be available, and a hospital, a church, and shopping facilities must be located within a reasonable distance of The Home.

Individuals, families, and groups in the local area should contribute a significant portion of the estimated cost for this demonstrates the readiness of the community to give the new home the kind of support that it must have.

The Annual Conference will not be asked to conduct a capital funds campaign. With the increased resources available to older people through present and proposed governmental social service and health programs, the cost of benevolent work to the Conference should not materially increase, but will allow the Church to increase the number of people served through the benevolent program of The Home.

A new Home offers an excellent opportunity for a living memorial for some individual or family, for The Home will grow and serve for generations. A person or persons making appropriate contributions to The Home may designate the Home or a portion of the Home as a memorial.

THE BOARD OF THE LAITY

Chairman: Grier L. Garrick Secretary: Robert J. Marley

Report No. 1

The Conference Board of the Laity met twice at regularly scheduled meetings during the year, plus two special meetings at Annual Conference and at the Methodist Men's Retreat. Attendance, as usual, was good at both our Fall and Spring meetings. During the early part of our Conference year organizational meetings were held in each District with the District Boards of the Laity and representatives from the Program Council to discuss program plans for 1971-72.

On August 21-22, we held our Methodist Men's Retreat at Methodist College with 150 Laymen in attendance. The program was conducted by Charles Kellogg and Dwight Newberg from our General Board of the Laity and Harvey Mitchell, our Conference Director of United Methodist Men. The vast majority of the Laymen attending the Retreat expressed a desire that our Retreats be kept Spiritual in nature. The 1971 Retreat fulfilled this wish for most of the ticipants. It is our desire to continue to program these retreats so as to provide opportunities Spiritual Enrichment and Christian growth.

As in previous years, the Board of the Laity has encouraged each local church to observe /man's Day on October 8., or on some other Sunday that might be more convenient for the ticular congregation.

October was also designated as Stewardship month and each District Board of the Laity was ed to encourage participation of congregations within their Districts. We do not feel that this t of our program met with the success we had hoped for and we are therefore putting ewed emphasis on January as Stewardship month during the coming year.

Lay Officers training schools were held in most Districts under the sponsorship of the trict Boards. It is planned that these schools will be continued in the future. However we ognize a need to make the sessions more attractive to the Laity to be trained.

n compliance with a request by the Conference Board of the Laity each District Board held Lay Speaker Training course prior to November, 1971. This training session trained roximately 450 Lay Speakers in time for the Lenten 'No Silent Pulpit" program of 1972. various District Boards scheduled approximately 400 speaking dates for Lay Speakers ing the Lenten season. We were especially encouraged by the "new faces" that appeared at completed the Lay Speaker Training Sessions and then volunteered their services for the o Silent Pulpit" program.

Lay Rallies were held in each District during February and a total of nearly 7000 Laity nded these rallies. This year for the first time ladies were in attendance at all of the rallies in at least one District attendance increased nearly 40% because of their presence.

Report No. 2
The Commission on Lay Life and Work

following are our continuing concerns:

Establish settings in each District for conversation between Laity and Clergy in which understanding of the common ministry of witness and service of all Christians is sought.

Involve United Methodist Men through the UMM Retreat designed to inspire and educate our Laymen, interwoven with Christian fellowship.

Assist the Laity in developing their skills for service by improved and trained leadership through seminars and workshops. These sessions would be held on Laymen's Day or some other suitable day and would include training of Pastor-Parish Relations Committee, Administrative Boards, Charge Conferences, Board of Trustees, nominating committees, and those who serve as Lay Leader, Lay Member of Annual Conference and members of Committee on Lay Personnel, and the training of Certified Lay Speakers.

Support the clergy through the Lay Speaker program in supplying Certified Lay Speakers during the Lenten Season and at other times when the clergy needs time away from the local pulpit for retreats, training, and vacations.

Provide assistance in coordinating the most efficient programs in witnessing opportunities for the Laity, through local or district retreats, youth happenings, Lay Witness Missions, and other lay movements.

Report No. 3
The Commission on Stewardship and Finance

Our Conference Commission on Stewardship and Finance is an integral part of the newly ted structure of the United Methodist Church, and its duties are "abbreviated," if not led out, in the title – "STEWARDSHIP AND FINANCE," The scope of its field, just as its ntialities, is limited only by the extent of dedication and determination on the part of its appointed members in carrying out their responsibilities, as consecrated Christian laymen themselves are both exponents and practitioners of STEWARDSHIP in the use and sharing heir time, talents and possessions.

uring the current conference year, the Commission on Stewardship and Finance has vided leadership and instruction in workshops on the subject, at the United Methodist Men reat, and Summer R and R, at Methodist College, in instructional sessions on Lay Speaker training, before Methodist Men organizations, in worship services at local churches, and h offered its services (and sought advice and assistance) through letters to district directors an chairmen of Stewardship and Finance and Stewardship Education. Much of the successfi accomplishment in this field is credited to our dedicated Conference Business Manager an Treasurer for his beyond-the-call service, across our conference, in speaking before groups an lending inspiration and guidance on the subject. Our abiding gratitude is extended to Charl McAdams, and to Walter Anderson and others for their dedicated and unselfish service.

While the Commission Chairman is in nowise content with achievements during the currer year, it is well to point out that at least several hundred leaders among the laity in Nort Carolina Methodism have been "exposed" to instruction and up-date counsel and advice o the subject and, thereby, some good has been accomplished and progress made.

It is hoped a visitation schedule with district leaders across the Conference, in each distric may be activated and that, through the use and application of recommended education materials, a definite and continuing program may be started, in district and sub-distri meetings with both clergy and laity, to the end that every local church may be represented an inspired to practice and teach stewardship.

It is the fervent hope and prayer of the Commission that its efforts may serve to re-crea within its members, and in the Board of the Laity and the Conference, a renewed sense Christian dedication and responsibility sufficient to continue the program set forth by ou predecessors and that together we shall come to realize more fully our duties and privileges Christian laymen in the awareness that God is the owner of all of life, that each individu human being is the Steward of all that God has entrusted to him, and that each person mu give an accounting of his Stewardship – his time, his talents, and his material possessions.

To activate the necessary programs and to motivate others to help carry the Word, we nee but recall to mind the Scriptural admonition of our Lord and Master when he reminded h followers that "the fields are white unto harvest, but the laborers are few."

THE METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC.

For some it is difficult to realize that the Methodist Foundation will soon complete its enteenth year of operation. Estimated annual income is now in excess of $180,000.00. The id is a balanced one – performing in a very acceptable manner – having withstood some her serious market pressure from time to time.

Through the years there have been many individuals who have contributed to this unique and cessful means of handling Conference reserves. The names of Hood, Brauer, Cowell, thaway, Garber, Jordan, Dozier, Gibson, Hubbard, McAdams and others come to mind when affairs of the Methodist Foundation are discussed. To these gentlemen and others the North olina Conference can look with pride at the stewardship of the funds entrusted to them.

There is every reason to believe that this fund will continue to perform favorably during the ning year. Our continued purpose will be to "earn all we can – save all we can – give away we can."

S. L. Gulledge, Jr., President

DEPARTMENT OF GIFTS AND WILLS

We are convinced that our church moves through the gifts of people who love God and wish nonor Him through their gifts. These gifts come from the abundance that people have who n to extend their Christian lives through their giving.

We have planned more emphasis on giving for Scholarship Funds. We have placed emphasis Ministerial Scholarship Funds because the church demands educated leadership, and young ple who answer the call to be a minister in the United Methodist Church need assistance in ring an education. Eight of our funds set up in the Department of Gifts and Wills have been ized in the past three years. We will see as the years unfold the soundness of our investment his Department of Gifts and Wills.

We have added two funds to our department this Conference year. The first one is known as "Myra Morris Campership Fund" and was established by The Committee on Camping istry of the Conference Board of Education. The second fund is the John C. Brauer Trust d which was established through the will of Dr. Brauer. Dr. Brauer was one of the first nbers of the Department of Gifts and Wills. This is the kind of gift from a consecrated istian leader who will live in the years to come because of his love of God and concern for ers. We have been in consultation concerning other Scholarship Funds. This field is a growing one, in which more people are becoming interested in and are thus, participating in the growth of these funds.

We will have two scholarships from the Pittman-Frizzelle Fund to award this year, and two Ministerial Scholarships for the first time. One of these is from the Cobb-Evans Ministerial Scholarship Fund, and the other is from the Reverend Ralph E. Fowlkes, Jr. Memorial Scholarship Fund. All of our funds have grown this year: we have had additional gifts added to the principal and we have had our best year in our wills. We have been able to assist more people who have sought our help and counsel and were pleased that many of these have placed the church and its institutions in their wills.

We have been fortunate in having Mrs. Gwendolyn Mayes as our secretary to the directors of the Department of Gifts and Wills. She has given to us outstanding service in her contacts and knowledge of people and has supplied information that was needed to make the right approaches for our contact with people. All of us wish to express our love and appreciation for the noble service rendered to each of us.

We are grateful to have had the leadership and talent of Mr. I. Lee Parker, Jr., as chairman of our Department of Gifts and Wills. He is working for his church and its causes. The years will reveal his devotion as our work comes into fruition for the Kingdom of God.

STEWARDSHIP AND TITHING

Stewardship is a spiritual experience. It has its relationship in the beginning with God. We come to our relationship through His gift of life and the sustaining power of life; we have the opportunity to cooperate in this experience of stewardship by our acts of giving as a partnership with Him. We come to share a spiritual responsibility for all of life, and we witness to this spiritual experience by our gifts as well as by our proclamations. There are two beliefs that govern our stewardship. First, is the one I have referred to in our love and responsibilities to our Heavenly Father. The second guiding principle is in the needs of other people. In these two principles many of us are aware of our stewardship. We give out of our love for what God has done for us through Christ and because of compassion for others. The United Methodist Church has asked that we give at least a tithe as an expression of our love for God and our concern for others.

We have mailed the following materials in 1972: January, "Your Guide to Effective Giving 1972;" February, "27 Things the Pastor Can Do to Encourage Bequests;" March, "Stewardship and Effective Giving;" April, "The State Has Made your Will.' We have supplied over 10,000 pieces of material this year for use in the local churches. We have continued to find people who are willing to make gifts and to place our interests in their wills.

The Raleigh District under the leadership of Reverend Kermit L. Braswell, the Director of Stewardship for the Raleigh District, secured the approval of Reverend J. W. Page, District Superintendent, and the Raleigh District Program Council, to conduct sub-district meetings on stewardship. The emphasis was "WHAT COULD HAPPEN IF OUR LOCAL CHURCHES FOLLOWED THROUGH ON THEIR EVERY-MEMBER COMMITMENT." The program on stewardship, as was promoted through the Every-Member Commitment at the Westover United Methodist Church under the direction of the pastor, was explained step by step in the Every-Member Commitment for the budget of the church. These workshops were well attended, and we believe that much good in the form of information and inspiration was made available to those in attendance. I was able to work with Mr. Braswell and Mr. Page in these meetings, and I feel that it was a worthwile project.

PERCENTAGE GIVING AND THE TITHE

This year our church through the Board of the Laity used the month of October as a time of study for special emphasis on Stewardship and Tithing. A further suggestion was made that portunities be given our people in November and December to practice tithing. We have some orts from churches that have worked faithfully towards getting their people to tithe. We lieve that our people may be led to give a percentage of their income, and encouraged from ar to year to raise their giving until they reach the tithe or more. We should be looking at this a long-range program, and at the same time moving forward as rapidly as our people will cept the tithe as a minimum gift.

We are indebted to our Bishop, William R. Cannon, the District Superintendents, District rectors of Stewardship, District Directors of Gifts and Wills, and the pastors and laymen who ve helped us in meeting these people who are extending their lives through their gifts. We y for the continuance of this excellent relationship so that we may help you and our people do a better Christian work for the expansion of the Kingdom of God.

THE METHODIST MINISTERS CREDIT UNION

When our Conference held its last session in Trinity Methodist Church back in 1961, thodist Ministers Credit Union made the largest headlines in its history. The second section the Morning Herald carried a streamer: "Money Changers In The Temple." A reporter had and a table in the hallway of the educational building where our Credit Union was doing the t business in twenty-three years.

t was in that hallway that our assets passed the $10,000.00 mark. It was there that we sold first Estate Contract or Loan. This was an unbelievable report for some who watched our dit Union through the years.

Now we are back, changing money in the temple – this time not so literally as before, but the same purpose – to help our parsonage families practice thrift. Thrift is more than the ctice of saving. It is the wise use of credit and the prudent and productive use of that which nes into our possession.

Whereas we were struggling to reach $10,000.00 in 1961, we are now, eleven years later, ching for $500,000.00, and it is within our reach. We closed the month of May with 35,631.01 in assets, and we are growing in June.

The use of the Estate Loan plan has been a great help in this growth. We invite you seriously consider using it. On a $2,000.00 contract, which is the largest we write on any one life, the rower pays interest of $190.60 over a period of thirty-six months. This loan is covered by Loan Protection Insurance Policy, not only against death but also, total and permanent bility without any cost above the interest which is a true 6% APR. The $2,000.00 in shares chased with the borrowed funds is matched by $2,000.00 Life Insurance, which has a 000.00 double indemnity rider and a $2,000.00 accidental loss of sight and dismemberment er. This insurance is provided for the shareholder by the Credit Union from its earnings. This n addition to the 4 1/2% per annum dividend that we have paid for several years. Dividends ned at this rate give the Estate Loan holder a profit of $91.55 in dividends after repaying for all the interest paid on his note. This is a bargain that is too good to miss. This year added $8,240.80 to our reserve fund to protect the shares you have bought. This was more n twice the legal requirement. We are stronger, too, because we have been able to repay ,000.00 in borrowed money.

There are several firsts we have achieved since last Conference that are worthy of note:

. On March 9, 1972, our Credit Union moved out of the treasurer's home for the first time. ow has a suite of three rooms at 743 W. Johnson Street, Raleigh, N. C. Come visit us there.

. Our Credit Union was chosen as the depository for the building funds of one of our ted Methodist Churches. We invite you to do likewise.

. We received the largest gift of our history. One of our retired ministers gave us $500.00 to to our loan funds to be used for the good of his brother ministers. This kind of generosity r concern for others is to be praised. Many others have helped in other ways, and a few have n in the past but never in so large an amount. Thank you, brother.

. This month is to be used to enroll our borrowers in the new "Credit Disability" program offered by our Credit Union in cooperation with our insurance carrier, CUNA Mutual rance Society. This coverage will protect the borrower in case of temporary incapacity because of illness or injury. It is optional, and the cost is lower than at most other lendi agencies in our state.

The Balance Sheet for May 31, 1972, is found below:

Assets		Liabilities
Loans Outstanding	$406,300.48	Shares	$380,042.7
Investments	31,828.48	Deposits	68,464.2

		Undivided Earnings	849.2
TOTALS	$485,631.01	Net Profit	4,994.2

The Board of Directors and the Committees of our Credit Union join me in saying thank y for your help in these accomplishments. We pray the blessing of our Father upon all of us as go forward in service to Him and to one another.

THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

Faithfulness to the Gospel, flexibility in approach and willingness to be innovative have be the characteristics of the work of the Conference Board of Missions during the final year of t 1968-72 quadrennium. As our Annual Conference demographic patterns change, the patte and procedures of groups working within the Conference must change. Without neglect of t rural church, the growing number of urban and semi-urban churches requires methods of wo different from those in years past. These changes are reflected in this report.

The work of this Board is done primarily through committee structures and the report of Board is presented to reflect that structure.

Edward F. Smith, President
Amos H. Stone, Secretary

COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION AND CULTIVATION

Rufus H. Stark II, Chairman

The committee seeks to hold before the churches of our Annual Conference the cause of corporate mission of Christ as He reaches through the United Methodist Church, in order t this cause may be a matter of major priority. To that end the committee has functioned several ways this year.

1. District Mission Rallies

In November each of our District Program Councils planned a rally at which t personnel of our General Board Staff in New York, along with representatives from our ann conference Board made presentations.

A. Purpose: To build a base of confidence in each other as we share in mission; to prov an opportunity to know first hand General Board Staff Personnel; to provide clear informat on the Advance and to encourage response.

B. Personnel:

Rev. Joseph W. Walker, Director of the Advance of the General Board of Missi
Rev. Billy Starnes, a Director of the Advance assigned to the Southeastern Jurisdiction.
Rev. Avery Manchester, Secretary of the General Board of Mission Committee Missionary Personnel.

Rev. John Jordan, Executive Secretary of the Office of University World of the National Division of the General Board.

Dr. Richard Nesmith, Executive Secretary of Planning and Strategy for the National Division of the General Board.

C. Results:

1. A total of 1325 attended the eleven rallies.
2. The attendance included a healthy mix of decision makers from local churches with about equal numbers of men and women and twenty per cent youth.
3. The spirit of those attending was open and for the most part enthusiastic.
4. A total of forty-five churches requested specifice helf in arranging an Advance program. 200 persons joined the Ten-Dollar Club Phase II.

Preparation for Church-Wide Studies.

The District Directors of Mission led the several District Program Councils in effective aning for the training of workers in leading the church-wide studies in Africa, Technetics, The Gospel of Matthew. 1404 persons attended sessions for the purpose in ten of our ricts.

These studies are important not only to the corporate mission of our church, but to the ole work that we do together.

Itineration.

tineration of Missions interpreters has been most successful this year. Those participating e:

Rev. George C. Megill, Brazil, in Wilmington and Sanford Districts.

Rev. Milton H. Robinson, Bolivia, in the Fayetteville and Goldsboro Districts.

Mrs. Milton H. Robinson, Bolivia, in the Elizabeth City and Rocky Mount Districts.

Rev. Albert F. Whelchel, Congo, in Greenville and Raleigh Districts.

Dr. Pearle McClain, China, in the Burlington and Durham Districts.

Rev. Clyde Dunn, Taiwan, in the New Bern District.

Advance Response.

Advance support of the corporate mission of the church has been made more of a priority s year in our Conference. The Fall Mission Rallies and the Advance work sheets used in each trict are already having an effect. As of March 29, $50,444 had been received on General vance specials as compared to $36,110 this date last year. We are encouraged at this trend, not satisfied. Our potential is much greater than this.

Appreciation.

t is appropriate that the District Directors of Mission be recognized for their outstanding dership. They are: George W. Johnson, N. H. Byrd, J. C. Chaffin, N. B. Hill, Jr., Dr. Lee ams, J. C. P. Brown, P. D. Midgett, III, J. T. Smith, Lawrence Lugar, Paul Bunn and C. H. wborn.

THE COMMITTEE ON ADVANCE

Paul G. Bunn, Chairman

Advance giving continues to increase under direct promotion by the Conference Missionary retary, Rufus Stark, the Program Council, the Cabinet and Bishop, the Board of Missions mbers, the Advance Committee, and the District Missionary Chairmen. Also, in order to aid he promotion of the Advance Program, we held Advance rallies in all eleven districts with sonnel from the New York office. The North Carolina Conference will become a leader in vance in the Southeast in the near future. Our perspective broadens yearly in the area of vance concern. For this we thank God!

On the world scene we are glad to be able to report that all of our missionaries from the rth Carolina Conference now have full salary support. We are beginning to help support sionaries from other conferences.

Likewise, we have raised a large amount through the Ten Dollar Club-Phase II for new churches in Salisbury, Rhodesia.

A new Hospital-Dispensary is being built in Botswana, Africa. We are giving $10,000.00 for that cause.

The new Ten Dollar Club-Phase II is growing. We shall send one call annually to a new church situation overseas. In 1973 the call will go to South America (Brazil). We also aid in building one new church each year in our own North Carolina Conference. Also, we give special help to churches with special need. We now have 1,244 members of the Phase II Ten Dollar Club.

Robeson County Church and Community Center	$ 6,633.25
Hinton Rural Life Center	1,046.00
Salary Support for National Pastors	7,651.74
UMCOR	5,758.75
Pakistan Relief	26,779.55
Beach and Resort Ministries	939.15
Other Special Advance Appeals	67,357.77
Total	$116,166.33

We congratulate the United Methodists of North Carolina Conference United Methodism for the increased interest in and concern for the missionary outreach of the Church. Let us help you be in mission!

CHURCH AND COMMUNITY COMMITTEE

Reginald W. Ponder, Chairman

SUB-COMMITTEE ON PARISH DEVELOPMENT AND COMMUNITY SERVICE

Charles E. Owens, Chairman

People in churches of small membership tend to become disillusioned and despondent, with no sense of achievement. This situation is caused in part by the inadequate pastoral leadership of the "not-yets, the rejects, and the has-beens." In a time when the mark of success has been for the church to become a station appointment, local church resources have been insufficient to provide adequate monetary support for the pastor, for local church ministry, and for ministry beyond the local church.

We affirm that every Methodist has a right to expect leadership which can help people develop an adequate program in every parish, making available those experiences which will enable Methodist people to grow together in Christ and engage in significant ministry to the community in His name.

We have striven toward this goal through a recovery and understanding of "Parish" (Discipline, Par. 106.3), and through cooperative ministries we have made more adequate deployment of lay and pastoral leadership in a few areas of our conference. We must cooperate as Methodist people in order to realize our full potential as the people of God. Cooperation must not be thought of negatively, as a "last-ditch" survival gimmick, but should be forward-looking the banding of the strong and the weak, where each learns from the other as they grow together in love and service in the family of God. Increasingly we must focus our vision horizontally toward neighboring churches, linking resources to meet common needs.

During this Quadrennium we have seen the establishment of the following cooperative ministries:

Pamlico Parish
Salemburg
Moore County
Harnett County
Robeson County Church and Community Center

Each of these efforts is differenct, and there is no one way to organize for ministry. The important thing is that structure must be responsive to and serve the needs of the people in the situation where they are. Today we have four Church and Community Workers engaged in ministry in our Conference through parish organization.

Through the United Methodist Parish Fellowship retreats each year emphasis has been given ward developing understanding of the parish concept and toward re-training pastors to serve cooperation with other pastors, rather than in competition with them.

SUB-COMMITTEE ON TOWN AND COUNTRY WORK

Leo C. Thompson, Chairman

The work of the Sub-Committee on Town and Country Work during the 1968-72 uadrennium has focused in three primary areas: (1) Recognition of excellent achievement in nall churches. (2) Provision of training experiences for ministers and laymen from small urches. (3) Development of a long-range program to encourage laymen and ministers in small urches to cooperate across charge boundaries in the implementation of mission to their areas.

At the Chapel Hill Conference in 1969, seven rural churches were honored for excellent rvice to their communities with an appropriate certificate and a $50 award (listed in 1969 urnal, pages 128-129). Again, in 1970 at the Greenville Conference, seven rural churches were nored in the same manner (listed in 1970 Journal, page 134). In 1972 at the Durham nference, one outstanding church in the entire Conference will be honored for its tstanding achievement (without monetary award).

Throughout the Quadrennium, the Committee has encouraged laymen and ministers from ery district to participate in a wide variety of training experiences designed to equip them illfully to develop patterns of cooperation across charge boundaries. A large delegation of inisters and laymen were present at the Jurisdiction's Quadrennial Conference on Town and untry Work at Lake Junaluska, August 11-15, 1969. Expenses were paid by the Committee hich has sponsored a sizable delegation of ministers and laymen to the Annual Meeting of the llowship of Town and Country Leaders of the Southeast at the Hinton Rural Life Center, ayesville, each year during the quadrennium (October 21-24, 1969; October 21-23, 1970; and ctober 11-14, 1971). This experience has begun the training of a nucleus of skilled leaders in ir Conference who are beginning to provide more excellent leadership in the development of operative patterns. In addition, the Committee has assisted the United Methodist Parish llowship in the sponsoring of annual retreats (February 3-8,1969, in Williamston, ayetteville, and Warsaw; March 30-31, 1970, at Chestnut Ridge, with Dr. Daniel Zeluff from terpreter's House as leader; February 22-23, 1971, at Raleigh and Kinston, with Dr. Melvin est from Missouri as leader; and February 28-29, 1972, with Dr. Marvin Judy from Dallas as ader). Each of these retreats has provided excellent training opportunities.

The Committee has also assisted in the development of possibilities for specific parishes roughout the Conference. During 1969-70, approximately $16,000 was set aside in the Board Missions to be directed toward newly organized parishes. "Guidelines for Parish velopment Grants" were established and grants were made to parishes in Pamlico and Wayne unties. A similar grant was made during 1971-72 to the parish in Harnet County. Close pervision has been given in each of these parishes. Finally, the Committee was instrumental in tting up a Cabinet Consultation with Dr. Marvin Judy on March 1, 1972. Out of this nsultation a Committee on Conference Policy for Parish Development was appointed by the abinet to provide adequate guidelines and policies during the 1972-76 quadrennium. This mmittee will finalize these guidelines by the time of Annual Conference on June 5, 1972.

The over-all result of the Committee's work has been the development of wider nderstanding and acceptance of the need for and necessity of cooperative patterns of work ross charge boundaries and the realistic provision of guidelines and policies by which such urishes may be implemented across our Conference during the 1972-76 quadrennium. It has en a joy to serve in the area of our concern.

SUB-COMMITTEE ON URBAN MINISTRIES

Wallace H. Kirby, Chairman

In July, 1971, the Conference Board of Missions, on recommendation of the Urban mmittee and in cooperation with the National Board of Missions, entered into a contract ith Complex, Inc. of Raleigh. Complex was to help urban churches discover creative options r mission and to assist in such missions with resources and training. The committee met with mplex on numerous occasions and tried to relay some of the needs it felt churches in urban eas had. Suggestions were made for surveys, a directory of urban agencies, training events, and her possible actions. It was apparent, after six months, that Complex was not fulfilling any of these needs. Some work was done in Greenville through the Ministerial Association, in which Complex helped that organization see the need for such things as day-care, food and nutrition and a revised bail system. The committee felt at a loss in directing Complex in its work, and in the interest of stewardship terminated the contract on December 31, 1971.

The committee has had dialogue (as a committee and individually) with men engaged in urban ministries in Greensboro, Charlotte, Birmingham, Memphis, and Atlanta. It realizes that such a ministry must be initiated within the urban area and stands ready to assist such areas as Durham, Raleigh, Fayetteville, Greenville, and Wilmington. The Center City Ministry in Durham and the Contact Ministry in Fayetteville are beginnings.

THE NORTH CAROLINA COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

In the North Carolina Council of Churches we have resisted the temptation, with the whole spectrum of challenges before us, to attempt too much. With a staff of four people one of whom is half-time (not including the Migrant Project) we necessarily have limited ourselves to timely priorities.

The reorganization of two years ago began to take effect in the summer of 1970 with excellent results. The concept of "shared staff" is very effective in the Commission on Christian Nurture and to a lesser degree in the other two commissions. The intention throughout is to involve in our work the key people from our member judicatories in each program area.

Collins Kilburn and Otis Hairston are giving great leadership to the Commission on Christian Social Ministries. The recent Church and Community Seminar must be rated as excellent for program. Splended responses are being made in the fields of corrections and criminal justice and of welfare reform. State government and legislature and peace education and action are emphases of this commission. Close cooperation is given the Commission on Religion in Appalachia in its Social, Economic, and Political Issues Task Force and the Appalachian Mission Renewal Project.

W. H. Shipes directs the North Carolina Council of Churches Migrant Project which is booming under his leadership. This work relates directly to the Commission on Christian Social Ministries.

John Cobb has given intelligent and faithful leadership to the Commission on Christian Nurture. Among the priorities there the chief ones are child care, youth hostels, aging leadership training, and family life. The Task Force on Child Care, led by William McElveen has drawn together more than thirty experts. The first federated youth hostel in North Carolina will be in operation this summer at Linville.

James Riddle is giving imaginative guidance to the Commission on Christian Unity in a time when some people in the churches challenge not only councils of churches but all organization of religion. I am urging that strong emphasis be put upon local ecumenism–it must be local in order to be real. This commission, in connection with its interest in Faith and Order, is projecting one or more local pilot conferences this year on polarization in church and community.

The Executive Director serves as staff for Christian Nurture and Christian Unity. Other programs coming under the Durham office are finance, the Pastors' Conference and annual Assembly, the Richard Shelton Communications Awards, the Advisory Conference, The Church Council Bulletin, the Church World Service Clothing Appeal in North Carolina, and the Migrant Ministry.

It is immensely heartening to see that the annual giving of the Council's member bodies has increased from $14,000 in 1963 to $35,000 in 1971, a rise of 150%. This very favorable development, however, has been more than matched by the demands of inflation and a growing program. The asking of the Council of each of its member bodies continues to be only 1/10 of 1% of each group's annual giving to current expenses and benevolences, excluding capital building funds. In 1971 such allocations should have produced over $61,000 instead of $35,000, thus requiring special efforts to raise $9,400 from individual churches and donors. The skeletal budget for 1972 will still require $7,900 from these special sources. There is a program of gift annuities developed by the National Council of Churches whereby an ecumenical agency such as our State Council may be beneficiary in a plan that provides ntinuing income for the donor. One or two generous gift annuities of this sort could make e difference for us in 1972.

As an economy and efficiency measure the nearly 7000 names on the Council's mailing list ve been put on a computer. By resulting reduction in office staff this will make it possible to me within the modest budget of $50,000 if individual contributions come in.

The President and the Executive Director called together evangelism people from the ember judicatories to discuss Key '73 resulting in plans for continuing state-wide strategy in eparation for next year. This will be brought directly under the Executive Board as a rticular concern of the Council through 1972 and '73, with the expectation that strong, ried, and continuing cooperative outreach will be in the churches' agenda at the beginning of '74.

PUBLIC RELATIONS AND METHODIST INFORMATION

The Conference Director of Methodist Information reports the following activities for tl 1971-72 Conference Year.

-I-

The 1971-72 North Carolina Conference Pictorial Directory was made possible through tl cooperation of the Pictorial Church Directories of America. The Directory was mailed to tl company headquarters in St. Louis and although no proofing was done locally and tl company was responsible for printing make-up, we believe it is a valuable instrument enabling our ministers to know each other.

We are grateful to PCA for making this Directory available. A minimum number of copi are available for lay leaders and local church libraries.

-II-

The Director has worked during the year in helping to initiate a Committee o Communications. District Directors were appointed to work in the area of communicatior particularly in assisting local churches. A number of tapes were available to local congregatio of Bishop Cannon's statement at the 1971 Annual Conference regarding the creation of twelfth district and the appointment of a black district superintendent. We asked the loc congregations to utilize this tape in helping prepare our laity for this important step. Distri communications chairmen were also asked to monitor reports of the 1972 General Conferen in Atlanta.

-III-

The General Conference in April, 1972, was given special coverage by your Director. A media-TV, Radio, and Press-were alerted and special reports were filed daily.

The 1972 Annual Conference publicity was also planned as was preliminary news covera for the July, 1972, Jurisdictional Conference at Lake Junaluska.

The Director would like particularly to thank (a) the 74-radio stations of the Tobac Radio Network; (b) Radio Stations WPTF in Raleigh and WDNC in Durham for their spec "extended" news coverage; (c) The Raleigh Bureau of United Press International; (d) t Carolinas Bureau of Associated Press in Charlotte; (e) and the Durham Morning Herald f cellent cooperation in the area of Public Relations and Methodist Information.

Three newspapers - the Durham Herald, the Raleigh News and Observer, and the Durham un - provided special correspondents for the Annual Conference session in June.

-IV-

Survival In the 70's - radio and TV spots- were used in North Carolina during the national RAFCO emphasis. Three persons- Charles M. Smith, Albert Mehaffey and the director- tended the Survival workshop in Charlotte in December, 1971. We are grateful to the levision and radio stations in the Wilmington, Greenville, Washington, and Raleigh-Durham eas for their cooperation in this project.

William K. Quick, Director

THE METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATION, INC.

Your board has been in continuous operation since 1919 when its certificate of corporation was issued. Prior to that, the North Carolina Christian Advocate, established in 55, has served the Methodists of the state under several names and in a variety of ganizational relationships.

The papers of incorporation of The Methodist Board of Publication state in part:

> "The object of this corporation shall be to publish the North Carolina Christian Advocate as the official organ of the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and to have control of the publishing Interest of the aforesaid Conferences. It may publish one or more newspapers and periodicals by any name desired, and may publish, handle, purchase and sell all kinds of books, tracts, treatises and pamphlets. It shall also have the power and authority to carry on in all its branches a general publishing and printing business."

A further provision states that "the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences ill be and are equal and joint owners of said corporation, and that said corporation shall be der the jurisdiction, control and direction of said Conferences".

The basic provisions of this venerable document still remain as a missional mandate for the thodist Board of Publication. We are seeking to fulfill this mandate mainly through the ntinuing publication of the North Carolina Christian Advocate and through the operation of general publishing and printing business" under the trade name of the Piedmont Press.

The circulation of the Advocate has during the past year maintained a steady average of htly over 22,000. We are continuing to stress the importance of our local church officials embers of All-Administrative Boards) taking and reading the Advocate. We feel that every urch official elected to an important office in the church has a responsibility to become a ll-informed leader. The Advocate is in a unique position to enable such officials to fulfill this igation. This is especially true in view of the fact that the Advocate carries an eight-page tion once a month giving information prepared by the Conference Program Council on portant events and programs coming up. A separate edition of this supplement is provided the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Annual Conferences. This information as ll as much other material carried is of vital importance to local church leaders.

We believe that the local church should assume the cost involved in such an informational gram, or at very least that it should work out some plan whereby the members of its ministrative Board become subscribers. We commend the more than 400 churches which are the plan and urgently request all other churches to set it up for their church officials.

While setting forth the All-Administrative Board Plan as of vital importance, we further ommend to our churches that they move one step further and adopt the Every-Family bscription Plan. An informed and enlightened church will be without doubt a better church. e North Carolina Christian Advocate going into every United Methodist home cannot but be positive asset, and may well be a key factor in lifting the level of that church's life.

We are continuing to improve the facilities and equipment in our printing establishment. ring the last four months we have leased cold composition equipment for more rapid esetting. This is enabling us to produce a cleaner printed page and to do it much more idly.

As a non-profit corporation owned and operated by the United Methodist Church in North Carolina, we are not actively soliciting business from the general public. However, we do urge our Methodist institutions, boards and agencies, and local churches to patronize The Piedmont Press for their printing needs. Our present modern equipment and well-trained personnel make it possible for us to offer good quality work a reasonable rates. Moreover, all profits from the operation The Piedmont Press go toward meeting editorial and other expenses connected with the production of the North Carolina Christian Advocate. It makes good sense, therefore, for our United Methodist Organizations, where there is no clear reason to the contrary, to give their printing to our own printing establishment.

C. P. Morris, President
J. C Stokes, Editor and Manager

THE COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

A Commission on Religion and Race was established during this Conference year.

The purpose of the Commission shall be to become the "Conscience" of the Conference in all matters concerning race. The programs and projects developed by this Commission shall speak to the problems of racism (attitudinal, behavioral and institutional) and minority group empowerment. The Commission will be so organized that there is both flexibility and structure to enable the Conference to deal with these problems as they are expressed in the life of the Conference. Until all members of the United Methodist Church of every race are able to participate fully in all structures, organizations, and decision processes, of the Conference, the word "United" will be a goal rather than a reality. The task of the Conference Commission on Religion and Race is to help make this a reality.

The Commission members attended a Consultation on Race, sponsored by The Board of Christian Social Concerns, led by members of the National Commission on Religion and Race. Additionally, the Commission held a consultation/training session for its members and selected persons at Highland United Methodist Church. The Commission offered its services to the Conference to assist in problems in the area of race relations and in the acceptance of a Black District Superintendent.

The Commission realizes that there is much to be done to reconcile the differing attitudes between races, in acceptance and empowerment of minorities, and has programmed its activities for the year 1972-73 accordingly.

THE BOARD OF COLLEGE VISITORS

The Board of College Visitors made its annual visits to the colleges in our Conference in the month of March. We were impressed by reports of slight increases of new students, b financial pictures than past years, and more attractive educational programs.

The Three-Track Curriculum at N. C. Wesleyan probably moves our college at R Mount a decade ahead of comparable schools in the southeast. The O'Hanlon Amphithea Methodist College was dedicated in November, and it will enhance the religious, dramatic musical programs on our campus at Fayetteville.

The relationships between administration, faculty, and students is wholesome with re for and consideration of each other, and all continue to seek closer ties with their respe communities. The one greatest and unanimously voiced need by these three elements o colleges is the cultivation and and recruitment of Methodist students by local pasto congregations in the North Carolina Conference.

Finally, we are grateful to our colleges for their achievements and assure them o support in strengthening their Christian uniqueness and their task of education in our day.

THE WOMEN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE AND WESLEYAN SERVICE GUILD

Much has happened in the North Carolina Conference Women's Society and Wesleyan ce Guild this year. Several of our women have been honored and nominated or elected to ions in the church. At the Annual Conference in Fayetteville, Mrs. Harold Mann was ed a delegate to General Conference on the first ballot. This was a first for North Carolina for any Conference to our knowledge. Mrs. Mann led the North Carolina delegation to eral Conference. In August Mrs. Mann was elected to the World Methodist Council at that ing in Denver. Mrs. Sam Dunn, former Woman's Society President, was also elected to eral Conference. Mrs. L. C. Vereen and Mrs. E. L. Hillman were elected to Jurisdictional ference.

The Spiritual Growth Conference held in June at Louisburg College and led by Miss Gene vell, lifted our women to great spiritual heights as she developed the theme "Yes Lord? Lord!" Miss Maxwell also led the Spiritual Growth Conference May 23-24, 1972, at sburg College. She is a Women's Division Staff person in the Denver Region.

Also in June 1971, thirteen officers of the Women's Society and Guild attended the onal School of Christian Mission in Birmingham, Alabama.

Perhaps one of the most thrilling and challenging Annual Meetings we have had was held in tteville in October at Hay Street United Methodist Church. We were honored by the nce of Bishop William R. Cannon and his entire Cabinet at the opening session. We were nged by such speakers as the Conference Program Director, Dr. Nicholas Grant; Dr. las Langford, Dean of Duke Divinity School; Mrs. J. Boyd Tyrell and Mrs. George Berry, bers of the Women's Division, as they spoke to the theme "For The Love of God". The e to Missions 1972-73 for Women's Society and Guild was $214,810.00. REPORT OF THE NORTH CAROLINA UNITED METHODIST COMMISSION ON CONTINUING EDUCATION FOR MINISTERS

The Statewide Commission on Continuing Education for Ministers, representing the North olina and the Western North Carolina Conferences of The United Methodist Church and The ce Divinity School, operates as the coordinator for existing programs, recommends additial projects, and designates responsibilities to participating agencies. The Commission sinly appreciates the support of the Episcopal leaders, the Dean of The Duke Divinity School, the Annual Conference Committees on Continuing Education.

The Commission supports the Conference Committee in its specific recommendations to Annual Conference. We recognize that special emphasis must be given to ways and means of viding released time, short terms as well as sabbatical leaves, for ministers to participate in grams of Continuing Education without jeopardizing their responsibilities in the local parish. ra financial support from the local church is needed. Increased contributions to the Minisal Education Funds, with a larger portion designated for Continuing Education, will provide ncial resources in each Annual Conference. An educational program to assist the laity to erstand fully the significance of Continuing Education for the Ministry is quite in order.

The Commission rejoices with The Duke Divinity School in the appointment of Dr. Murry S. Richey as the Director of Continuing Education. To this task he will devote a ificant portion of his time and energy as well as continue teaching in The Divinity School. ough this office the Director will coordinate the existing programs, initiate new ones, assist Annual Conferences in their programs, and provide information of other available opporties. A specific goal is to increase the ecumenical dimension with every available oppority.

In keeping with the current practice and procedure and on the basis of pp. 355, 356, and 5. 5h (or their equivalent) of The Book of the Discipline, we recommend:

A. That the responsibility for Continuing Education be assigned specifically to an interboard agency to be known as "The Committee on Continuing Education for Min isters."

B. That the Committee be composed of the following: five representatives of t Conference Board of Ministry; one representative each from the following Conferen agencies: Board of Education, Board of Evangelism, Board of Missions, Commission Town and Country Ministries, Board of Christian Social Concerns, Board of Health a Welfare Ministries, Board of Managers of the North Carolina Pastors' School; The Du Divinity School; each Methodist college within the bounds of the Annual Conference; t Director of Continuing Education of The Duke Divinity School; a representative of Program Council staff; and three members at large appointed by the Bishop.

C. That attention be given to the selection of the representatives so that a existing agencies with specific responsibilities for Continuing Education will have rep sentation on the Committee.

REPORT OF THE MINIMUM SALARY COMMISSION

1. Recommendations

The Minimum Salary Commission recommends for the Conference year 1972-73 that t minimum salaries for all ministers who are serving pastoral appointments be raised $60 Special exemption permitting this raise has been applied for by our commission on behalf the North Carolina Conference. The scale is as follows:

1. Conference Member: One or more dependent children $7,200; married, $7,00 single, $6,800.

2. Associates: One or more dependent children, $6,600; married $6,400; single, $6,20

In the event that a pastor on minimum salary changes status he will not receive any l than he did the previous year.

3. Lay Pastor: One or more dependent children, $6,400; married $6,200; single, $6,0

4. Student: One or more dependent children, $5,600 plus travel; married, $5,400 pl travel; single, $5,200 plus travel.

Travel allowance is based on the distance of student's parsonage from the school attends. When the parsonage is 25 miles or less, it shall be $100; when the parsonage is m than 25 miles but less than 50 miles, it shall be $200; when the parsonage is more than 50 mi but less than 75 miles, it shall be $300; when the parsonage is more than 75 miles but less th 0 miles, it shall be $400; and when the parsonage is 100 miles or more from the school, $500 be the maximum travel allowance.

5. Retired Supply Pastors: $3,000 (including travel and utilities).

6. Part-time Supplies: Ministers of any status who are serving part-time will receive me from minimum salary funds, if any, on a basis negotiated with the church, the pastor, district superintendent, and the Minimum Salary Commission.

"Being aware of the Scott resolution passed by the 1970 Annual Conference—The Minimum y Commission is directed to bring forth an equalized salary scale for full-time lay pastors, iate pastors, and Conference members to begin with the Conference year 1973-1974."*

The Minimum Salary Commission feels that the above report is the fairest it can arrive at, idering fiscal responsibility and educational incentive, and that the lay pastors should in in the same relative position.

Principles Governing the Use of Minimum Salary Funds

The Commission urges each charge receiving Minimum Salary funds, its minister, and ict superintendent so to administer the affairs of the charge that it may move as rapidly as ible toward full financial support.

To enable the conference, the commission, and the supperintendents to carry on their erative efforts in understanding, harmony, and for the greatest good for all concerned, the wing principles and procedures are set forth:

1. All requests for financial assistance on pastors' salaries for the succeeding year shall resented by the district superintendent to the Program Council staff representative to the mum Salary Commission not later than the first day of Annual Conference.

2. The family or martial status of the pastor at the time of assignment to the charge govern the amount paid the minister for the entire conference year.

3. In considering the salary for a charge, we call attention to the fact that the Commis- on Minimum Salary must count salary, travel, utilities, bonuses, and expense allowances as y in making appropriations to the charge. We stress the importance of reporting all contri- ons, so that all ministers involved may be treated alike.

4. No charge may receive from minimum salary more than one-third of the total salary ved with the exception of newly-established congregations. Charges must be arranged so no more than one-third of the total salary be supplemented from minimum salary funds. ges asking for more than one-third supplement must make an additional application, indi- g the reasons for being given special consideration.

DIVIDING CHARGES

5. The Commission on Minimum Salary suggests that, as a general practice, no appoint- ts be made with a membership of less than 400, if the charge is to expect Minimum Salary ort. Creation of circuits and/or charges should be on the basis of mutual agreement by all ches on the circuit rather than simply from the desire of the larger church to withdraw its own benefit and advancement.

6. When the division of a charge is considered necessary and minimum salary is to be ested for either of the new charges resulting from such divisions, such project shall be ented to the Program Council not later than May 1, so that a satisfactory evaluation can be e by the Commission. Without its approval the Commission shall not be obligated to ide minimum salary support for either of the churches resulting from such division.

7. In the division of circuits where one church seeks to become a station, is recom- ded that such church assume all salary obligations and its proportionate share of single-fig- asking.

a. It is recommended that the remainder of the division pay two-thirds of pastoral ort, and its share of single-figure asking.

b. The Commission on Minimum Salary further recommends that each charge which has ved, or shall hereafter receive minimum salary aid, shall reduce this aid by 10% each year the charge has accepted full self-support. The district superintendents are to inform all ges receiving, or to receive aid in the future, of this regulation which district superinten- s should report. This requirement must be kept in mind in preparing for any requests.

c. When a charge has been established as a student appointment and desires to be ser by a full-time minister, this change may take place at such time as the charge shall p two-thirds of the amount needed to provide such full-time ministerial support and shall agree reduce the aid by 10% each year.

d. When there is a division of a charge forming one or more student appointments, charge must pay two-thirds of said salary.

A NEW CHURCH AS A CHARGE

8. When a new church is to be established and becomes a new charge, the dist superintendent shall present for study the complete details of the proposed project not la than May 1. These details shall be presented by them to the Conference Board of Missions the Commission on Minimum Salary. If such new church is approved by the Board and C mission, the Commission shall provide Minimum Salary assistance and the Board shall sup ment the salary to make it adequate, and shall assist the new charge in providing living quar for the minister and a place to meet and worship. It shall be understood that each year the r charge shall accept more of the budget until it becomes self-supporting. We recommend each new church shall become self-supporting in a period of ten years or less.

a. Exception will be made if charge has made a reasonable effort to become self-s porting and is willing and able to increase salary at least $300 annually, increase its one-fig askings proportionately, and reach full support within five more years.

We also recommend that the minimum salary supplement be stopped at any time whe full-time pastor takes over employment or is not employed full-time and that such a pastor r be reinstated at any time during the year that he returns to full-time ministerial status.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF THE MINISTRY

REPORT 1

The Board of the Ministry makes the following recommendations:

1. The Board of the Ministry again recommends a Retreat on the Ministry to be h in each district of the Conference in which the priorities of our servanthood may examined. We commend those districts in which these retreats were held during current year, for the beginnings of a total assessment of our life and commitment a minister of the Gospel. Those retreats yet to be held should focus on the conservat of the ministry, the standards of our profession within the framework of our call ethics within the church and the community, and ways of developing growth in personal and family life. The dates and places for these retreats are to be set by District Program Councils.

2. Every local church is urged to observe Ministry Sunday on September 17, 1 (or the nearest convenient date) in order that the Ministry, in its nature and funct might be brought to the attention of our people. It is imperative that all minis seek to enlist highly qualified persons for church occupations.

3. We look with favor upon the continuing effort being made to recruit semir graduates for membership in the North Carolina Annual conference, and we comm our bishop for the establishment of a special committee for this purpose. We ple our continuing interest and assistance in this effort.

4. The Ministerial Education Fund has proved to be a helpful source of finan assistance for the education of our pastors, and we acknowledge the continuing gro of this fund year by year. We encourage all of our churches to recognize the sig cance and crucial nature of this fund by accepting and paying their full apportionm for this cause at the earliest possible date.

5. The Board of the Ministry will continue to join the Commission on Enlistment for Chu Occupations in sponsoring a recognition banquet honoring the Members received into Connection each year at the sessions of the Annual Conference.

6. The area of continuing education for ministers is one of the most crucial mat ore us and will be dealt with directly through the Committee on Continuing Educa-n. The people of the church expect their ministers to be aware of and familiar with changing circumstances of our world today, and without some disciplined study on part of the minister, this is impossible. Paragraph 355 of the 1968 Discipline icates the concern of the general church to the extent of encouraging each congregan to release its minister for regular participation in some form of continuing educa-n in a formal setting. We urge the local churches of our Conference to provide the e, financial support, and encouragement for their pastors to participate in programs med for their continuing education.

The ministers of this Conference holding special appointments are required to make eport to the Conference at least once a year, and the report should include a job lysis. Any change in address or nature of service should be reported to the Confer-e Secretary immediately. The area of service of each special appointment and its vance to the church will be reviewed each year. Any minister failing to respond to inquiry of the officially designated committee for a period of two consecutive years be considered for involuntary location.

The problems that rise from situations throughout the Conference where ministers er appointment to full-time charges have become involved with secular employment demands much of their working time and energies demand some realistic attention.
e study must soon be made and guidelines established for this kind of relationship involves commitment to the pastoral ministry, minimum salary and corresponding k-load, parsonage life, and parish development.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON COUNSELING RESOURCES

At the meeting of the Ministers' Wives Association of the North Carolina Annual ference in Greenville, N.C., on June 4, 1970, Mrs. Bruce Pate, President of the igh District Ministers' Wives, made the motion that a committee be appointed to y the need and the possibility of securing a Resource Person for our Conference.
Resource Person would be one to whom the ministers and their families could go counseling for a nominal fee. There was a second to this motion and it carried.
Helen Brodie was named as chairman of this committee.

In the ensuing months Mrs. Brodie and her committee have been in contact with r Annual Conferences and Areas which have developed counseling programs for isters and their families. At the Annual Conference of 1971, meeting in Fayetteville, Board of the Ministry in its report made the following recommendations:

In view of the great need for counseling service for the ministers of our Conference and their families, we recommend that the Board of the Ministry join with other conference groups to plan and organize an adequate counseling service for the ministers' families.

Representatives from the Board of the Ministry and the Committee from the Ministers' es Association have met together, and having studied the material and information gleaned n other areas, offer the following report:

John H. Emerson in an article, "A Survival Kit for Pastoral Stresses," in the national istian Advocate, September 30, 1971, writes:

In 1969, 481 pastors had their conference relations terminated and 473 more were unappointable due to disability. The disabilities surely include a good number of emotionally "burned out" persons with functional disorders . . . To a caring Christian Community, sensitive to the needs of its individuals, they are human beings fighting a losing battle for survival in a calling to which they had committed themselves at one time and for which they expended a great deal of time, energy, and money to be professionally trained. How many more still in the ranks of active service are leading lives of "quiet desperation" is a haunting speculation.

Those ministers and their families who are still with us is the concern of this report.

We recommend that the Board of the Ministry give immediate implementation to its mmendation concerning pastoral counselling made at the last Annual Conference.

We believe that this can be done by setting up a Conference Committee on Pastoral Care who would in turn employ an Area Counselor. The Committee on Pastoral Care would be made up of four (4) representatives from the Board of the Ministry, two (2) Board of Health and Welfare Ministries, one (1) Department of Pastoral Care of Duke Divinity School, and two (2) from Ministers' Wives Association, as selected by each body.

A tentative Job Description of an Area Counselor follows:

1. The Area Counselor shall be qualified as a Pastoral Counselor. This means that he shall be qualified in two fields:
 1. as a psychologist
 2. as a pastor

 He should:
 1. Understand the basic theories of personality development, illness and health counseling in individual and group therapy.
 2. Be able to integrate theory and practice and understanding himself sufficiently well so that his needs do not interfer with therapeutic relationships.
 3. Appreciate the pressures and problems of the minister and his family so that he is able to respond with empathy to his concerns and difficulties.
 4. Value community resources so that he avails himself of the counsel of other professionals and make referrals when appropriate.

II. The Area Counselor is mobile. This does not mean that he calls in the homes of pastors. It does mean that he moves out into the area of the conference so that he may be more accessible to ministers, their wives, and children.

His central office, with secretary, is located away from Raleigh. Patterns for travel to areas of the conference will be established in response to need, and/or invitation; and many vary according to time and circumstance as budget permits.

III. Principal duties and responsibilities:
 1. Determine need for, and extent of, testing or therapy at the time of initial or subsequent contact. Integrate psychological findings with insights of, and information from other interested parties. Cases are not screened and include both persons who come for an opportunity to ventilate and persons who are sick and need referral to other agencies. Referrals are by Area Counselor or self-reffered as the need is perceived by the individual minister and/or his family. Referral may be made to other centers for counseling when referral seems appropriate.
 2. Individual and/or group psycho-therapy, and/or counseling. Summarize in writing therapy progress periodically.
 3. Consult with resource people and clinic services regarding specific problem cases, broad problem areas of handling motivation and evaluation.
 4. Consult with conference boards and agencies on in-service training, program development, coordination and evaluation when requested.
 5. Training. Respond to an invitation to teach a course in an appropriate setting and/or lead a limited number (up to three a year) of short term experience if requested by the Program Council.
 6. Research. Formulate hypotheses, develop research designs and write articles based on the material collected by his office. Provide consultation on these activities for other professional personnel and appropriate trainees.

IV. Supervisory controls over position.

The Area Counselor shall be professionally and administratively responsible to the Committee on Pastoral Care of the North Carolina Conference, United Methodist Church.

V. Other significant facts.

1. It shall be understood that the period of vacation is one month. 2. He shall be encouraged to engage in experiences which will continue his education and competence as approved by the Committee on Pastoral Care.

In our investigation of the several counseling programs now in process across the country, we have discovered that the cost of such a counseling service may range from $21,000 to $31,000 per year. The director of the Ohio We Area program states that he believes their program pays for itself. He points out that the leaders of the Episcopal Church estimate that it costs the church about $47,000 when a man leaves the ministry. This amount is saved in just one year if one man receives adequate counseling and stays in the ministry.

We believe that this service should be set up and that its funding should be from Conference World Service funds, since it will be a direct service of the Church to its ministers and their families.

We believe also that this program shall be administratively free from the Cabinet and the United Methodist appointive system. We also believe that no information is to be given to any person about any person unless that person himself first orders that information about himself released.

E.M. Thompson, Jr., Chairman

HOUSING EXCLUSION ALLOWANCE

INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE DOCUMENT NO. 5045 (10-67) DECLARES:

"Rental Value of Home Furnished a Clergyman, and cost of utilities paid for him, as of his compensation for carrying out his duties as a clergymen, are not income to him, if l duly ordained, licensed, or commissioned."

"A Rental Allowance to Clergyman, paid as part of his compensation, is not incom the extent he used it, in the year received, to provide a home, or pay utilities for a h furnished him. However, the church, or organization which employs him must have offic designated the payment as a rental allowance before the payment was made."

"The above rules are also applicable to retired clergymen where a rent-free home or re allowance is furnished him in recognition of past services in carrying out his duties clergyman."

VISED RULING, 63,156, 163-2 CB 79 STATES:

"... the rental value of the home furnished to a retired minister as part of his ensation for services is excludable from his gross income under Section 107 (1) of the Also, the rental allowance paid to him as part of his compensation for past services is dable under Section 107 (2) of the Code, to the extent used by him for expenses directly d to providing a home."

(See Code Sec. 107, Reg. 1.107.1 [1103.01]

Therefore the following resolution is presented to the North Carolina Conference of the d Methodist Church, meeting in Durham, North Carolina:

Whereas, The United Methodist Church has a tradition of providing housing (a parsonage) s ministers, or in instances where no parsonage is owned by the charge, giving the minister sing allowance, and

Whereas, Retired Ministers of the North Carolina Conference are entitled to the same eges as those ministers in the Effective Relationship: and

Whereas, the most practical method of providing housing for the Retired Ministers is by s of rental allowance;

Therefore, Be It Resolved, that the amount of $2,400.00 per year be set as a fair and iable rental allowance for each Retired Minister of this annual conference; that the first).00 paid to a Retired Minister each year by The Board of Pensions of The North Carolina rence of the United Methodist Church and $1,800.00 of this is designated as the payment is Housing Allowance and $600.00 for Utility Allowance. The Housing Allowance is ically designated as compensation to the minister for the cost of renting or providing ng for himself and his family and those costs related thereto, pursuant to the Code as in Document 5045 (10-67).

The Board of Pensions emphasizes that the Retired Minister who uses this Housing ance must be able to furnish proof that he made expenditures in the amounts claimed. If ll $2400.00 cannot be substantiated as expenditures, then claim should be made only for amounts which can be verified.

We also remind the minister who uses this allowance, that the amount he claims as a ng Allowance exclusion must be included as Income in reporting his Social Security. It is le that reduced Social Security benefits would offset any claims for the Housing ance exclusion. Please consult your Social Security Advisor about this matter.

Further, the Board of Pensions absolves itself of any responsibility in the event the al Revenue Service disallows any housing allowance claimed.

INSURANCE COMMITTEE REPORT

The Insurance Committee, with the assistance of its consultant has carefully reviewed the rance program of this conference. This review enables us to make the following mmendations.

Group Term Life Insurance

We recommend that the present Group Term Life Insurance policy with Fidelity and anty Life Insurance Co. be continued for the conference year 1972-1973. The coverage is main the same, and there is to be no change in the premium rates.

Blue Cross Blue Shield Hospital Insurance

A. We recommend that the present level of benefits provided in the current Blue Cross Shield Hospital Insurance policy be continued without any changes in benefits.

B. We recommend that the premium rate increase be adopted. The premium rate increases $7.65 for individual, $15.36 for parent and child, $21.42 for family, per quarter.

C. We call attention to the rate increase for those of the group over age sixty-five. tive July 1, 1972, the already approved quarterly increase is $6.45 per individual over -five. We also point out that it is possible there will be an additional rate increase for this , depending upon the action by the North Carolina Insurance Department.

D. We recommend that all increased quarterly premium rates be paid by the minister and ther individuals insured in this group policy.

E. We recommend that the Chairman of The Insurance Committee appoint an Insurance s Review Committee to receive appeals from the ministers or other insured persons who there have been certain inequities in their insurance claim payments under the level of fits provided in the insurance program, and to help establish an understanding with all s concerned in these matters. Further, the Chairman shall attempt to include on this nittee a representative from The Board of The Ministry, a member of The Board of ons, a Cabinet representative, a Hospital Administrator or a person named by such an administrator, and a doctor, who is either a M. D. or a Surgeon. It is further recommended t the present chairman of The Insurance Study Committee serve as Chairman of this Cla Review Committee.

F. We further urge all ministers to cooperate in our efforts to more effectively coordin benefits where more than one Blue Cross policy is affected, or any other group insurance pol is involved. This means completing a form for this purpose, which will be made available at first ministers meeting in each district, and return this form to the District Superintendent, w in turn will forward it to the Insurance Committee. One purpose for this recommendation is keep the premiums from further increase.

Miscellaneous

We of the Insurance Committee are very concerned over the rising cost of the Blue Cr Blue Shield Hospital Insurance. We are aware that premium costs relate to the benefits paid is our opinion that the members of our group policy need to be provided information as to h to use the group insurance plan to its fullest benefits to the policy holder, but at the same t use the protection discreetly so as to keep the costs from continuing to increase. Therefore, recommend that each District Superintendent make use of a film about this subject, whic available from Blue Cross Blue Shield. We further recommend that this film be shown as soo possible, in order that all may be made conscious of their personal responsibility in keep costs from rising even more.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY THE 1972 ANNUAL CONFERENCE

A Resolution Concerning A Projected Sanitary Landfill Adjacent To Camp Chestnut Ridge

WHEREAS, the Orange County Commissioners hold option to purchase approximately 22 acres of land adjacent to Camp Chestnut Ridge, and

WHEREAS, the intended use of said tract of land is to establish a sanitary landfill for Orange County, and

WHEREAS, Camp Chestnut Ridge exists for the purpose of providing a sanctuary for the church's ministry in God's unspoiled out-of-doors, and

WHEREAS, the presence of such a landfill adjacent to Camp Chestnut Ridge, with a 1,000 foot joint border with the camp, would be inconsistent with the established purposes for the operation of the camp, and

WHEREAS, accompanying problems of such a landfill would include 1) increased litter and raffic along the roads approaching the camp, 2) noises from heavy equipment used for clearing he area, delivering and covering waste materials and 3) odors caused by waste in transit and rom uncovered waste, and

WHEREAS the effectiveness of the long-range year-round use of Camp Chestnut Ridge will be eriously affected if the County Commissioners exercise their option and locate a landfill djacent to the camp

e it therefore resolved that the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church, in ession in Durham, North Carolina, this 7th day of June, 1972, hereby expresses its opposition o the proposed location of the Orange County landfill, and urges the Commissioners to eriously consider the possibilities that Camp Chestnut Ridge offers as a wilderness area and ature center in the heart of an increasingly urbanized area of the state, and further urges them o seek a more appropriate location for the county landfill.

A Resolution Concerning An Emergency Appeal for Bennett College, Greensboro, North Carolina
Board of Education and Board of Christian Social Concerns North Carolina Conference,
The United Methodist Church (Supplement to Goal 74)

Whereas, the 1972 General Conference adopted a plan for the support of the twelve United Methodist Negro Colleges through an annual apportionment to the Annual Conferences to be passed on to local churches and discontinued the Race Relations Sunday Offering for the support of these institutions, and

Whereas, there is a serious lapse of time before these institutions will receive funds under the new plan thereby creating serious deficiencies in current operational expenses, and

Whereas, Annual Conferences are being asked to make some special financial effort on behalf of these colleges either this fall or next spring, therefore

Be It Resolved, the the North Carolina Annual Conference approve and request that a special offering to be known as the "Emergency Appeal for Bennett College, Greensboro, North Carolina" be taken in each local church on Sunday, November 5, 1972, and forwarded to the Conference Treasurer, and that the Conference Treasurer be instructed to send all receipts from this offering to Bennett College.

ADOPTED SUPPLEMENTARY RESOLUTIONS
OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL CONCERNS

We recommend:

"Removal of abortion from the criminal code and placement under regulations relating to other procedures of standard medical practice. The problem of abortion performed by non-licensed physicians would be dealt with in the framework of the law."

(Supplement to Goal 89)

We recommend the following as the policy statement of the North Carolina Annual Conference concerning day-care programs by local churches:

"Our primary concern is to provide high-quality day care for children at minimum cost to parents. All centers will be required to meet standards for State licensing under the law. This calls for two levels, one a minimum and the other including higher voluntary standards. Since these in any case are not very high, we desire that our churches set standards above those required by state law in terms of facilities, program and expression of the church's Christian concern for children. Personnel should have the highest possible qualifications and training that churches can secure. We recommend that the church establish smaller groupings than the state law requires, especially for children under four years of age."

(Supplement to Goal 96)

3. We recommend United Methodist efforts in support of the reform of North Carolina Correctional Institutions with adoption of the following resolution:

"Whereas the prisons of our State should not be instruments of vengeance, but correction and rehabilitation, and

"Whereas all the inmates of our prisons, regardless of the nature of their offense, are persons with whom Christ has identified and whom He has called us to serve, and

Whereas society is not benefited or successfully protected or crime diminished by prisons which are dehumanizing and which tend to reinforce and encourage the anti-social propensities of inmates, and prisons which are dehumanizing and which tend to reinforce and encourage the anti-social propensities of inmates, and

Whereas the prisons of North Carolina are in fact severly limited in their capacities to rehabilitate, and do in fact tend to make inmates more criminal rather than less criminal, and

Whereas these deficiencies are largely due to the severe lack of resources in terms of personnel and facilities, which lack in turn stems from public ignorance, apathy, contempt, and selfrighteous vindictiveness toward the criminal offender,

Therefore, be it resolved that the North Carolina Annual Conference express its urgent desire for positive change in the prison system so that prisons become centers of help, and healing that churches be urged to inquire into the conditions of prisons and to study the issue of crime and punishement in light of a Christian perspective; and that the Governor and the Genera Assembly of North Carolina continue to give attention to the needs of the prisons and to provide the resources which are so badly needed to increase their capacities to rehabilitate by the following measures:

a. Provide more adequate training for all levels of the correctional staff, both basic training at the time of employment and on the job training, and to upgrade the scale of compensation for correctional officers to bring it in line with that of other state law enforcement personnel
b. to provide educational opportunities, vocational training opportunities, library services, and recreational facilities for prisoners so that every inmate has access to the means of educational advancement, reading and recreation, and vocational training while he is imprisoned.
c. to increase staff in critical areas such as work with youthful offenders, health care, guidance couseling, education, and diagnosis and classification
d. to replace or renovate existing prison units to provide single occupancy rooms as rapidly as possible, beginning with facilities for youthful offenders and inmates with behavior disorders which may endanger other inmates
e. to develop community advancement centers as final rehabilitative step before release and to encourage local mental health centers to work closely with correctional units on mental problems of inmates.

Be it also resolved that churches be urged to participate in the community volunteer program of the North Carolina Correctional System and that comprehensive ministeries to prisoners before imprisonment, while incarcerated, and upon return to the community be initiated and implemented by task forces or mission groups from cooperating churches in each community.

RESOLUTION CONCERNING THE WAR IN INDOCHINA:
(An addition to Goal 101)

We, the delegates to the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church view with much anguish the war in Indochina. Our main concern is not to engage in a debate to fix the blame for this distressing war, so costly in human life and material resources. Our primary concern is to support diligently the search for a solution to this human slaughter.

We commend our national leaders for those efforts already made to reach some solution to the war.

We call upon the Congressional leaders from North Carolina to use their influence to intensify the search for solutions that promise a cessation of hostilities in Indochina and the removal of all members of the United States Armed Forces from Vietnam, Laos, and Cambodia. We pledge them our prayerful support and urge them to lead us in an effective policy of international goodwill and peace.

We ask that copies of this resolution be sent to all of our North Carolina Congressional and Senatorial delegation in Washington.

A RESOLUTION OF TRIBUTE TO THE OUTSTANDING LAYMAN OF THE YEAR DR. J. EDWARD LEGATES

Dr. Legates was born and reared on a dairy farm near Milford, Delaware.

He attended a small rural church in that community and at about the age of twelve, he had a meaningful and memorable conversion experience. From that time to the present he has been active in almost every phase of church work and Christian witness.

He holds the B. S. degree in animal and poultry science from the University of Delaware and the Masters and Doctor of Philosophy degrees from Iowa State University.

In 1949, he came to Raleigh and joined the faculty of North Carolina State University where he gained distinction as a leading research scientist and professor. During these years he has become one of the nation's leading authorities on animal genetics and has a reputation among scientists around the world for his contributions in the area of genetics of dairy cattle.

Since coming to Raleigh he and his wife have been active in the Fairmont United Methodist Church, and he in the Lay work of our conference. He has served as Chairman of the Administrative Board, Church Lay Leader, Sunday School Teacher, Chairman of Evangelism and has served in many other capacities. He has recently served as Vice-Chairman of our conference Board of The Laity, and is currently the Raleigh District Lay Leader. He has also done extensive Lay Speaking, and he and his wife have been effectively active in Lay Witness Missions.

Ed has always taught young and older adults but recently has been teaching a class of 7th, 8th, and 9th grade boys which he finds to be increasingly challenging rewarding.

In April of 1971, Ed Legates was appointed Dean of the School of Agriculture and Life Sciences at N. C. State University–one of the University's largest schools with programs in resident teaching, research and extension. In this position he serves with distinction and admittedly finds a close correlation and application between his Christian commitment as a Methodist Layman and his professional and academic work.

He is the husband of Betty Legates and they have four fine children.

RESOLUTION OF APPRECIATION TO DUKE UNIVERSITY AND TO TRINITY UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

The Committee on Resolutions and References speaks for the North Carolina Conference of The United Methodist Church in expressing deep appreciation to Duke University for inviting us to hold our business meeting and special daytime services of worship for the one hundred forty-seventh session of the Annual Conference in Page Auditorium and in Duke Chapel. We also appreciate the welcome given us by the representatives of the City of Durham, the president of Duke University, and the clergy, including the district superintendent and the pastor of Trinity United Methodist Church Certain personal references must be made. We gratefully recognize Dr. Bill Quick and his staff at Trinity Church for their planning and attention to numerous details, including the evening worship services at Trinity. Also we thank Mr. Paul Vick and Dr. C. D. Barclift for their part in the arrangements which contributed so much to the success of this Conference.

We thank those responsible for the buses that made our getting about from place to place easier, for the good food, the lodging, the displays, the bookstore, the program in its entirety. This committee hopes that in future conferences we will follow the precedent of the identitication card that also served as meal ticket, room number reminder, key holder and badge. Registration was simple and easy. Thank you!

The printed program which included also this year the special orders of worship and the words of the hymns was a good idea which should be continued in future years.

This committee expresses a word of thanks also to Dr. N. W. Grant for his able leadership in all areas of his responsibility and especially in the tribute dinner and program for Bishop Cannon on Tuesday evening.

ur bishop continues to enliven each session of the Annual Conference with his leadership.
raise God for his wit, his humanness, and his great love of Christ and His Church.
e shall ong remember this session of the North Carolina Annual Conference. We want to k all persons who redered services either small or great. We would not forget the pages, the taries, those who provided beautiful flowers at Trinity Church, the guest preachers, and y others.
Now, therefore, be it resolved that we of the North Carolina Annual Conference do hereby ess our sincere gratitude for all these services we have received.

ACCOUNTANTS' COMMENTS RELATING TO CERTAIN AUDITING PROCEDURES

The scope of our examination is contained in our opening letter. Certain features of the examination are set forth below.

Cash on deposit was confirmed directly with the banks. Cash receipts were traced to their subsequent deposit in the bank on a test basis, and disbursements were verified by test examination of cancelled checks and paid invoices or authorizations. Income from charges, as shown by the Treasurer's records, was confirmed directly with the pastors, and minor differences reported to us of the date of this report were adjusted or satisfactorily explained.

Distribution of income from charges was audited by reference to the report of the Commission on World Service and Finance for the 1971 and 1972 sessions of the Annual Conference and by reference to proper authorizations from the various boards of the Conference.

Investments of the Treasurer and of the various boards and funds were either inspected or, if held by an outside agent, confirmed by direct confirmation during the course of our examination.

Cash receipts in transit represent 1971-72 collections received by the Treasurer subsequent to the balance sheet date and were set up from deposits in the bank accounts. Accounts and apportionments payable were set up from disbursements subsequent to the balance sheet date and by reference to proper authorization for the distribution of 1971-72 collections.

Our examination of other assets–Board of Missions, Inc.–included the inspection of documents supporting disbursements and verification of the balances by direct correspondence with the churches on a test basis.

STATISTICAL TABLES

D. D. TRAYNHAM, Conference Statistician

Note: An explanation of the numbering system:

The charge number for stations or circuits continues in use as heretofore and is subject to change when any change in a name or alignment affects the alphabetical listing.

The new CHURCH numbers have been assigned to all local churches permanently for the benefit of persons doing research. The letters indicate the county (by abbreviation) in which the church is located. The figures are the church number within its county.
